

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST RODRIGUES after their wedding in Santa Rosa, California. The bride is a former Klamath Falls girl, Paula Ann Clark, daughter of Paul Clark, 111 Lincoln Street.

Paula Ann Clark Is Bride Of Ernest Rodrigues

Of local interest is word of the marriage of Paula Ann Clark, former Klamath Falls girl, to Ernest Rodrigues in Santa Rosa on April 12. The bride is the daughter of Paul Clark, 111 Lincoln Street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Rodrigues of Fort Bragg, California.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle Howard Conley. The ceremony was read at an 11 a.m. Nuptial Mass in St. Rose Catholic Church.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a sweetheart neckline. A white orange blossom tiara held her veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations, pale pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Long, Santa Rosa, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a pale rose tulle gown with overskirt of white organza and carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Some 250 guests attended a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long, 909 Link Lane, to greet the newlyweds. After a honeymoon trip along the Santa Cruz coast, the couple is at home at 2807 Cromwell, Santa Rosa, until August when Rodrigues will return to his studies for a medical degree at Stanford University Medical School. They will live at the Stanford Campus Housing for the next four years.

Paula attended Sacred Heart Academy before moving to Santa Rosa where she is a bookkeeper and secretary at Santa Rosa Music Store. She was runnerup for Sonoma County Rose Festival queen in 1957. Her bridegroom is a graduate of Santa Rosa Junior College in pre-medical studies where he was active in student and scholastic affairs. He served four years in the U.S. Army.

Zuleima Temple Queen Visits Lakeview Nile Club

LAKEVIEW — A bit of Hawaii was virtually moved to the mainland and Lakeview on the evening of May 9 when the Lake County Daughters of the Nile Club entertained in honor of Zuleima Temple Queen Lucille Rice of Medford, and members of her court.

Directing arrangements for the evening was Mrs. Erma Clause, recently installed president of the club, who recently returned from a trip to the islands.

Table decorations for the dinner at Van's were ti leaves and red Anthuriums, and fresh pineapple was served Hawaiian style. Each of the temple officers was presented with a lei by Mrs. Clause. She also had orchids flown from the islands to mark each place setting and a special orchid was presented to the honored queen.

Dress for most of the members and guests was in typical Hawaiian social costume, and songs of the islands were sung by a vocal trio, Mary Jo Deely, Kerry Adams and Mary Lee Scoville.

Out-of-town guests included Ann Corum, princess royal, of Eugene; Doris Wray, princess Tirzah, Coos Bay; Sarah Peters, princess Badoura, Ashland; Eva Cook, princess, of Medford.

MONTAGUE AUCTION CLUB

The Little Shasta Auction Club members were entertained at the Yreka home of Mrs. Ora McGregor on Wednesday afternoon, May 14, with Mrs. Jennie Mathews sharing hostess duties.

Following a dessert luncheon four tables of cards were in play. Mrs. McGregor arranged bouquets of iris and spring blossoms for floral decorations.

First prize went to Mrs. Brice Long and Mrs. Ernest Williams; second high to Mrs. Effie Butler and Mrs. Ina Bullock; low to Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger and Mrs. Aldee Davis; traveling to Mrs. Rita Prather and guest prize to Mrs. Bernice Frazier.

Others present included Mrs. Orlo Davis, Mrs. George Plock, Mrs. Gladys Hart, Mrs. Glenn Perry, Mrs. Allie Moore, Mrs. Harry Sullivan, Mrs. Larry Walters and Jessie Conrod.

cess recorder, Medford; Katherine Stonecypher, princess marshal, Klamath Falls; Hollice Boyd, princess Zuleima, Tulelake; Peggy Hardman, princess, Tulelake; past queen, Joan Peter and Lillian Arnold of Medford; Mrs. Vera Anderson and Mrs. Martha Raymond of Klamath Falls.

This was the final meeting of the season for the club until September when hostesses will be Genevieve Withers, Alice Carlson, Bea Hanan, Anna Linebaugh, Connie Baert, Mary Corum and Mabel Schumacher, all members from the north end of the county.

Shower Honors Kathy Marchant

BONANZA—Kathy Marchant of Merlin, Oregon was the honored guest at a miscellaneous shower given at the Bonanza library May 14 at 8 p.m. Kathy lived here until her parents moved to Merlin where her father is with the U.S. Forest Service.

Hostesses for the party, Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mrs. Dick Derry and Mrs. Bill Burnett, used artistic arrangements of pink roses and other spring flowers to decorate the large room.

Donna Derry helped Kathy open her many gifts; her young sister Sherry fashioned the bouquet of ribbons from the packages; and Sandy Miller entertained with a tap dance.

Pink rosebuds, and tall pink tapers in silver candelabra flanked the ornately decorated pink and white cake on the refreshment table.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Ray Marchant, served the cake to the 33 guests, and Kathy's grandmother, Mrs. Herbert Marchant, was at the silver coffee service.

Kathy and Philip Wickham will be married in the Grants Pass Episcopal Church at 7 o'clock June 7.

BONANZA CARD CLUB

Mrs. Bob Schmor entertained her pinocle club at her home in Bonanza the evening of May 14.

A pizza supper was served before cards.

High for the evening went to Mrs. Howard Schmidt, low to Mrs. Edward Adams and traveling to Mrs. Charles Schmidt.

Others enjoying the evening were Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mrs. Don Horsley, Mrs. Roy Fernlund, and Mrs. George Simmons.

Nancy Hanan Is Bride Of Gerald Allen Sabin

At a 2 p.m. ceremony in the First Methodist Church on May 10, Nancy Lee Hanan became the bride of Gerald Allen Sabin. The Rev. Dr. S. Dallas McNeil read the marriage service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. H. B. Kirkpatrick Jr. and William F. Hanan, Klamath Falls, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Vernon B. Dunagan, Langlois, Oregon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length wedding gown with a train, the bodice and peplum of embroidered tulle and a scalloped neckline. Her silk illusion veil was held by a pearl and sequin crown, and she carried a white orchid on a white lace-covered Bible.

Donna McFarlan was the vocal soloist, and Jerry Minchinton the organist. The church was decorated with lavender gladioli, candles and pink and white bows.

Mrs. Ken (Mabel) Morrow, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress of lavender tulle and lace had chiffon at the neckline which ended in streamers down the back. She wore a tiny white flowered hat and carried a bouquet of white and lavender carnations with streamers.

Bridesmaids were Annette Gaster and JoAnn Geiss, Klamath Falls; Margaret Osment, San Francisco, and Betty Kuhn, a sister of the bridegroom, Langlois. They were dressed the same as the matron of honor except their bouquets were pink and lavender carnations.

Trainbearers were LeAnna and LeNora Livermore, the three-year-old twin nieces of the bridegroom. Valerie Livermore, another niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and little Michael Ritchie was ringbearer.

Larry Sabin, Bandon, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Tom Trulove, the bride's cousin, Bob Regal, Ken Morrow and Warren Ritchie, the latter of Medford.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kirkpatrick wore a pale aqua summer cotton dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The lace tablecloth on the refreshment table was hand-made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Nell Elder. Judie Logsdon and Susan Peterson served punch and coffee, and LaDonna Brammer handled the guest book. Junice Sabin assisted with the gifts.

The bride, active in school clubs and organizations, will graduate from Klamath Union High School this month. The bridegroom is a graduate of Langlois High School where he was active in clubs and student affairs and was a four-year letterman in sports. He graduated from Oregon Technical Institute in 1957.

After a wedding trip to California, the young couple is now at home at Apartment 3, 920 Lincoln Street. The bride's travel ensemble was a white knit suit, white accessories and lavender hat with an orchid corsage.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. V. B. Dunagan and Betty Kuhn, Langlois; Mrs. James Sypher, the bridegroom's grandmother, Bridge; Mrs. W. Livermore and daughters, Port Orford; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sabin, Bandon; LaDonna Brammer, Redding; Mrs. John Quibell and son Greg, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ritchie and children, Medford.

Well Known KF Resident Weds Walter Craig In Reno Church

Friends of well known former Klamath Falls resident, Mrs. Barbara A. Rakestraw, who was married to Walter T. Craig on April 25, will be interested to learn that the Craigs are now in their recently completed home, 1303 Clark Avenue, Yuba City, California.

The couple exchanged vows in a 5:30 p.m. ceremony in Reno Federated Congregational and Presbyterian Church before an altar banked with pink and white spring blossoms. The Rev. Felix A. Manley, pastor of the church, officiated.

Mrs. Robert B. Chilcote (Peggy Rakestraw) of this city was her mother's attendant, and best man was Bruce Rodgers, manager of Marysville-Yuba County Chamber of Commerce, of which Walter Craig is industrial representative.

Others in Reno for the ceremony were Mrs. Jacqueline Stanton and Patrick Padgett, both of Marysville.

For the evening nuptials the new Mrs. Craig chose a pearl gray light summer weight wool suit and a white Breton sailor. Her shoes and bag were of black patent leather, and she wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Chilcote wore a yellow silk sheath with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Craig, formerly of Delaware, has, during his residence in Yuba County, acquired a wide circle of friends, and many of them were at the welcome home party for the Craigs when they returned from their wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.
