Travel Guide Available Now

A colorful 24-page "Vacation Handbook" designed to help the whole family get more enjoyment out of their vacation, is being offered free of charge at all Oldsmobile dealers throughout the 48 states.

The attractively illustrated two-color book is packed with games for the children, travel tips, how-to-pack suggestions, songs, and a multitude of vital vacation information.

For example, the head of the family excursion will especially appreciate the section where motel and hotel reservations—made in advance—can be listed. And there's a whole page of precautions which can be taken by the homemaker before closing the family domicile.

Brief sketches of six major geographical regions of the United States are highlighted in a two-page spread titled "Vacationland, USA." And, of course, Oldsmobile has included a special section on road signs and driving safety.

A "Traveler's Radio Guide" lists the dial settings of major radio stations across the country, providing the traveler with a handy guide to more pleasant listening. And for the pet lovers there's an unusual feature titled, "Treat

ELMIRA UNBEATEN

ELMIRA, N.Y. — Elmira Free Academy has completed its second straight unbeaten basketball season in one of the state's toughest scholastic leagues. The team has won all 32 games in the last two seasons. Ernie Davis, 185-pound 6-foot-2 Negro, led the team with a career total of 1,605 points. He hopes to enroll at Syracuse University and go out for football. He is a fullback. Coach Jim Flynn of Elmira FA says Davis is "the finest type of boy." Flynn's three-year record at the school shows only four setbacks in 73 games. Elmira played in the Southern Tier Conference which includes schools from Elmira, Binghamton and Ithaca. Recent basketball graduates of this section include Chuck Rolles of Cornell, Jon Cincebox of Syracuse, Don Gallagher of North Carolina State and Tom Brett of Lafayette. GS Program Needs Help

The Girl Scouts' day camp program urgently needs 10 or 12 additional volunteer helpers this year, according to Audrey Baxter, day camp chairman. Dates for the two sessions of day camp to be held at Moore Park are July 8, 9 and 10 and July 15, 16 and 17.

Experience isn't necessary, Mrs. Baxter pointed out, because a training session will be held for volunteer leaders late in June at Moore Park. The program will include outdoor cooking, fire safety and outdoor crafts. The older girls will work toward their outdoor badges.

Girls between 6 and 17 years will attend the day camp sessions. Bus transportation will be provided and each day's activity will end early enough for the leaders to get home in time to prepare the evening meal for their own families, Mrs. Baxter said.

ation to Jim Winde Buick Company was the kickoff to many organizational alterations that Jim was to bring about in streamlining the business to suit his own personal desires, among which is the wish to provide his many customers with the finest of service in every aspect of the automobile industry.

His service department includes a highly trained group of mechanics and specialists who periodically attend schools in each phase of automotive repair. In addition, each man is required to hold a certificate as a registered mechanic.

Working with Jim, primarily in managing the used car section of the company is Dave Shirk.

The Buick line includes the Special, Century, Super, Roadmaster 75 and the Limited; Winde has added the 32 horse-power French Renault and the General Motors product, the 56 horse-power Opel, which is manufactured in Germany. Both the Opel and Renault were added to the line in 1957.

Jim adds his voice to those who predict wonderful things in the Klamath Basin for both the near and distant future. "I can't think of any place I would rather be," stated Winde, "it is almost impossible to miss in Klamath Falls."

NEW HOME CONSTRUCTION continues high in Klamath Falls and vicinity. Shown here is a new home being built by George Anderson in Madison Heights, at the end of Shasta Way. Building permits in Klamath Falls for 1958 thus far show a slight decrease from last year's figures, but still run well above the average of the 1950-1955 period.
