

MAN WITH the ax is Sheriff Murray (Red) Britton and he has just finished a swing at the doors of a discarded ice box near Shasta Way and Alameda Street. Why all the violence to an old ice box? Little boys and girls have been known to crawl inside and close the door, sometimes with fatal results. The sheriff was notified of the menace by Helen A. Binkley. Helping his dad dismantle the doors of the abandoned box is the sheriff's son, John.

Rotary Backs Eye Program

DUNSMUIR — An enlarged eye bank program and continuation of the foreign student exchange project were endorsed by District 516, Rotary International, at its district conference in Dunsmuir this past weekend.

Six hundred forty seven visiting Rotarians and their wives were registered during the three day event. They represented 51 clubs from the Bay Area north to the Oregon line.

District Gov. Edward Roessler was honored at the Sunday breakfast session, receiving the plaudits of the conference for his term of office. Roessler and Otto Hebe, a past district governor, of Oakland were named delegates to the Rotary International convention in Dallas, Texas, next month. William S. Palmer is the new district governor.

One of the resolutions the convention delegates were asked to support was that attendance requirements for Rotarians be maintained. It was felt that only through active and consistent participation can Rotary objectives be accomplished.

The Dunsmuir Rotary Club received commendation for the smooth functioning of the conference in which every programmed event went off as scheduled. Delegates expressed surprise that the varied program was engineered by the 24-member host club.

A highlight Saturday afternoon was a 60-car, two bus caravan through scenic southern Siskiyou County. Special permission had been obtained to visit the Hearst ranch on the McCloud River, among other points of interest.

Over 500 people were served at the governor's banquet Saturday night in the gaily decorated Dunsmuir Elementary School Auditorium where all conference meals were served. Downtown Dunsmuir with special dance music at the Dunsmuir Hotel and Dunsmuir Masonic Temple were the scenes of late evening festivities.
