Grade Schoolers See KU Pels In Closeup

Potential basketball stars, 360 strong, gathered at Pelican Court, Wednesday afternoon to see and applaud the state-tourney-bound Pels demonstrate the fine points of their art.

In another of the Physical Education Department's basketball clinics directed by Joe Peak, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth graders from all parts of the city were addressed by Pelican coach Don Megale prior to the demonstration.

Megale stressed the fact that in order for any youngster to become a member of a high school squad it was first necessary for him to get good grades and then to practice continually.

A high point of the turnout was the drawing for brand new basketballs supplied through the courtesy of the Union Oil Co., represented by Ed Dittler, resident manager and dealer, Bob Halvorsen.

Happy winners were Doug Smith of Fairview, Chris Carter, Fremont, Jack Hatfield, Mills and Billy Dahn from Roosevelt.

Pelican athletic director, Jim Johnson served as emcee while coach Don White assisted Megale and the KU varsity cagers.
