BETHEL NO. 61

International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 61 met in regular session in the Scottish Rite Temple on Monday, May 5, with Honored Queen Sandy Nyback presiding in the east and junior bethel officers replacing regular officers.

New officers elected for the ensuing term are honored queen, Babs Moore; senior princess, Joan Marshall; junior princess, Penny Preston; guide, Patricia Anderson and marshal, Nancy Hugelman.

The tentative date set for installation of new officers is June 2 in the Scottish Rite Temple. There will be further discussion of the installation plans at the next meeting.

The Mothers Day Breakfast was held in the Winema Hotel on May 11 at 8:30 with good attendance of Bethel 61 girls and mothers.

Queen Sandy asked the bethel girls to attend services with her on May 18 at the First Presbyterian Church at 601 Pine.

Mrs. Pat Hageman was escorted to the east and presented with a token gift of appreciation for her help with the bethel drill team.

Beverly Clawson, bethel librarian, explained to members the meaning of the mothers, fathers and guardians prayers.

Installation of the guardian council is slated for May 19.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. Claude Bechholdt, entertained at a one o'clock luncheon on May 7 followed by bridge.

High prize of the afternoon went to Mrs. Harold Williams and traveling to Mrs. Owen Pepple. Other present were Mrs. Birdie Burk, Mrs. Mabel Maxwell, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Cecil Haley and Mrs. Bill Bechholdt.

"FEMMES FROM THE FOREST," pictured above, modeled a collection of La Saque creations at the dinner party for U. S. Foresters, Russell N. Bower and Charles Yates. Hosts for the evening, Klamath National Forest Service employees and their families, made arrangements at the Yreka Inn for the dinner which was served to 150.

The sextet-in-sacks models for the sensational and satiric style show were all Klamath Forest office personnel.

Two U.S. Foresters Are Feted At Farewell-And-Welcome Party

YREKA — Russell N. Bower and Charles Yates were the honorees of a combined farewell and welcome dinner party given for them by employees of the Klamath National Forest Service and their families at the Yreka Inn recently, with 150 persons attending.

Bower, who has been supervisor on the Klamath Forest Service for eight years, has been transferred to the San Francisco regional office to head the fire replanning program, and Yates was promoted from fire control officer at San Bernardino, to replace Bower as supervisor.

Highlight of the evening was a Fashion Show, presented by six members of the office personnel. They modeled gowns designed in every conceivable pattern to lampoon the sack dress — and they wore creations made of the real things — sacks! For the show the models adopted feminine names and were introduced as "Charlene," (Charles Davis); "Jacqueline," (Jack Spencer); "Lulu," (Lou Haan); "Harriet," (Harry Hopkins); "Deanna," (Dean Everett); and "Rosalind," (James Russell) Pratley — Rosalind for Rosalind Russell.

The show was concluded with the "girls" singing three songs, words of their own adaptation to popular songs.

Gifts were presented to each of the honorees and Harry Hopkins, who has been transferred to Six Rivers, was also given a farewell remembrance.

For the Sweetness you Remember! WHITE KING SOAP

Remember the soft, sweet fragrance of your mother's linen cupboard? The heaping piles of fresh-smelling, downy-soft towels. The cool, crisp stacks of snowy white sheets. To produce such wonders your mother used real soap. Probably White King Soap. Nothing else could make her wash so deep-clean...so light, bright and fragrant. Real soap can do the same for you. Even take clothes dulled and stiffened by years of laundering in other products and restore their freshness. Next washday, try White King Soap. Make that sweetness you remember—yours!
