

THE 47-J RANGER, product of the Bell Helicopter Company in Burbank, California, is one type of the civilian aircraft which will be on display at Kingsley Field Saturday and Sunday during observances of Armed Forces Day Saturday and Aviation Week which runs through Sunday.

Two TV Helicopters To Appear Here

Two helicopters that are used by the "Whirlybirds" in their television show will be in Klamath Falls this weekend as part of the celebration locally of Armed Forces Day Saturday, May 17, and Aviation Week, May 11-18.

Harold Jones, city airport manager who is working with civilian and military-appointed heads of the air age events, says that the helicopters will arrive Friday from the Bell Helicopter Company in Burbank. The aircraft will be on display Saturday, along with other civilian, military and model planes, and will make demonstration flights both days.

Skelton's Son Laid To Rest

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — The body of Red Skelton's 9-year-old son was laid to rest with this eulogy: "A President (Eisenhower) and A Pope were his friends. Hundreds of thousands of men, women and children who had never seen him were his friends. Surely then, this was a special child who had touched so many lives."

Many celebrities were among the crowd of 1,000 who turned out yesterday for the simple Protestant funeral rites for Richard Skelton. The youngster died Saturday night after a 16-month illness of leukemia.

Among those present were Fess Parker, Vincent Price, Hugh O'Brian, Johnny Weissmuller and Max Baer, ex-heavyweight boxing champion. All are family friends. Pope Pius XII sent a personally blessed crucifix. It was entombed with the body.

The Pope met Richard when Skelton took him on a European tour last summer. The Skeltons are not Catholic.

The eulogy, written by Gene Fowler, was delivered by another close friend of the family, actor William Lundigan.

Skelton broke down when the coffin was lifted into the hearse for the procession to the mausoleum. The comedian who has devoted his life to making people laugh made no attempt to hide his tears.

Scribe Believes Audience Would Applaud TV Show

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (UP) — It would be interesting to hear the verdict of the night-time viewing audience if CBS-TV could find a regular night-time spot for "The Verdict Is Yours." We believe the viewing jury would applaud this excellent program vigorously.

"The Verdict Is Yours" (Monday-Friday, 8-9 p. m., EDT) is a novelty on television—or anywhere else. It is a series of courtroom dramas without scripts. Nobody knows how a case will end, until a jury selected from the audience renders its decision.

It writers conceive a dramatic situation, delineate the background of the characters involved, and give a general notion of the type of examination and cross-examination each will undergo. From there on it's up to the actors.

"It calls for a special type of talent in an actor," says Eugene Burr, producer of the program. "We've rejected some excellent actors and actresses simply because they lacked the ability to ad lib. They must, to a large degree, create the characters themselves."

The other day we were smarted into a casting session for "The Fisher Case," which will run for a week beginning May 21. "The Fisher Case" involves a fellow accused of leaving his scene of an auto accident—but, believe us, that's only the beginning of the troubles in store for him.

While Burr and his staff study the candidate impassively, an actual lawyer, Robert Simon, grips the witness.

Actor A for the role of Fisher acted guilely as he made an unimpressive questioning. It was obviously, the way he conceals the character. He writhed in torment and wore a haunted expression that made us suffer with him.

Actress A for the role of Susan Asbury—a gorgeous husky type—was as pretty as a picture. She was also, unfortunately, nearly as lifeless.

Actress B for the role was a slender, attractive blonde with a vivid imagination who rocked the examining attorney a couple of times with baffling details. The one trouble was that she simply seemed too nice a girl.

Actress C was a most convincing lush blonde.

Actor B for the same role acted pure as the driven snow. Here, surely, was a young fellow you'd welcome in the family. He drove back hard at the attorney—and departed with the grave mien of a man going to church.

The Fur Coat Quiz Widens

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Did Zsa Zsa Gabor get a costly fur coat from Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr. for introducing him to Kim Novak?

She has the coat — and Trujillo, son of the strong man of the Dominican Republic, admits he gave it to her. But he didn't say why.

"I introduced Kim to him," Zsa Zsa told a reporter, "and I arranged for him to take her to several parties."

"He is my dearest friend and very grateful," Trujillo, recuperating in a rented mansion in Beverly Hills following surgery, yesterday admitted further confusion to the matter. He wouldn't come to the phone. But he told his secretary to tell a new man that the coat wasn't chinchilla, as earlier reported.

It was winked, said the secretary. "I said it didn't cost the $17,000 he quoted for it."

But actress Kim Novak said Trujillo left a sports car with her — a sleek $4,400 model — but said she thought it was a loan. A radio spokesman said she insists she isn't keeping it.

Kim and Trujillo have been seen together frequently in Hollywood since Easter. Trujillo, head of the country's air force, came to the United States to attend the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.
