

MRS. G. E. McPEAK, far right, was a much feted visitor from Los Angeles, during her recent stay at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Seth Kerron, 2028 Manzanita.

Grande finale to a series of informal parties in honor of Mrs. McPeak was a 12 noon to 2 p.m. drop-in luncheon given by Mrs. Kerron on February 13. The casual approach to entertaining a large group was with the use of paper plates—a delightful solution to the always perplexing problem of "how to give a party and go to it, too."

Eye appeal was not sacrificed by employing the disposable dish method. Guests helped themselves from the bountiful buffet and sat where they pleased to enjoy the excellent food and lively conversation.

Comments from enthusiastic guests clearly indicated that there will be more such luncheons given by local hostesses. With Mrs. McPeak in the picture are, left to right, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. Lyle Kellstrom and Mrs. Noel B. Flynn.

PRACTICAL AND PRETTY are the paper plates of today. That fact was evidenced at the noon to 2 p.m. luncheon given by Mrs. Seth M. Kerron at the Kerron home on Manzanita. The informality of the occasion was introduced with the invitations to "drop-in" for luncheon.

The hours provided comfortable leeway for mothers with baby-sitting problems or busy housewives with uncertain schedules, etc., — and a happy two hours of easy entertaining for the hostess.

Mrs. Kerron was so busy circulating among her guests and generally enjoying herself that the photographer couldn't catch up with her.

DUNSMUIR GIRL WEDS IN SALINAS

DUNSMUIR—The marriage of Yvonne June Lambert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lambert of Dunsmuir, to Lawrence Duckworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gil Holt of Klamath, California, was recently announced by the bride's parents.

The late afternoon ceremony took place at the First Methodist Church in Salinas, California, on Monday, January 27, the Rev. Paul Logston officiant.

For her informal wedding the bride wore a navy blue suit of raw silk tweed and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

CHS Sophomore Sweetheart Ball

CHLOQUIN — Sophomores Sandra Haas and Ronald Hogarth were elected queen and king of the Sweetheart Ball given Saturday night at the Chiloquin High School. They were crowned by Lucille Barrera, chairman of the entertainment committee of the junior class which sponsored the event. The crowns were silver with red hearts.

The rooms were lavishly decorated with red and white streamers, heart-shaped doorway and a false ceiling of crepe paper. On one wall were two huge hearts on which were tiny hearts, each inscribed with the name of a student in the school. Refreshments included two large cakes with the names of the king and queen, red roses and hearts as decorations.

Other class candidates for king and queen were freshmen Pat Smith and John Cole; juniors Della Erickson and Earl Harris; and seniors Lou Ellen Cook and Wyn Hescok.

Evening Party For 40 Youngsters

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Bob Seater and Mrs. Claude Brown gave a 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. party at the community hall on February 22, for 40 Bonanza and Langell Valley youngsters.

The evening was spent playing games and dancing, and refreshments were served at 10.

Mrs. Wayne Yancey, Mrs. Mike Dearborn and Mrs. Jess McFall assisted Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Seater.

"I never write letters" explained the woman who hadn't bothered to write a thank you note for a favor done her. She did, however, manage to write the letter requesting the favor. That's the way with most people who claim they never write letters. They mean they only write them when they want something.

Orions Slate March Events

Orion's was held February 11 at the home of Mrs. Fred Biehn, 1605 Eldorado Street, with Mrs. Roland Cofer, president, as co-hostess.

A committee was appointed to look into a welfare project to be decided upon at the March meeting. A white elephant sale is also slated for the month of March.

Following the meeting games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. James Sweatt and Mrs. J. V. Wacter. The special prize was won by Mrs. Richard Teater.

Guests were served refreshments from a table decorated with gay arrangements of hearts and flowers.

Others present were Mrs. J. G. Lindsey, special guest; Mrs. C. M. Larson, Mrs. Ray Aschenbach, Mrs. C. A. Baker, Mrs. Charlie McFarlan, Mrs. Preston J. Card, Mrs. W. D. Elliott, Mrs. Virgil Koehn, Mrs. Carl Pernigotti, Mrs. Myron Murray and Mrs. Charles York.

The presidents of the three groups were introduced and presented with corsages. They, in turn, introduced their members. Izzetta Fahia is president of AAUW, Buna Faris, Soroptimist Club; and Barbara Snider, BPW.

Order Of The Amaranth

Friendship Court No. 11, Order of Amaranth, celebrated its 19th birthday Wednesday night, March 19 at a stated meeting in the Scottish Rite Temple. Honored members were Mary Ellen Gaster and Catherine Wright, grand representatives of the Grand Court of Oregon; Ruth Rodenberger, Lucille Wirtz, past royal matrons; James Hunter and Wes Guderian, past royal patrons of Friendship Court, and Harold Jones, past royal patron of Wenatchee Court.

Lucille Wirtz was elected as the official delegate to Grand Court in Portland March 6, 7 and 8. Royal Matron Emogene Jones and Royal Patron Norman Jones were presented with a planter and cake, as a substitute for the housewarming the court had planned for them, and Wes Guderian sang "Bless This House."

Royal Matron Emogene gave a short history on the Order of Amaranth, telling of its origin by Queen Christina of Denmark. The year of origin is thought to have been 1653.

The next meeting of Friendship Court will be March 19, at which time there will be election of officers.

YREKA

OES MEETING

A heart tree and valentine place cards, and other valentine decorations marked the theme of the recent meeting held by the Stella Chapter, Order of Eastern Stars, in the Yreka Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Eric Garoute, worthy matron, has arranged the decorations in the chapter room, which included large candles on the pedestals and a valentine tree in the west.

In carrying out the valentine theme for the program, Mrs. Thomas Watt related the story of the origin of Valentine's Day and the customs observed on that date.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room, where the tables were appointed with valentine place cards with the centerpiece as a heart tree. Assisting Mrs. Watt with refreshments were Mrs. Paul Greene, Mrs. L. C. Walsh and Mrs. W. D. Houston.

AAUW Hosts Tri-Club Dinner

LAKEVIEW — The Lakeview branch of the American Association of University Women was the host group for the Tri-Club banquet on February 13 at Van's restaurant. The two guest clubs were the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Soroptimist Club.

The presidents of the three groups were introduced and presented with corsages. They, in turn, introduced their members. Izzetta Fahia is president of AAUW, Buna Faris, Soroptimist Club; and Barbara Snider, BPW.

The entertainment program included a saxophone duet by Gloria Ayoubt and Starla Trippett; a girls vocal trio made up of Leticia Smead, Sylvia Johnson and LaVonne Kratz, accompanied by Robert Shotwell; and a piano solo by Mrs. Philip Lynch.

Three members from the high school Thespian group, Tayle Jones, Bud Deming and Pat Sullivan, presented a one-act comedy, directed by Donald Butler.

MRS. PAUL SHARP, seated at the end of the table, has the attention of the three sharing the table with her. From the left, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Adams' mother, Mrs. H. H. Tonseth and Mrs. Eugene Favell.

Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson, standing, either has already been to the buffet or has yet to go. All were guests at the informal luncheon Mrs. Kerron gave for her sister, Mrs. McPeak, who left a few days later for her home in Los Angeles.

Movies Viewed ByFWWC At OTI

Movies were shown by Mr. and Mrs. John Tribe to members of the Oregon Tech Faculty Wives and Women's Club at their regular meeting on February 11, in the OTI Student Lounge. The pictures and commentary were on boat trips that Mr. and Mrs. Tribe have taken down the Rogue, San Juan and Colorado rivers.

Business of the evening included passing of a motion to sponsor the Girl Scout troop recently organized on the campus. Mrs. Ole Lundie is leader of the troop.

Mrs. A. E. Smith was appointed chairman for the annual graduation tea.

Valentines decorated the table from which refreshments were served by the hostesses for the evening. Mrs. Walter Palmberg, Mrs. George Crowe, Mrs. W. M. Douglass and Mrs. Donald Whitwer.

Constant sunshine tends to bleach and streak the hair and will also dry your hair, so if you live in a sub-tropical climate, it's best to tie a chiffon scarf about your head when you go out of doors.

Hi-Jinks Dance

LAKEVIEW—Satellites, rockets, sputniks and their accoutrements formed the basis for decoration at the Hi-Jinks dinner-dance, Saturday evening, February 22. Miniature replicas were used for table decorations at the dinner in the Hotel Lakeview banquet room, and a large rocket was "launched" at St. Patrick's Parish Hall for the dancing background there. Club members and guests based their costumes on space travel.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nichols, Dr. and Mrs. Ed Zarosinski, Dr. and Mrs. Victor Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sorseth, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dutro, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Augustine and Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson.

The committee included Mr. and Mrs. Don Clause, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ogle, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Young, Mr. and Mrs. Ed MacKay, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Ted McKee and Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Robinson.

Birthday Party

BONANZA—Trudy Brown was 13 on February 23, but she celebrated her birthday anniversary on February 22, at a 1:30 to 5 p.m. party.

Baseball, other games and dancing were diversion. Trudy's sister Deanna, and their mother, Mrs. Frank Brown, served the refreshments.

Guests were Kathy Brett, Carolyn Ellis, Lana Peacock, Ruth Hughes, Joan Fernlund, Margie Thomas, Susie Williams, Mrs. Roy Fernlund and Mrs. Hazen Peacock.
