LUKE LANGE

Yreka Man Files For Post

YREKA — Luke Lange, well known real estate man and automobile dealer, said today that he will publicly announce his candidacy for the California State Senate during a campaign kickoff dinner in Crescent City Saturday evening, March 1.

Lange said he will file on the Democratic ticket seeking the second district senatorial seat which is now held by Randolph Collier of Yreka.

Lange is a native of Nebraska, was raised and educated in Medford, and moved to Yreka when he was 18. He has operated electrical appliance and truck repair and parts businesses in Yreka and San Jose, California, and during the past 14 years he has been part owner in the Erickson and James Motor Company of Yreka.

Lange said he feels that his well rounded background will prove to be an invaluable source of experience and knowledge, and that he will wage a vigorous campaign based on a "positive program for local needs."

He is a resident of Yreka, is married and the father of four daughters. He is 45.

THAT'S THE TICKET

OKLAHOMA CITY — Dan Hollingsworth, manager of the Oklahoma City Safety Council, attended a municipal meeting to study the ticket-fixing problem and help city workers find parking without getting traffic tickets.

Church Bills College Choir

The Lewis and Clark College Choir of Portland will appear in concert at the First Presbyterian Church in Klamath Falls on March 8 at 8 p.m.

This choir, which is now well known throughout the Pacific Coast, will be on its 10th annual tour. The choir is under the direction of L. Stanley Glarum whose choral compositions are used by school and church choirs throughout the entire country. Some of his recent compositions will be featured on the program.

In its decade of touring, the group has been enthusiastically received by audiences from Disneyland to Vancouver, B.C. The choir is regarded as comparing favorably with the best choirs in the nation.
