Queen of Zuleima Temple Visits Local Nile Club

Lucille Rice, queen of Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, made her annual visitation to Klamath Falls Nile Club on Wednesday, May 7.

Madge McLaren, president, introduced Queen Lucille to the 120 members attending the luncheon meeting at the Willard Hotel. Eight temple officers, four past queens and many visiting daughters of the Nile from Coos Bay, Eugene, Medford, Ashland and Tulelake were welcomed.

Queen Lucille, in her address to the club, urged each member to visit a Shrine Hospital this year to gain knowledge and better understanding of Shrine Hospital needs and to realize the good work the Nile is doing to help provide garments, toys and convalescent care for crippled children.

The distinctive and novel luncheon tables were arranged by Elviedra Beeber, Crystal Cloake, Maxine Wirth, Lois Sorruys and Wyoming Stiles under the chairmanship of Margaret Larkin. Dolls dressed in royal robes and flanked by white candles and pink blossoms were on the head table, and each side table was decorated to represent a project of the Nile, with spring flowers in the background.

The sewing project table was decorated with miniature sewing machines, patterns, scissors and

Bride-Elect Honored

FORT KLAMATH — Marie Louise Nicholson was honored at a beautifully arranged miscellaneous bridal shower in the Civic Improvement clubhouse in Fort Klamath the evening of May 2. Mrs. Ira F. Oren and Mrs. William Zumburn were hostesses for the event attended by 47 guests. A pink and white color scheme was used for room decorations and appointments. White vases of flowering quince and pink and white tulips were arranged about the room, and a large white bride's doll centered the pink covered gift table. Refreshments were served at small tables set with white place mats. Favors were white lace doilies and pink hearts. Among the guests of honor were Mrs. Bill Nicholson, her mother, Mrs. Elmer E. Nicholson, her father, and Mrs. Elmer E. Nicholson, her mother.

One of seven guests, Mrs. Elmer E. Nicholson, daughter of Mrs. Elmer E. Nicholson, was married to Douglas K. Moore, Portland, on May 31 at the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church. Marie is a graduate of Corning, California, high school and was the 1955 Klamath Basin Rodeo Queen. Her fiancé will graduate this June from Oregon State College where he is majoring in engineering.

Stork Shower

Mrs. Bill Weatherly (Rosalee DeGrand) was honored with a stork shower given by Mrs. Lane Smith Jr. at the Smith's new home on Greensprings Drive on May 8. The honoree's sister, Mrs. John Pierce, helped her open the many gifts that were heaped around another gift—a pink and blue be-ribboned bathrobe. Mrs. Joe De-Grand, Rosalee's mother, and a mother-in-law, were special guests at the party.

A well-earned prize for winning the baby-draping contest went to Mrs. Leonard Ramsey, grandmother of 17 grandchildren.

Dessert was served to the guests from a table centered with a large pale blue stork. Assisting Mrs. Smith with serving were Mrs. Amine Smith and Mrs. Charles Sandusky.

Many household items can help housewives keep their hands smooth and clean. During heavy housecleaning days, grime threatens to impregnate the skin. Just before washing your hands, wet them and rub with dry oatmeal. This removes heavy dirt.

100 Friends At Reception For Mr. And Mrs. Robert Hill

About 100 friends and relatives greeted newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill at the reception in their honor held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon, April 13, at the Mt. Laki Church. In the receiving line with Robert and his wife Joan was his father Ralph Hill, who is this year's Klamath County Cow Belle's "father of the year."

The refreshment table carried out the bride's favorite color, with a pink cloth under the lace cloth and pink tapers. The centerpiece was of daisies and pink carnations. The bridegroom's favorite color, blue, was used under the lace cloth on the gift table. Spring

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Observe Founder's Day

A highlight of the year for local Beta Sigma Phi members was the observance of Founder's Day on April 30 with a dinner at the Log Cabin.

Marion Cronon, emcee, introduced members as they appeared on the program: Pat Lukes of Beta Phi Chapter, who led the opening ritual; Charlotte Pierce of Kappa Chapter, who offered the Beta Sigma Phi grace; Betty Bragg of Xi Delta, welcome to members; Ruth O'Hara of Xi Delta, reading of the annual message from founder Walter W. Ross; and Shirley Eccles of Xi Alpha Theta, who led members in the Founder's Day pledge.

Past presidents of the chapters introduced the incoming top officers: Della Schroeder, Beta Phi; Edna Petersteiner, Tau; Lorraine Storey, Kappa; Jones Moty, Xi Delta; and Carmen Embree, Xi Alpha Theta. A major event of the evening was the presentations of Girl of the Year awards by Isabelle Brenner, director of Kappa Chapter. The award is made to the outstanding member of each chapter for the past year. This year's honors went to Donna Turner of Kappa Chapter; Dorothy Malley of Tau; Lillian Hayden of Beta Phi; Trudy Farr of Xi Delta; and Lorraine MacPhail of Xi Alpha Theta.

Phyllis McVee, accompanied by Helen Crapo, sang "An Invitation to Life." International Beta Sigma Phi prize-winning song, Joanne Noel of Tau Chapter led members in the closing ritual.

The Sweet Adelines, led by Bill Evans, sang three songs, "Breezing Along," "Love Me and the World Is Mine," and "Harmonize the World," and each chapter presented a short skit as a finale to the program.

Co-chairmen for Founder's Day were Jeannie Walker of Kappa and Evilo Saunders of Xi Delta, assisted by program and decorations co-chairmen Doralyn Bocchi, Tau; Lois Rea, Kappa, and their committee members, Ann Dalcour and Darlene Wolff, Xi Delta; Ena Rodgers and Jean Walker, Beta Phi; Ann Woltrun, Tau; Nattie Guderian, Xi Alpha Theta; Alice Badley, Xi Delta, and Juanita Goode, Kappa, general program arrangements, and Trudy Farr, corsages.

Daughter Rhonda's Betrothal To William Woods Announced By Mr. And Mrs. K. E. Lambie

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lambie, 2545 Homedale, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rhonda, to William F. Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woods, 2046 Huron Street.

Rhonda is a graduate of Friends Boarding School, Barnesville, Ohio, and attended Lewis and Clark College in Portland. She is presently employed in her father's accounting office.

William is a graduate of KUHS and was a student for one year at Lewis and Clark before he began his term of service with the U.S. Army in 1956. Stationed in Germany for the past year, he is scheduled to be back in the States early in June.

The wedding is planned for late June, and as soon as he arrives in Klamath Falls a pre-nuptial party honoring the altar-bound couple will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Lambie and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Molatore at the Molatore residence, 820 Pacific Terrace.

Medford Sojourners Host Luncheon For Klamath Falls Club Members

The 26 Klamath Falls Sojourners who accepted the Medford Sojourners' invitation to luncheon on May 8, were warmly welcomed at the new Girls Community Club by the Medford hostesses, who presented each visitor with a carnation corsage and served all of them coffee before going to the Rogue Valley Country Club for luncheon.

Beautifully appointed tables each set for four were arranged throughout the spacious club dining room where this year's annual luncheon was served. Mrs. Kay Mansfield was general chairman of the day.

Before the card session, Mrs. Pauline Winslow, president of the Medford club, introduced each visiting Sojourner to the hostess group.

Bridge, canasta and pinochle were played until late afternoon, and high prize at each table was the outstanding table decoration. The special prize for the Klamath Falls contingent was awarded to Mrs. Edward Brotherhood.

Founder's Day will be observed at the next regular meeting of Klamath Falls Sojourners slated for May 14 at the Willard Hotel.

All women who are newcomers to this vicinity are invited to become members of Sojourners. For further information, call Mrs. C. H. Magnuson TU 4-9336.
