Local Soldier In Ethiopia

The U.S. Army Post television station, KANU-TV at Asamara, Eritrea, Africa, is a mecca for visiting dignitaries, among them U.S. Ambassador Richards, who presented the Eisenhower doctrine to countries of the Middle East last year. The post is currently preparing for a visit from General Williston B. Palmer, chief of the U.S. Army in Europe.

First Lt. Frank R. Griffiths, with the U.S. Army Signal Corps, stationed in Eritrea, is usually the official guide on these tours. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffiths, 3950 Shasta Way, Klamath Falls. He plans to return here for a visit when his current enlistment is up in October of this year.

Science Fair Entries Mount

Entries for the second annual Siskiyou County science fair are pouring into the office of the superintendent of county schools. Many more are expected before the closing deadline, March 21.

23 Years Ago

Monday, March 11, 1935—Officers of the winter sports association urged Saturday that persons with extra room in their cars, and those who have no way to get to Fort Klamath, "get together" Sunday for the trip to the Fort Klamath ski carnival. N. B. Drew said that the chamber of commerce will be the meeting place, and that those who hope to get rides should be there early.

Tuesday, March 12, 1935—A pleasant afternoon was spent by the Hit and Miss club of the Women of the Moose, Friday, at the home of Mrs. Belle Tompkins. The following members were present: Mesdames Blanche Dixon, Bertha Hogue, Anne Eccles, Fannie Thompson, Margaret LaLiberty, Edna Jensen, Peggy Long, Lulu Potts, Loretta Pex, Clara Beland and the hostess.

Wednesday, March 13, 1935—Percy Murray was the principal speaker before the Rotary Club Friday noon, addressing the organization upon the development of the dairy industry. O. E. Moeller presided as chairman and a special musical program was presented under the direction of Miss Aagott Frigaard.

Thursday, March 14, 1935—Mrs. E. M. Chilcote and Mrs. H. E. Peltz were hostesses to members and friends of the Methodist Episcopal Aid society on Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. Tea was served at the close of the afternoon.

Friday, March 15, 1935—Wilson S. Wiley, local attorney, was the principal speaker before the Lions club Tuesday noon, and George Davis presided as chairman.

Saturday, March 16, 1935—Vernon Moore, of the Balinger Motor company, announces that the Ford Motor company is shipping a carload of cars every other day to Klamath Falls. "In spite of the fact that factory production is close to capacity, production still is behind orders," Moore said.

Western Shows Ride High In TV Award Competition

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Westerns were "ridin' high" today in competition for television's golden Emmy awards to be presented April 15 for outstanding work in 1952.

"Gunsmoke," "Maverick," and "Wagon Train" were among the 35 television programs and 117 performers announced Wednesday night as the Academy of Arts and Sciences' nominees for the industry's most coveted award.

The three "out burners" were nominated for the best dramatic series with continuing characters along with "Lassie," and "Perry Mason."

Jim Arness, sober-faced Matt Dillon of "Gunsmoke," also was nominated for the best continuing performance by an actor in a leading role in a dramatic or comedy series. So was Danny Thomas, Bob Cummings, Phil Silvers, and Robert Young.

But even the westerns were meeting tough competition in Columbia Broadcasting System's dramatic playhouse 90 which had 12 nominations in 28 categories.

The Playhouse-produced programs "The Comedian," and "Helen Morgan Story" were nominated as the best single programs of the year in a field which included the Edsel Show, General Motors 50th anniversary show, and Hallmark Hall of Fame's

Soil Scientist Is Transferred

KLAMATH AGENCY—Joe Cahoon, Klamath Agency soil scientist, transferred last week to a position with the Soil Conservation Service at Lakeview. Cahoon acted as party chief of the soil scientists staff while at the Agency. As the soil survey was completed, the other scientists were transferred and Cahoon remained to prepare a report on their findings.

Prior to his service at the agency, Cahoon spent seven years with the Soil Conservation Service in the Southwest.

Cahoon was a member of the Reservation Junior Chamber of Commerce. During the 1957 All-Indian Basketball Tournament, he served as a committee chairman, and for most of the past year, he has been treasurer of the organization.

"Green Pastures." Nominated in the category of the "best musical, variety, audience participation or quiz series" were the shows of Dinah Shore, Ed Sullivan, Perry Como, Steve Allen and Jack Paar.

Lee J. Cobb was nominated for the "best single performance by an actor" for his portrayal of a pathologist on Studio One's "No Deadly Medicine."

Also named were Mickey Rooney who played "Sammy Hogarth" in Playhouse 90's "Comedian," Peter Ustinov, David Wayne and Ed Wynn.

The field for the "best continuing performance by an actress in a leading role in a dramatic or comedy series" were Eve Arden, Spring Byington, Jan Clayton, Ida Lupino and Jane Wyatt.

Edward R. Murrow's "Person to Person," and "See It Now" were nominated in the "best public service or series" category.

CBS had 67 nominations while arch rival National Broadcasting Company scored with 65.

School Board Details Listed

The law provides that persons wishing to become candidates for school board posts meet the following qualifications:

1. Be a registered voter in a precinct within the school district they seek to represent, the registration having been certified at least 30 days before the election date.

2. Be a continuous resident of the district in which they seek office for not less than six months.

Further details can be obtained by contacting Harold Ashley, school clerk, at the KUIS building.

With reference to the local school boards, one five-year seat will come up for election on each of the boards this year. Expiring terms are now being held by Jack Linman on the high school board, and by Letha Murphy on the elementary board. Neither of the incumbents has indicated whether reelection will be sought.

For the elementary post the petition of candidacy must be in the hands of the school clerk not later than April 4, and for the high school post the candidate declaration must be in the clerk's hands not later than April 24.

The school board and the budget elections will be May 5.

The two upcoming terms are for five-year periods to begin July 1, 1958.
