Long Taxi Ride Ends In Jail

BOSTON (AP)—How much does it cost to take an 18,000-mile ride in a taxi cab?

Two years in jail, said Federal Judge William T. McCarthy.

He imposed that sentence on Robert L. Smith, 31, Cleveland, Tenn.

Smith was accused of stealing his employer's taxi and taking it on a three-month joy ride, logging 18,000 miles.

Judge McCarthy remarked Smith needs a long rest after such an arduous trip.

Farm Outlook Reports Set

Reports from all the committees involved in the Klamath County Agricultural Outlook Conference will be heard Friday starting at 1:30 p.m. in the Mills School auditorium. Following the reading of the reports Professor Marion D. Thomas, agricultural economist from Oregon State College, will discuss the farm outlook.

Committees reporting will concern livestock, farm crops, 4-H Clubs, home economics, land use, and poultry. These groups have been making their studies and compiling their reports for the past two months. The purpose guiding the 130 members of the conference has been to prepare and make available information which will be helpful in local farm and home planning, according to Klamath County Agent C. A. Henderson.

The public is invited to attend the meeting and hear the reports which will be published in the Herald and News at a later date.

Damage Suit Names Actor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A $159,769 damage suit has been brought against actor Dana Andrews by a studio that claims he frequently was too intoxicated to work during the filming of a picture.

Advised of the action, the 47-year-old actor said: "I deny all the charges. It's ridiculous and childish. This is a conflict of personalities."

The suit was filed in Superior Court by Waverly Productions, Inc., which claimed it had to interrupt the shooting of the picture at least 20 times at locations in Mexico because Andrews couldn't work. The company said he left Mexico before finishing his work. It asked to be freed from a contract under which it was to pay the actor $100,000 or 10 weeks of work.
