EDMUND (ED) BELANGER

E. Belanger To Retire

McCLOUD — Edmund (Ed) Belanger, McCLOUD, retired March 14 after 46 years in various positions in McCLOUD. He came to the area in 1914. From blacksmith's helper to plumber, to employment officer manager and then to law enforcement work was his colorful career.

Belanger joined the CHP in 1930 and continued in that position for over 21 years. After retirement from the state, he returned to the McCLOUD River Lumber Company employment office as manager. He retained that position until retirement.

"I started the junior traffic patrol, in McCLOUD, in 1927; established the first girls junior traffic patrol in the state in 1938; was appointed civil defense organizer for McCLOUD in 1941 and held that position until 1951, when I became civil defense chief for the area and retained that office until 1958," Belanger said. He went on to say he is an American Legion charter member and was responsible for organizing Chula Post in 1919. He has a life membership in the legion and was district commander when the GI Bill of Rights went in.

There was no mechanized logging, such as we have today, when he came to McCLOUD. Horses were used extensively both in the woods and in town then, he recalls.

The Belangers will make their home in Mount Shasta.

Rev. Olson Is Speaker

ALTURAS — The Rev. Karl E. Olson, pastor of the Alturas Federated Community Church, was the speaker at the newly formed Modoc County Historical Society March meeting which was held in the social hall of the church on March 9.

He related some accounts taken from early day Modoc County papers by the mother of the Rev. Roger K. Smith, Cedarville, Mrs. Smith is doing research work for the Modoc County Larger Parish, which will stage a celebration next summer to mark the diamond anniversary of the Congregational Church of Alturas and the golden anniversary of the First Baptist Church of Alturas, which are the parent bodies of the Alturas Federated Community Church.

Mrs. Smith, who lives in Berkeley, is gathering her material from newspaper files of the Bancroft Library in that city.

Barbershoppers Plan For Event

Championship Force Four, winning barbershop quartet at the recent annual district competition at Forest Grove, will sing at the 10th annual barbershop quartet and chorus show, to be held in the Pelican Theater on May 17.

The Force Fours are from the University of Oregon Medical School, Portland, and one member of the quartet is Bennie Shepherd, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Shepherd, owners of Shepherd's Music store in this city some years ago.

The Klamath Falls SPEBSQSA chorus and the Sweet Adelines will sing for a PTA meeting at Bly on April 3.

Sacred Heart Notebook

By ANN SARGENT

For the purpose of rating Sacred Heart Academy with other secondary schools across the nation, the Iowa test was given to high school students last Monday and Tuesday. These examinations, which are corrected by electronic machines, covered English grammar, history, mathematics, vocabulary, library references, literary and natural science reading interpretation, and science.

"The Secret Conclave," starring Henry Triggs, was the title of the film shown last Friday afternoon. The movie, depicting the life of Pope Pius X, was sponsored by the seniors.

Concluding the third term, which ended on Friday, midterm exams were given last week. The last term will begin on March 24 when students will return from spring vacation.

The Iowa tests were the topics of the seniors and freshmen during the regular class meetings last Monday. The juniors discussed a cake sale which they were to hold at Miller's and Penney's for raising money for the Bishop's Relief Fund. "Vocations" was the subject of the reports given by Kenneth Arne and Ann Jendrzewski during the sophomores' meeting.

Visiting Holy Names College during spring vacation will be the privilege of Eileen Fitzgerald and Ann Sargent, academy seniors. The girls, accompanying the Rev. Patrick Lunham of Chiloquin on the trip, will visit the college for three or four days.
