

4-H NEWS

THE KITCHEN KLATTERS
The Kitchen Klatters Cooking Club of Merrill met at the Recreation Hall.

HENLEY ROOTERS
Last fall several members from the Henley Rooters, Julia Rhodes, Sandra Lister and Dan Croft, took a collection of clothes and food down to Malin to be migrant workers' camp.

BACHELOR BUDDIES
"Bachelor Buddies" is the name of a newly formed 4-H Club. It's members are 9 and 10-year-old boys who are learning to sew and to cook.

THE RANCH COOKS
The meeting of the Ranch Cooks was called to order by the president, Paul Dearborn, February 13. The secretary was absent so they did not have the minutes, but they had the pledge, David Howell and Teddy Dearborn brought refreshments.

TABLE ROCK
MONTAGUE - Several future activities were discussed at the recent meeting of the Table Rock 4-H Club, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townley at Little Shasta, with the president, Nola Wheeler conducting the meeting.

ELECTRIC WIRES
The first meeting of the Electric Wires 4-H Electricity Club was held at the home of Mrs. Don Schreiner, on February 14. We had the election of officers with Donald Schreiner, elected president; Eddie Kolemar, vice president; Bob Brown, secretary;

DRAWING POWER
ESTES PARK, Colo. (AP)—Supt. James Lloyd of Rocky Mountain National Park instructed his rangers this past summer to ask visitors what brought them to Colorado. About 40 per cent said they were relatives in the state, 30 per cent said they had been here before, 17 per cent said they were attracted by oil company maps. The rest gave varying reasons.

Gary Urbach, news reporter; and Robert Kollmar, song leader. Our leader helped us do some electrical tricks. Mrs. Schreiner served us cupcakes and cocoa.

OLENE DAIRY CLUB
The Olene Dairy Club held its fourth meeting on February 2 at the home of Dick and Steve Reiling.

A special guest of the club, Mr. Stanley Masten, demonstrated to 11 members how to make rope halters for their dairy animals. To make a halter properly the rope must be spliced in two places and several different types of knots are used.

After the halters were made, Masten and Wilbur Reiling gave a report on the advantages and disadvantages of feeding pellets to dairy cattle. After the meeting Mrs. Reiling served delicious lemon pie and punch to the members and guests.

KRAZYKILOCYCLES
February 7 at Merle Jackson's home was the first meeting of the second year Electricity Club which is called Fun With Low Volts. We elected officers who are Dwight Schuh, president; Russell Krecklow, vice president; Dennis Rodgers, secretary, and Terry Graham, news reporter.

Volts and Watts Electricity Club was called to order by Steven Skinner. During the meeting we had our pictures taken. We reviewed last week's lesson on flashlights. After the review we filled our books.

THE RECIPE KIDS
On February 8, the Recipe Kids met at their leader's home, Mrs. L. E. Rodgers's, for their weekly meeting. Frances Dal Broi demonstrated the use of a pastry cloth in baking by making a rolled sugar cookie dough which she cut out in heart-shapes. After they were baked with pink frosting, Frances then served the cookies to the club members. They also were served pink punch.

MALIN PORKERS
The first meeting of the Malin Porkers was called to order by the president, Paul Dearborn, February 13. The secretary was absent so they did not have the minutes, but they had the pledge, David Howell and Teddy Dearborn brought refreshments.

Porkers was called to order by last year's president, Gyanna Weatherby, on February 12. We first had a review on last year's fall fair. Each member told about what prizes were received at the fair and how we could improve for this year's fair. The leaders, Mr. Weatherby and Mr. Elmont Kenyon, handed out last year's record books. Then we discussed the parts we made mistakes on. We then told what we could do to improve for next year. Dan Duncan brought a new member, Phillip Petrasek. The leaders explained about the club to Phillip and his dad.

Our visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Ingram and Mr. Petrasek. Mr. Ingram asked about a pen of four and if you could do better. The members present were Glynda Weatherby, Linda Ingram, Bety Pope, Phillip Petrasek, Dan Duncan, Ernest Hunt and Reggie Hunt. At the next meeting we will have election of officers and plan this year's calendar. The meeting will be held at the home of Elmont Kenyon on March 5. Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. E. Weatherby, Bety Pope, News Reporter
