

Benefit Show Results Told

KUHS Music Director Andrew Loney Jr. reports that receipts from the benefit concert Wednesday amounted to slightly more than $1,000.

The benefit performance was presented by the a cappella choir and the high school concert band. Proceeds will be used to help defray expenses when the choir journeys to Los Angeles to appear before the National Convention of Music Educators on March 22.

Loney adds that the amounts raised are still about $700 short of the expenses involved in the forthcoming trip.

FRENCHY RICHARD has accepted the chairmanship of this community's second annual Cleanup - Pickup Weekend sponsored by the Klamath County Chamber of Commerce, scheduled for Saturday, April 12, weather permitting. Richard, local representative of Great West Life Assurance Company, came to Klamath Falls during World War II as a Marine, and following discharge returned here to make his home. Help of all residents in the cleanup is asked.

Reds Turn Out For Election

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet people gave their usual rousing vote of support to their leaders in nationwide elections for Parliament yesterday. A visiting American observer said the one-ticket voting was "very well organized."

The only question was the percentage of the Soviet Union's 130 million eligible voters who turned out.

Sizable returns were not expected until tonight.

Before the polls opened, officials estimated that 99.98 per cent of the voters would do their duty. The Tass news agency reported that 99.7 per cent of Moscow's eligible voters had visited the polls six hours before they closed at midnight.

Martial music and get-out-the-vote slogans blaring from loudspeakers spurred the citizens over 18. There were 1,378 candidates nominated by Communist party leaders for the same number of seats in the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Union's two-house Parliament.

A three-man American team observed the preliminaries and the election, returning a Soviet visit to the 1956 presidential election. The Americans visited Leningrad, Kiev, Tbilisi and Tashkent before the voting, then returned to Moscow for election day.

They are Prof. Richard Scammon, chief of the Political Elections Section of the U.S. Governmental Affairs Institute; Cyril E. Black, professor of history at Princeton University; and Hedley W. Donovan, managing editor of Fortune magazine.

The voters did not have to fill out ballots. They simply deposited them in a large box. In each polling station there was a closed booth where a voter could cross off the party's candidate and substitute his own. These booths are rarely used.

Air Patrol Moves Office

The Klamath Falls squadron of Civil Air Patrol recently moved into new headquarters at Kingsley Field.

Weekly lectures are now being presented on various phases of aviation education, search and rescue.

The third in a series of chart reading lectures will be presented by Rex Morehouse during the Monday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.

The CAP cadets hold their meetings in the same building each Monday at 7 p.m., and the group is open to boys and girls between 14 and 17. The adult group is open to men and women 18 and over.

Persons interested in learning about the Civil Air Patrol and its function are welcome to attend any of the regular Monday evening meetings. They are held on the second floor of the base publications building, directly across from the headquarters building at Kingsley Field.

Death Claims Solon's Mother

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Mrs. Rosetta Elizabeth Wallace Bennett, mother of U.S. Sen. Wallace F. Bennett (R-Utah), died at her Salt Lake City home yesterday. She was 88.

Sen. Bennett was called home from Washington last week because of his mother's illness.

Mrs. Bennett, daughter of a pioneer Salt Lake businessman, was the widow of John F. Bennett, prominent in business and religious circles here.

Alturas BPW Hold Meeting

ALTURAS — The Alturas Business and Professional Women's Club met Monday night, March 10, at the home of Mrs. Chris Starr. A program on federation orientation was presented by Mrs. Clara Eddie following a potluck dinner.

Mrs. Eddie also conducted an initiation ceremony for eight new members: Beulah Blevins, Lola Bartholomew, Eva Eyre, Marjorie Hickerson, Kathleen Sisco, Kay Davis, Fern Dederick and Dee Holway. The club's colors of green and gold were carried out in the candles used in the initiation ceremonies. She was assisted by several past presidents of the club.

A nominating committee composed of Hallie Tierney, Lena Smith, and Mabeth Starr was elected by the members. The president, Nettie Burrichter, appointed an auditing committee of Esther Shoultz, Beulah Blevins and Julia Griener.

Mention was made of the fact that the club has five members who are running for public office on either the city or county level.

The local club was invited to meet with the Tulelake BPW Club on Sunday, March 23, at Tulelake when Lucille Gansberg, president of the northern district, will pay her official visit to the Tulelake club. The local club sponsored the Tulelake club when it was formed.

Priest Ignores Pope's Action

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — A Roman Catholic priest who has been excommunicated for serving in Hungary's Red Parliament celebrated Mass here yesterday, claiming he has not been informed officially of the Vatican's action.

The Rev. Richard Horvath told newsmen, after officiating in one of Budapest's main churches, that the same position was being taken by two other excommunicated priests — the Revs. Miklos Beresztoczy and Janos Mate. He added that he had made no move to quit Parliament and did not believe the others had either.

He defended his work in Parliament, declaring that people came to him to get help for relatives in internment camps or get licenses to work as private craftsmen.
