OTI 1958 Graduation Tea Is Scheduled For June 7

The business session of OTI Faculty Wives and Womens Club regular meeting on May 11 in the OTI Lounge was primarily concerned with the club calendar of forthcoming and future events.

Mrs. Albert E. Smith, general chairman of the tea for OTI women graduates, reported that arrangements had been completed by her committee. The date is set for June 7 at the home of OTI Director and Mrs. Winston D. Purvine on Klamath Circle.

BETHEL NO. 51

Henley Bethel No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters met in regular session May 19 at the Henley Grange Hall with Honored Queen Norma Jean Lyon presiding.

The list of new officers and choir members was read by Queen-elect Carolyn Hunt. Joint installation with the Lost River Chapter Order of the DeMolay will be May 31 at 7:30 p.m. in the Henley Elementary School gym. The public is cordially invited to attend. Dress for the girls will be informal, and pictures of the choir and officers will be taken at 7 p.m., before the installation.

One of the Job's fund raising projects for the summer will be washing cars for a nominal charge. Temporary plans are to have several wash stations located at different homes about two weeks after school is out.

Betty Crocker coupons are in demand. All girls are asked to save them for the Bethel. All coupons contributed to the girls by anyone wishing to do so will be gratefully received.

A family picnic with the Lost River Chapter, Order of the DeMolay is being planned for later this summer.

Dawn Reeder, senior custodian, gave a report on the fun had at the Masonic buckaroo breakfast held on the Glenn Dehlinger ranch Sunday, May 18.

Librarian, Cindy Dehlinger, gave an amusing book report on "Doc Pete's Friend Charley."

Honored Queen Norma Jean Lyon thanked the Bethel members for their loyal cooperation and help toward making her term a success. A large number of Job's Daughters fathers attended the session which is the last Bethel meeting until September.

The evening was concluded with serving of refreshments in the banquet room that was beautifully decorated by the Bethel daughters.

Beauty Tips

Days of streaked dirty arms from wringing mops are passing. Foam rubber mops wring dry without dripping moisture. But the happy part of this is that the lever for the operation is high on the handle. This keeps pretty hands out of scrub water.

Learning to conserve one's energy is difficult. Many housewives travel hundreds of unnecessary miles just doing housework with no system. Organize equipment and supplies for each job in a convenient place so that you cut all unnecessary motions.

It was announced that Mrs. James Pitman is chairman for the faculty potluck in June; Mrs. Jack Douglass will head the committee for the fall potluck; Mrs. Delbert Folk and Mrs. Herb Madole will plan the fall rummage sale.

Entertainment was arranged by Steve Stone of the KUHS music department, who presented his singing group, The Swing Sixteen.

Refreshments were served to members and guests from a table. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Hal Rotrock, Mrs. George Marostica, Mrs. Richard Pope and Mrs. William Finch.

YREKA

MR. AND MRS. BRIDGE CLUB Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson were recently hosts to the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge Club with 14 players present for the evening of play.

Holding high score for the evening was Wesley McMillan; Mrs. Johnson, second; Mrs. Wayne Hill, low and Al Sherman, traveling.

Others playing included Mr. and Mrs. Chet Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Feustal, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Greene, Wayne Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lane, Mrs. Al Sherman and Mrs. Wesley McMillan. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan were guest players.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of play.

CHILOQUIN

RECITAL

Ten of Mrs. Gerald Wolff's music pupils presented a recital at the high school Wednesday evening, May 14. Participating were Sherry Lough, Gerry Wolff, Phyllis Bickers, Joyce McIntyre, Barbara Nicholson, Donna Kiercher, Micki Wolff, Donna Robinson, Janet Wilson and Cherry Wolff.

Both piano and accordion music were featured on the program and ranged from first grade pieces played by the beginners to advanced works by Chopin and Beethoven from selections of a sonata to the modern popular tunes.

ALTURAS

REBEKAH LODGE 208

Northern Rebekah Lodge No. 208, Alturas, honored two of its outstanding members with a no-host dinner in the Odd Fellows Hall Saturday night, May 10.

Mrs. Barney M. Smith, district deputy president of the Rebekah Assembly of California, and Archie Close, district deputy grand master of the Odd Fellow Grand Lodge of California, were the honorees.

A travelogue of Europe, illustrated with pictures which Dr. and Mrs. Philip W. McKenney took during their European tour last summer, was given by Dr. McKenney.

The natural linen handbag, perked up with spring flowers and covered with clear vinyl, is a fashion bet for wear now and later. Easy to keep clean, too.

RECENT-GRADS of American Association of University Women in the local branch, arranged this year's tea for senior girls from all high schools in Klamath County. Some 250 girls were served punch and tea during the Friday afternoon hours. General chairman for the event was Mrs. Robert A. Hawkins.

Also in the receiving line but not pictured on the front page were Mrs. Leonard Surles and Mrs. Warren Noggle. — All AAUW Tea Photos by Otto Ellis

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

If you must eat at a movie, at least try to make as little noise as possible. Crumpling paper, passing a sack of popcorn up and down an aisle to share it with your companions, etc., makes it pretty hard for those around you to hear the show. Better not to eat here at all, but if you must, at least be quiet about it.

If you are on a party line, you should do everything you can to make sharing a line as pleasant as possible. If you start to make a call and the line is busy, hang up quickly and wait five minutes before trying again. Tell your friends frankly that you can't hold long telephone conversations. If another user of the line interrupts your conversation to ask if he might have the line for an emergency call, hang up promptly. A party line is only as workable as those who share it are courteous and considerate.

When you are a guest in another's home, for goodness' sake keep your room neat. Even if clutter doesn't bother you it may bother your hosts. How you keep your own house is your business. But how you keep a room in a home where you are a guest is your hostess's business.

If a friend seems reluctant to discuss a problem you know is troubling him, don't ask questions or bring up the subject. Often silence conveys sympathetic understanding better than words. Remember, not all persons like to talk about their troubles.
