

ONE OF FEBRUARY'S FAIREST BRIDES... is blonde and blue eyed Mrs. Harold Austin Haddock. Statuesque and lovely, Latvian-born Ara Kisis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Voldemars Kisis, 621 Washington Street.

The recent marriage of their daughter to Annapolis graduate 1st Lt. Harold Austin Haddock, USAF, is for the Kisis the beginning of another happy chapter in their comparatively new life as an American family. They have another daughter and one son, both living at home — Daila, who was maid of honor at her sister's wedding — and Aivars, who served as one of the ushers.

— Photo by Guderian

Lt. and Mrs. Harold A. Haddock Now At Hill Air Force Base, Ogden

Klamath Lutheran Church was the setting for the February 9 wedding of Ara Kisis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Voldemars Kisis, 621 Washington Street, to 1st Lt. Harold Austin Haddock, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Haddock, former Klamath Falls residents, now living in Grants Pass.

The Rev. Leroy Redal read the marriage service at 4 p.m., in the presence of 150 guests. Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, Ara wore a gown of white lace over satin. Designed with a princess line front, the back of the floor length skirt featured a waist-to-hemline cascade of alternate lace and net ruffles. The fitted bodice was made with a bateau neckline and long, pointed sleeves.

AFAM, OES Members Honored By RFG

MALIN — At the February 17 meeting of the Malin Rainbow Assembly, Masonic and Eastern Star members were honored. Worthy Adviser Claudia Zeiders presided. Mrs. Frances Kalina, the new mother adviser of the Malin Assembly, was honored with an address and presented a gift. Mrs. Patricia Ottomani was installed as a board member.

Guests introduced and escorted to the east were Sandra Stone, past worthy adviser; Sue Lund, worthy adviser; and Mrs. A. Rightmeier, mother adviser, all of the Klamath Falls Assembly; Mrs. Agnes Schreiner and Mrs. Richard Kruger, past mother advisers of the Malin Assembly; and Mrs. Edna Hunnicutt, worthy matron of Prosperity Chapter, OES. Twelve members of the Klamath Falls Assembly were special guests of the evening.

The program included a drill by the Mustangettes under the leadership of Mrs. Ruby Kujac; a piano solo by Mary Jayne Fisk; and two vocal duets by Phyllis Unruh and Glynna Weatherby, "Sugar Time" and "Empty Arms."

Dancing Party

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wooten gave a Sweetheart Ball and valentine party for their son, Scott, and 40 guests on February 13. Assisting with games, dancing and refreshments were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morley and Mrs. Charles Steber.

The party was given at the community hall, decorated in the valentine motif.

So these are factors you must take into consideration in caring for your hair. City grime means more frequent shampoos. Sea air or the humid air of any port city means that you must use a hair spray fairly often, have your hair cut in layers for maximum curl and make daily use of a hair brush. (You should do this no matter where you live.)

day, the eve of the wedding, was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., 1700 Fairmont. Besides the honored nuptial couple and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellingson were hosts to the Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Redal, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Haddock, Sylvia Wilbur, Daila Kisis, Gerald Haddock, David Haddock, Aivars Kisis, Kathryn Ellingson, Robert Ellingson III and Peter Ellingson.

Shower for the bride-to-be included one given on January 17, by Mrs. R. Parcher Ellingson and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr., at the Robert Ellingson home.

The guest list included Mrs. L. Ernest Taylor and Carol; Mrs. Joseph Huck, Mrs. Orlan Mann, Mrs. Ivan Epesley, Mrs. C. W. Murdock, Mrs. Glen Haddock, Mrs. Clifton Ongman, Mrs. Victor Ongman, Mrs. T. J. Hoff, Mrs. Chet Hamaker and Heather, Mrs. Ed Isensee, Mrs. Ruben S. Laurhammer and Mary Nell, Mrs. Estlin Kiger and Estelline, Sylvia Wilbur, Virginia Foster and special guests, Mrs. Voldemars Kisis and Daila, Ara's mother and sister.

On February 4, Mrs. Jack Larson and Mrs. Lucille Binns were co-hostesses for a shower at the Larson residence, 311 Division Street. Besides the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Kisis, and Mrs. Hugh Haddock, the guest list included Mrs. Marion Crossfield, Mrs. Folk W. Haddock, Mrs. Glen Haddock, Mrs. Douglas Pence, Mrs. Elmer Jones, Mrs. O. C. Rice, Mrs. Dorothy West, Mrs. Roy Wilbanks, Mrs. George Steele, Lois Larson, Kathleen Fischer, Kitty, Peg and Evelyn Binns.

The reception was in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. L. Ernest Taylor presided at the coffee service; Mrs. Marion Crossfield cut the cake; Mrs. Glen Haddock, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served punch; and Patsy Turrittin, Eugene, registered the guests.

Ara, before her graduation from Klamath Union High School in 1957, was president of KU's mixed chorus; president of Klamath Tri-Hi-Y; and a member of Future Business Leaders. She was also voted the most beautiful blonde at KUHS.

Lt. Haddock was graduated from KUHS in 1948. After two years at Oregon State College he enlisted in the U.S. Navy and was appointed to the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis by Sen. Guy Cordon. After his graduation in 1956, Haddock was commissioned in the United States Air Force, and stationed at Ellington AFB, Houston, where he completed navigator school and received his wings.

He was stationed at Mather Field, Sacramento, until his recent assignment at Hill AFB, Ogden, where the newlyweds have been at home for about a week. For travel to California, Ara wore a navy blue suit, black patent shoes and a bag and a navy and white cloche.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Haddock, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Glen R. Crowe and children, Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. Phaylo Pfefferle, Cave Junction, Oregon; David Haddock, Grants Pass and Oregon State College, Corvallis; Gerald Haddock, Washington State College, Pullman, Washington; and Patsy Turrittin, Eugene and Southern Oregon College, Ashland.

PRE-NUPITAL EVENTS
The rehearsal dinner on Satur-

THE KLAMATH COMMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION scored a hit two years ago when it presented the Chicago Opera Ballet — and next year's concert series, featuring a return of the famous dance group, promises to win more acclaim from local devotees of both the "long hair" and "crew cut" sets. Stars of the cast of 50 are Mia Slavenska and Oleg Briansky.

Opera-into-ballet is an art pioneered and developed by Ruth Page, whose originality and audacity in her dancing and choreography have caused coast to coast and nation to nation sensations.

The program for the ballet company's local appearance, scheduled for Thursday, February 19, 1959 at the Pelican Theater, includes "The Merry Widow," based on the famous operetta with music by Franz Lehar; "Revenge," taken from Giuseppe Verdi's opera, "Il Trovatore;" "Suzanna and the Barber," based on Gioacchino Rossini's opera, "The Barber of Seville;" "El Amor Brujo," with music by Manuel De Falla and "The Triumph of Chastity," with music by Jacques Ibert.

Admission to the series of concerts is by membership ticket only. Memberships are obtainable from any of 70 workers or from campaign headquarters at 120 North Seventh Street, from March 3 through March 8.

—Photo by Kettler

Local Zuleima Nile Club To Hear KUHS Choir On 5th

The Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls regular luncheon meeting is slated for Wednesday, March 5, at 1 p.m., in the Willard Hotel.

The newly elected officers will be in charge, and the committee chairman for 1958-59 will be introduced.

The Klamath Union High School

A Cappella Choir under the direction of Mr. Andrew Loney Jr., will entertain. This will be a dress rehearsal for the choir, as they leave March 19 to sing at the National Convention of Music Educators in Los Angeles. Betty Thornton as program chairman, will introduce Director Loney.

It is requested that all members purchase their luncheon ticket at the Willard Hotel desk. All out-of-town members please make reservations through the committee chairman, Arzella Voight, 1603 Eldorado, or TU 4-3716.

If you want such cream to do its best for you, be sure to use it daily.

CHILOQUIN ASSEMBLY RAINBOW FOR GIRLS newly installed officers are pictured after the ceremonies in the Chiloquin Masonic Hall.

First row, from the left, Sharon Wilder, Donna Robinson, Sharon Davis, Linda Oates, Cherry Wolff, Janet Clark, worthy adviser; Janet Hall, Meta Collins, Mary Ann Hardman and Diane Kircher.

Standing, same order, Barbara Davis, Louise Niehaus, Judy Stanley, Lou Ellen Cook, Betty Winkle, Claudia Heglund, Louise Heglund and Joan Botens.

—Photo by Hiroto Zakoji

Chiloquin Assembly RFG Installs WA Janet Clark

CHILOQUIN — Janet Clark, daughter of Mrs. Callie Clark, was installed as Worthy Adviser for the Chiloquin Assembly of Rainbow for Girls on Saturday, January 25, at the Masonic Hall.

"You'll Never Walk Alone" was chosen as the theme song and background decor was in a snowman and snowflake motif. Snowflakes hung from the ceiling throughout the rooms and a large snowman was placed in the east. On the refreshments table a large cake made in the form of a snowman was placed beneath the rainbow colors. Program covers also carried out the theme.

New officers are worthy associate adviser, Eleanor McNamer; charity, Louise Niehaus; hope, Claudia Heglund; faith, Sandra Haas; love, Sharon Wilder; religion, Louise Heglund; nature, Janet Hall; recorder, Betty Winkle; treasurer, Judy Stanley; reporter, Karen Jenkins; immortality, Sharon Davis; fidelity, Meta Collins; patriotism, Mary Ann Hardman; service, Joan Botens; drill leader, Lou Ellen Cook; chaplain, Linda Oates; inner observer, Donna Robinson; outer observer, Barbara Davis; choir director, Diane Kircher; pianist, Cherry Wolff; and photographer, Pat Smith.

Also installed was the new Mother Adviser, Ethel Mathis, replacing Mrs. Donas Ridenour, who had served since the forming of the group in 1956. Rosalie Hoback is assistant mother adviser, Mrs. Myrtle Myers, chairman of the advisory board with Lawrence Myers, Layton Hoback, Pearl Adamo, Gene Page, Donas Ridenour, Ruphane Mannering, and Doris Kircher as the other board members.

Installing officers were Myrtle Myers, Gleta Wampler, Peggy DuBois, Athel Roser and Cordelia Hoback.

The crowning ceremony was conducted by members of the Lost River Chapter, Order of DeMolay. The Worthy Adviser's family was introduced in a special presentation.

Entertainment included a piano duet by Sharon and Karen Chase; a choir selection of "You'll Never Walk Alone," and a formal dance at which Mr. and Mrs. Layton Hoback, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall were hosts. Mrs. Wayne Niehaus headed the mothers' committee which prepared and served refreshments.

If you're not certain of the best way to handle your hair in pin curling, ask your hairdresser to show you know.

BUY CANDY
Aid The
CAMPFIRE GIRLS
Sale Starts
Saturday
MARCH 1

it's Bon Bazaar, of Course!

PRACTICAL PRETTIES

by

pat
premo

Beautiful little dresses with a lifting feel of Spring... red and blue plaids on sheer tissue gingham. Easy to care for, versatile for so many occasions, and with the lovely fashion detailing that is typical of Pat Premo. Sizes: 8-18.

$37⁹⁵

Low, Low Prices Plus 4% Green Stamps

the Bon Bazaar

4480 So. Sixth

Next to Oregon Food

PATENT
brightens the fashion future!

This is the fashion star
whose twinkling star is patent!
Its luster highlights Johansen's
sleek new shapes that point
the fashionable way. All,
with that come-alive feeling
typical of Johansen!

johansen

Leone's

525 Main
Phone TU 4-3466

Especially for Mothers Day

CHILD
PHOTOS
$1 each
FLOYDS STUDIO
3 1/2 x 5"
Minimum
3
PHONE 4-4526
FLOYDS STUDIO
1037 MAIN
KLAMATH FALLS

PRE-NUPITAL EVENTS
The rehearsal dinner on Satur-