BPW — International Relations meeting Monday evening, May 19, at 6:30 p.m. at the Willard. Merrill club members will be special guests.

Returned — Mrs. Ila Lytle has returned to her home in Seattle after visiting with her mother, Mrs. Emily Armstrong, 502 Oak Street. Mrs. Lytle's daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Brockman, and daughter of New Mexico were also visitors of Mrs. Armstrong.

CLIMAX — Spokane's annual Lilac Festival reached its climax Saturday with a parade of 55 floats and marching units which included 4,500 band members in uniform and 2,000 military men.

OPEN SEASON

"If you're going to feel that way about it—I'll find another fishing hole!"

BATH

FRESNO, Calif. — Animals at Fresno's Roeding Park Zoo were sprayed with deodorants after some complaints about the odors. Nosed the elephant took her perfume quietly, then filled her trunk with water and sprayed off the deodorant, picked up dirt and hay and tossed it on herself with a satisfied snort.

SPLIT

LOS ANGELES — Singer Evelyn Miller, 33, and her oil man husband R. Fraser MacMillan, 33, have separated. A separate maintenance suit filed by her charges cruelty and asked $950 monthly support. She and the son of oil millionaire Raymond S. MacMillan were married at Newhall, Calif., in February 1957.

"Oh, I guess he'll pass this year all right—but I'm going to have plenty of trouble in the seventh grade!"

Keep the Basin's Prosperity Rollin'

You're fortunate to live in the Klamath Basin, where economic conditions are among the best.

Employment in the lumber and logging industries this season will equal the peaks of 1956 and '57. Construction work will near the all-time high of last year. For example: The Copco job now employs 300 men; the 150 men working at the Air Force housing soon will grow to 350 or 400.

The Basin's 1957 agricultural crop brought in more than $32½ million, an increase of 15% over the previous year.

Klamath people have been prudent and increased their savings and liquidated many of their contract obligations. Personal savings in the Klamath Basin are at an all-time high and are continuing to grow at the rate of nearly 10% per year.

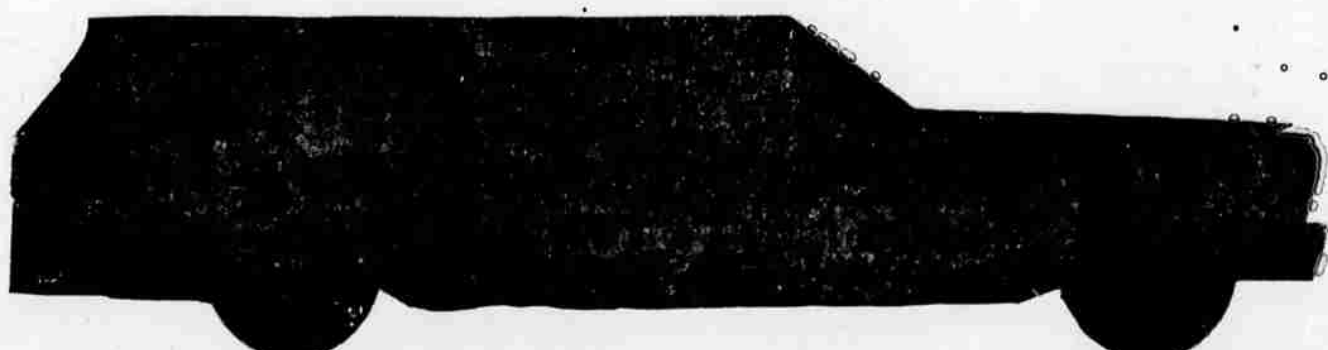

The future is brighter yet. Already there are 195 civilians, airmen and officers employed at Kingsley Air Base. When the 408th Fighter Force is activated and the Johns-Manville plant goes into operation, employment and business opportunities will be greater than we have ever seen.

Klamath auto dealers are happy to join hundreds of other U. S. communities with a "You Auto Buy Now" week to help stimulate business and employment. The livelihood of one out of every six families depends on the automotive industry.

We are fortunate to live in Klamath, and it's to "Keep the Basin's Prosperity Rollin'" that we say "You Auto Buy Now."

So put yourself in a modern 1958 automobile to keep pace with the better living of the Klamath Basin . . . to give your family the comfort, the economy and the security that it deserves in a modern automobile.

ROMFORD, Eng. (UP) — Management officials at an office equipment factory agreed today to consider an employees' demand that two men working at opposite ends of a conveyor belt should get the same wage. At present, the man who loads raw materials onto the belt gets less money than the man who unloads the finished product at the other end.
