

Storm Brings New Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Late winter storms left a blanket of snow across wide areas in the Eastern half of the country today, with falls ranging up to nearly a foot in some areas.

Thunderstorms and strong winds hammered areas in the Southeast during the night but appeared abating.

The mid-March storms swept from the Plains eastward along the Ohio River and moved into Eastern sections of the nation.

More than 9 inches of snow was reported in Cumberland, Md. Heavy snow also fell in eastern West Virginia, with up to 7 inches in some places.

Falls ranged from 4 to 7 inches in a narrow belt from southwest Ohio through eastern sections of Ohio and across the central and southern parts of Pennsylvania. From 1 to 3 inches fell in parts of Virginia and New York state.

The snow headed into New England and was expected to continue in most of the Northeast during the day.

At least nine deaths were blamed on the stormy weather. These included five in highway accidents in Kentucky and one in Maryland. Deaths due to overexertion while shoveling snow included two in Ohio and one in Kentucky.

South of the snow belt, rain fell in the Carolinas and Florida and southern Virginia.

Mate Sues Loretta Young, Partner Over Business Deal

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Television star Loretta Young's husband accuses her and their business partner of "dishonesty, mismanagement and unfairness."

Advertising executive Tom Lewis, whose 17-year marriage to the actress has been considered one of Hollywood's happiest, filed a civil suit yesterday to dissolve their company, Lewislor Films, Inc. The company has had a part in producing her filmed show seen Sunday nights on NBC-TV.

He alleged that Miss Young and their partner Robert F. Shewalter "in combination as directors and stockholders and president and secretary-treasurer" have "exercised complete control over the corporation to the complete exclusion" of Lewis.

Unless the corporation is dissolved promptly, Lewis contended in the complaint, he will be deprived of his rights as a shareholder "due to the continued and additional dishonesty, mismanagement and unfairness" of Miss Young and Shewalter.

In New York City, where he is vice president in charge of television for the C. J. LaRoche Advertising Co., Lewis said the suit is "a corporate matter" and has "no personal implication."

In Hollywood, Miss Young was not available for comment. Her press agent said she knew of no trouble in the marriage.

Shewalter said there is no personal friction between Miss Young and Lewis "as far as I know."

Atty. Nathan J. Neilson, who filed the Superior Court action for Lewis, said it is, so far as he knows, "purely a matter of the dissolution of a business."

Lewis brought the suit against the corporation, Miss Young and Shewalter who, with him, are its owners. Shewalter described it as a "service company without assets or liabilities."

He added that Lewis produced Miss Young's show for a year or so but has not been identified with its production for about two years.

Lewis' suit alleged that the corporation has declared no dividends although net profits for the fiscal years ending in April 1955, 1956, and 1957 were $19,029.55, $39,177.76 and $37,223.42.

He also alleged that on May 11, 1956, he resigned as an officer and director at the request of Miss Young and Shewalter and that afterward they increased their own salaries to twice what they had been.

Shah Of Iran Announces Divorce From Young Queen

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The Shah of Iran today announced his divorce from beautiful young Queen Soraya because she failed to give him a son and heir to his throne.

The divorce followed weeks of negotiations with the childless, 26-year-old queen, deliberations within the Royal Council and long hours of soul-searching by Shah Mohammed Reza Pehlevi.

Soraya now is in West Germany with her father, the Iranian ambassador there.

The 38-year-old monarch and his green-eyed wife had been a devoted, almost inseparable couple, but the Shah, as a court communique put it, "ignored his personal feelings for the sake of the nation's high-level interests."

The communique said the royal advisers had urged that the heir to the Iranian throne be a son of the Shah, rather than a brother as had been suggested, because of the country's great interest and to "avoid possible future unrest."

Court sources said there was no official hint of the ruler's next bride or whether the Shah would marry before making a trip to Japan, Formosa and the United States in May. Officials said he was downcast over the divorce and probably will not marry in the near future.

Soraya reportedly had refused to remain the Shah's wife if he took another spouse in an effort to get an heir. Muslim men are permitted four wives at one time, but Soraya is the daughter of a German woman, was educated in Europe and has many Western ideas.

The Shah has one daughter by his first wife, Princess Fawzia of Egypt, but women cannot succeed to Muslim thrones. The monarch divorced Fawzia in 1948 because she, too, apparently could not give him a son.

The communique put Soraya's divorce settlement at $134,000.

Father Puts Tots In River

WHEELING, W.Va. (AP)—A 33-year-old steelworker told authorities at nearby Wellsburg last night that he had thrown his two young children into the frigid Ohio River from a bridge in Wheeling.

After several hours questioning, the Brooke County Sheriff's office said it was convinced that the man, John Turner, 33, of Beech Bottom, near Wellsburg, was telling the truth.

A search of the river was begun immediately.

Wheeling police said they found foot and hand prints in fresh snow on the sidewalk and rail of the Fort Henry Bridge. They said some of the prints appeared to be those of children.

Deputy Sheriff Evan Rees said Turner was incoherent at first and sobbed deeply at times. He said Turner could give no reason for his action.

Rees quoted Turner as saying he and the children, Betty Marie, 7, and John Jr., 4, left their house about 10:30 last night to go to a store.

Instead, Turner said, he drove to Wheeling, about 20 miles north of Beech Bottom.

Turner said he threw the children into the river, then drove back to Wellsburg, walked into the sheriff's office and told his story.
