Lakeview 4-H Event Held

LAKEVIEW—A good representation of boys and girls in the older 4-H groups met at the Youth Center in Lakeview, Thursday evening, March 27, for the formation of the Lake County Junior Leaders Association, and election of pro tem officers for the group.

Named to head the new organization were Bernice Busic, president; Deanna Bechedahl, vice president; Janet Oakley, secretary-reporter; Kenneth Paxton, treasurer; Joyce Robnett and Dan Heavilin, board members. Advisers will be chosen later. Executive committee meetings will be held on the second Thursday of each month, and the regular group meetings are scheduled for the third Thursday.

Membership in the association is not confined to 4-H Club members, but can actually be achieved by any young person in the over 14 age group who is interested in 4-H Club work. It is established as a regular club project and credit as such can be achieved at the end of the club year.

Placed with the enthusiasm of the young people in attendance at this formative stage, County Club Agent Al Haslebacher states that such a group has a variety of fields in which to work toward both 4-H Club and personal development. Much of the burden is taken from the shoulders of the many tried-and-true senior leaders who have given so many years of their time to the program, and also provides help for the younger group of leaders who take over direction and help with the many projects each year.

A tentative program of objectives will be set up at the first regular meeting on Thursday evening, March 20, at the Youth Center. Other eligible boys and girls are urged to attend.

Cub Scouts Hold Dinner

MERRILL—Over 100 persons, including Cub Scouts of Merrill Pack No. 7, their families and special guests, attended the annual Blue and Gold dinner held Thursday evening, February 27, at the Merrill Recreation Hall.

Each den carried out its individual themes in table decorations. Place cards and place mats were made by each of the Cub Scouts for every member of his family.

A program about skating penquins was presented by the dens of Mrs. Charles Cunningham and Mrs. George Rankin.

During the evening event, awards were presented to the following Cub Scouts: Donald Woolums, Bill Kirby, James Baird, Chris Kandra, Jerry Cunningham, Mike McKoen, Jerry McAuliffe, Jerry Geraghty, Dennis Kerns, John Chase, Frank Swisher, Andy Trujillo, Craig Fleck, Colin Pope, Bobby Rankin and Mike Rattliff.

Cubmaster Randall Pope announced that the scout exposition will be held at the Klamath Falls Fairgrounds on April 10.

An explanation on the safety program which the scouts will take active part in this year was detailed by Jack Fleck, committee-
