

Trujillo Not First Alien To Win Film Stars' Hearts

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr. is not the first dashing foreigner to sway the hearts of Hollywood's glamor girls, nor will he be the last.

Few have been as lavish as young Trujillo, with his gifts of costly cars to Kim Novak and Zsa Zsa Gabor. Few have been as secretive. Either Kim is a better actress than the critics say—or else she was genuinely surprised when I told her in San Francisco that her steady date had a wife and six children.

Gloria Swanson can be credited with starting the foreign invasion. In 1926, she returned from Europe in triumph, with her new husband, Marquis de la Falaise de la Cou-dray. The union lasted five years, after which Constance Bennett took over as the marquisa.

The marquis was followed by the marrying Mdivanis. These were three handsome, romantic sons of a Mohammedan Bey of Georgia, a Caucasus state in old Russia. The princes married and divorced often, usually in famous and wealthy women. Among the matches: Serge—Pola Negri; David—Mae Murray; Alexis—Barbara Hutton.

Sudden death took two of the princes—Serge at polo and Alexis in a Spanish auto crash. David has lived quietly in recent years as husband of the adopted daughter of oilman Harry Sinclair.

Aly Khan created plenty of news with his international courtship of Rita Hayworth, their marriage, their divorce. His romances have included other dolls, such as Gene Tierney and Kim Novak (that name again!).

A chance meeting in a Hollywood night club led to marriage for Nancy Valentine and the Maharajah of Cochin Bhar. But the maharajah couldn't sell the home folks on the idea. After a few years, Nancy had the union annulled because India wouldn't recognize it.

The courtship of Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier of Monaco was conducted on a dignified level. Their romance blossomed in France and the prince pursued his suit here.

Then there was Porfirio Rubirosa, who appears to have been the Mdivanis wrapped up into one. The marrying countryman of Gen. Trujillo conducted a well-publicized romance with Zsa Zsa Gabor (her again?). She claimed they were engaged at one point but he drifted off to other matters.

COCKTAIL BARN

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—The cocktail lounge of a fashionable motel built recently in this Boston suburb formerly was a barn dating from 1795. The barn, originally located at Rumney, N. H., was brought here piece by piece and reassembled.

Descendents Of Civil War Wed

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A young couple whose great-grandfathers fought for the South in the Civil War will be married in a Confederate atmosphere here June 3.

Miss Capitola West, 17, and Tommy Charles Jr., 20, of the nearby Lacy community, will be married in a ceremony climaxed the 150th anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis.

The ceremony will take place on the spot where Davis, president of the Confederacy, was born. A 351-foot monument marks the spot.

The couple and wedding attendants will wear Civil War costumes or Confederate Army uniforms.

DRAFTES
Klamath County's May draft quota of two is being met by Anthony I. Montgomery, 22, 431 Laguna Street, and John D. Anderson, 18, of Fort Klamath—a volunteer. The two young men will go to Portland for induction on Thursday, May 22, and will later be sent to Ft. Ord for training. Eight men will be called in June. Selective Service Local Board Number 18 announces.

THIS WHITE CHAPEL at Kingsley Field, headquarters of the U.S. Air Force 408th Fighter Squadron in Klamath Falls, has been completed and a tentative opening time has been set for July or August. A chaplain will be assigned to the base in the near future. The services will be non-denominational. Seating capacity of the sanctuary is 130. The chapel was completed at a cost of $121,684. —U.S. Air Force Photo

Scribe Thinks Sunday TV Show Should Be Absorbing

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—When a reporter returns from an assignment with as much enthusiasm for it as he had before he undertook it, he almost invariably has a good story.

By that standard Chet Huntley should have an absorbing story Sunday when "Outlook" presents a 90-minute examination of "Israel: The Next 10 Years."

When he returned from Israel with director Jack Sgrubne and cameraman Tom Priestley, Huntley had high enthusiasm for Israel's democratic army and its growing atomic energy program. They will be the chief substance of Sunday's "Outlook."

"Man for man the Israeli army is the best in the world," says Huntley. "Its chief problems involve materiel, not manpower, for almost every Israeli, woman as well as men—is a member of it. It is one of the biggest factors in the Middle East, yet few westerners know much about it.

"Another thing very few Americans realize is the vitality of the Israeli atomic energy program. It's not concerned with bombs, but with such things as growing tomatoes without water. It produces, for example, the world's purest heavy oxygen, much of which it exports to other countries."

Speaking of serious-minded efforts on television Sunday, CBS-

TV will present another in its "Great Challenge" discussion series with a symposium on "What Makes Effective Foreign Policy?"

Participants include Lester B. Pearson, leader of the Liberal Party of Canada; Eric A. Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Assn. of America; and three former members of the U. S. State Department, Dean Rusk, Paul H. Nitze and Robert R. Bowie. Howard K. Smith is the moderator.
