

CF Mothers Honored

MERRILL — Mothers of Merrill Camp Fire and Bluebird girls were honored guests at a tea held May 14 at the Merrill Recreation Hall. Theme of the program and decoration was "Meet the People." Mrs. Ervin Johnson and Mrs. Wilby Conner were co-chairmen.

Included on the program was a style show by the second grade Sun Flower Bluebird group. Group leaders are Virginia Haskins and Dorothy Kandra. A Mexican dance was performed by the third grade Hummingbirds Blue Bird group. Their leaders are Doris Fotheringham and Virginia Moore.

The fourth grade Blue Bells followed the theme with girls dressed in costumes representing Alaska, China, Africa and Mexico. Commentator was Donna Pierson. Group leaders are Eileen Brooks and Leota Conner.

A skit entitled "I've Got A Problem" satirizing a television show was enacted by the fifth grade E Cl Tion Camp Fire group. Their leaders are DeEtta Lisk and Phyllis Noonan.

TV TOWER FOR MOSCOW MOSCOW (UP) — A 1,640-foot-high television tower made from pre-fabricated reinforced concrete will be erected for the Moscow TV Center. It was announced today. The tower will have two elevators, each capable of carrying up to 100 persons to a height of 1,312 feet.

Rodeo Show On TV Slated

Oregon Tech's weekly TV program, "Tech Talks," will on May 20 present a group of young men who will be performing in the rodeo May 24 and May 25 at the Klamath County Fairgrounds. The fundamentals of bronc busting, bareback riding, calf roping and bull riding will be discussed, with demonstrations of the rigging used in these events. An explanation of the judging of contestants will also be given.

Participating in the show will be Jerry Miller, Bill Duffy, Gary Gregg and William Alford. All are OTI students who will be performing in the intercollegiate competition. Faculty members will be Adam Eckerich, H. A. (Pete) Pedersen and James Boyle.

HOME PLATE WIRED

KEOKUK, Iowa (UP) — Keokuk baseball players involved in rhabdomyosarcoma at home plate will have to use gentlemanly language to one another. A microphone wired to a public address system has been installed under the plate as a promotional stunt.

POSTMEN SEEK BIRD BAN

BOURNEMOUTH, Eng. (UP) — Britain's postmen decided today to reopen negotiations with the post office about the sending of unwrapped poultry through the mail. The postmen object to the smell and blood from the birds.

Church Gets Assignment

MERRILL — New sewing assignments for the year were revealed during a meeting of the Woman's Association of the Merrill Presbyterian Church held May 15 at the home of Mrs. George Mattson. The overseas sewing assignment is to be sent to the Bethany Hospital in the Philippine Islands. The national assignment is for the Presbyterian mission located at St. Lawrence in Alaska.

On June 19, the members of the afternoon Women's Association will combine a meeting with the evening circle at the church. Meeting time is 7:30.

The association accepted the responsibility of collecting used clothing for overseas needs for the next four years.

The meeting, attended by eight members, was conducted by Mrs. Vivian Haskins, vice president. Mrs. Carrie Mattson led the devotional program.

The next regular meeting will be a potluck luncheon from 10 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Kurtz on June 11. There will be a book discussion on "Conversations on Christ, the Church and Recc."
