MALIN

PROSPERITY CHAPTER OES

Prosperity Chapter, OES, met Thursday evening, May 8, at the Malin Masonic Hall with Worthy Matron Edna Hunnicutt presiding for the special purpose of the election of officers.

Madeline Depuy was elected to the office of worthy matron; Homer Depuy Jr., worthy patron; Betty Halousek, associate matron; Dick Halousek, associate patron; Anne Fruits, secretary; Leah Street, treasurer; Frances Kalina, conductress; and Barbara Victorin, associate conductress.

Honored guests introduced and escorted to the east were Beatrice Paxton, worthy matron of Oriental Chapter No. 5 of Lakeview; and Evelyn Biehn, worthy matron of Manzanita Chapter No. 172 of Klamath Falls.

A special announcement was made that worthy matron Edna Hunnicutt had been appointed grand page for the Grand Chapter of OES to be held in Portland June 3, 4 and 5. The honor was bestowed by worthy grand matron Laurene Hibberd of the Grand Chapter of Oregon.

It is silly for anyone—man or woman—to pride himself on having a "terrible temper." You may feel better for blowing your top routinely though that is even doubtful. But you can be sure those around you won't feel better or kinder toward you. No one ever admires a bad temper but its owner.

Since everyone knows it's going to rain sooner or later, why not plan your rainy day wardrobe on a clear day?

MRS. RICHARD CURRIN AND MRS. WALTER LASSETT, left and right, were hostesses at a novel and delightful bridal shower on Friday, May 16, honoring Sue Ramsby, center, who will be the June 28 bride of Robert Milton (Bob) Ede of Portland. Instead of the approximately 30 guests selecting individual gifts, a handsome collection of electrical appliances was given by the group.

The afternoon party at the Lassett home, 505 Pacific Terrace, was not a surprise to Sue, but the be-ribboned unpacked display of shining new equipment was an overwhelming surprise that greeted her when she entered the Lassett's recreation room.

Jeanie Hill Is Bride Of Gerald Gordon Arant

Mt. Laki Church was the setting for the wedding of Jeanie Elizabeth Hill to Gerald Gordon Arant in an 8 p.m. ceremony on April 20. Baskets of pink and white gladioli were floral decorations in the church, and illumination was from lighted tapers in the windows and in multi-branched floor candelabra. The Rev. Andrew A. Jarvis was officiating clergyman.

Jeanie was given in marriage by her father, Ralph Hill, well known Henley District farmer and Klamath County Cow Belles choice for 1958 Father of the Year. The bridegroom is the son of Vernie Arant, Roseburg.

Maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Janice Marshall; and bridesmaids were Carolyn Coble and Georgia Flowers, who also served as candlelighters.

Lois Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hill, and Carol Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hill, were flower girls.

Gary Cunningham served as best man; and ushers were James Cheyne and Lee Roberts.

Organist for the wedding, Susie Williams, also accompanied vocal soloist, Sharlene Finchum.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of organza with medallions of Chantilly lace embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins bordering the scalloped neckline on the bodice and on the cap sleeves. Vertical panels of pearl and iridescent sequin embroidered lace bordered the pleated organza skirt front. She wore a matching tiara and a ballerina veil. Her bridal bouquet was of pink rosebuds with white carnations.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore pink crystalite ballerina length gowns and their headbands were of pink and white carnations.

The reception was in the church
