

50-YEAR MASONIC EMBLEMS were presented to Clarence (Major) Underwood, seated, and Oscar Shive, second from left, at a recent Masonic ceremony. Both men were given life memberships at the same time. Assisting in the presentation were two of the youngest masons in the lodge, Richard Metler and Clyde Hutchens. Pictured here, left to right including their years of Masonic service are, E. B. Hall, 63; Shive, 53; Underwood, 50; Harry S. Wood, 70 and Edmund Chilcote, 55. Awards were made by Hall and E. M. Bubbs. Zack (Doc) Powell was to have received his 60-year pin at the request of his lodge in Raton, New Mexico, but was unable to attend. The lower picture shows the frame building, the upper story of which housed Klamath Lodge 77 A.F. & A.M. many years ago. The building was owned by L. F. Willits, who had a store on the ground floor. The location was at the site of the present Willits building occupied by Claud Davis. The original building in the picture was later moved to the present site of the liquor store and was for years the location of the Henry Boivin plumbing shop. The barber pole in the photo indicates the site of the barber shop of Jim Mongold.
