Milwaukee Whips Giants; Cubs Win

By UNITED PRESS

You'll have to excuse the Milwaukee Braves if they think San Francisco's "wonder boys" look suspiciously like those same old sixth-place Giants.

The Braves had their first look of the season at the Giants Thursday night and could have been playing the New York Yankees for all the respect they showed a team which had won five straight and 12 of 14 games to open up a 2½-game lead in the National League.

The final score was 9-3 and the chief executives were Lew Burdette and Frank Torre, a couple of fellows who knew the Giants away back when...

Burdette had been having his troubles this season with a 3-3 record and only two complete games in seven starts. But he recognized those Giants—he was 2-0 against them last year and 14-7 lifetime—with an eight-hitter that gave him his fourth win. He had five at the same stage of last season.

Torre, who hit three of his season total of five homers against the Giants last season, also recognized old friends in new uniforms. He knocked in five runs, three with his first homer of the year, one with a sacrifice fly and another when he drew one of relief pitcher Stu Miller's two bases-filled walks in the midst of a three-run second-inning rally.

In fact, the only Giant to give the Braves much trouble was a fellow they never saw before: rookie-of-the-year candidate Orlando Cepeda, who had three hits including a two-run homer in the sixth inning. It was Cepeda's 12th—one less than NL leader Frank Thomas of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The victory left the Braves a game and a half behind the Giants but they're right on the 1957 schedule which carried them to a world championship. They had an identical 19-11 record after 30 games last season and trailed the first-place Cincinnati Redlegs by two games.

Ernie Banks knocked in four runs with his eighth homer and two doubles to lead the Chicago Cubs to a 7-4 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies in the only other NL game. Moe Drabowsky went 7 1-3 innings to win his second game while 1957 NL rookie

Yanks 5, Tigers 4

The runaway Yankees rolled to their ninth straight win and stretched their American League lead to an incredible 8½ games for this stage of a pennant race when they edged out the Detroit Tigers, 5-4. Rookie Mary Throneberry's ninth-inning homer enabled Ryno Duren, who struck out five batters and yielded only a pinch homer to Gus Zernial in three innings, to win his first major league game.
