THE BRIDE'S FATHER, John J. (Jay) Hazzard, gave her in marriage. He and Mrs. Hazzard were residents of Klamath Falls for many years before moving to Sacramento. They are frequent visitors here with friends and relatives.

A HOST OF FAMILY FRIENDS in the Klamath Basin will be interested in pictures and details of Rosalie Delcie Hazzard's marriage to Frank Nole Jr., in Sacramento Holy Spirit Catholic Church on February 22.
The couple is pictured above after the 11 a.m. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Charles Brady in the presence of some 250 guests.

MRS. HAZZARD adjusts her daughter's bridal veil just before the ceremony. The dress worn by Rosalie for her wedding was hand crocheted by another former Klamath Falls resident, Mrs. Roy Johnson (Luella Dahleim), now of Oakland, California. Mrs. Johnson won a national crochet contest with the dress.

Rosalie is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Foster, 629 Jefferson, and the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles, 525 Mesa, all of whom attended the wedding.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES GLENN of Vale, Oregon, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to a Klamath man, John Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burge W. Mason Jr., 403 Lincoln Street.

The romantic news was first revealed to the bride-elect's sorority sisters at a traditional "cookie-shine" at the Pi Beta Phi chapter house at Oregon State College, where Mary is a senior.

John, a 1957 graduate of OSC, and affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha, is presently employed in Portland. The couple plans a late fall wedding.

A CAMPUS ROMANCE at Southern Oregon College, Ashland, led to a Sweetheart Ball engagement announcement on February 15, when Judith Annada Pieser and James Richard Johns, both sophomores at SOC, told the betrothal news during intermission.

Judy is the daughter of Mrs. Stanley A. Pieser, 1410 California Avenue, who recently announced the betrothal in Klamath Falls. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Johns, Lakeview, where he was graduated from high school in 1956.

Judy was graduated from KUHS the same year, and attended Marylhurst College, Portland during her freshman year. An elementary education major at SOC, she is social representative of her class and a member of service sorority, Tri Zeta.

James is a math and science major, and is a member of Tau Kappa, service fraternity. No date has been set for the wedding.
