THE BRIDAL BOUQUET was stopped in mid-air by the camera. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gordon Arant were about to take off for their wedding trip to San Francisco, and the bride (Jeanie Elizabeth Hill) tossed the bouquet high enough to make the sharp contrast of white against the night sky.

SENIOR GIRLS from high schools in Klamath County were treated to tea and a beautiful view at the John D. Merryman residence on Fairmont, where they were guests at the annual AAUW tea on May 16.
Mrs. Merryman, a member of the local American Association of University Women branch, was hostess. The charming and spacious dwelling provided ample room indoors and out for the estimated 250 senior high school girls attending the tea.

From the left, with the hillside and the corner of the Merryman home as background, the girls are Judy Sutherland, Norma Terpening, Anita Vaden, Sidie Ketchum, standing; Sherry Crawford, Eleanor Adams, Janice Heselstine, Ruth Flescher, Nora Spillane and Dorothy Kellison, all of Bonanza.
The tea is an annual AAUW Recent-Grads project, to stimulate and further each graduating girl's interest in a college education.
