feated Boston 3-2, the Chicago White Sox trimmed Washington 7-3 and Cleveland beat Baltimore 7-6 in 10 innings.

Braves 3, Cards 2

If Sad Sam's sad these days, it's no wonder after what's happened to the Cardinals right-hander in his last two starts. He allowed only three hits, but was beaten 1-0 by Philadelphia and Robin Roberts last week. And last night, he gave up only a pair of harmless singles until the ninth. Then Ed Mathews singled and Jones hit Wes Covington with a pitch. A couple of forceouts carried Mathews home, and Sad Sam then gave up his fourth hit—Adcock's towering two-run shot over the center field fence.

Vancouver Regains Lead In PCL Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Vancouver Mounties, who have been staging a private little war with the Phoenix Giants for the Pacific Coast League lead, moved into the fore again Tuesday night as rain washed out Phoenix' scheduled tussle with Portland.

The Mounties, scoring their runs by the fist-full, outlasted the Sacramento Solons 9-6 in 10 innings and ran their record to 28-15, five percentage points better than Phoenix' 27-17 and 614.

The San Diego Padres, down by two runs at one point, used a lazy bloop single to right field to whump Seattle's Rainiers 5-4 in 11 frames. The Spokane Indians got an eight-run inning in shading Salt Lake City 9-8.

The Mounties coaxed a solo homer out of Ray Barker and a two-run homer out of Joe Frazier as they counted three runs in the top of the 10th and presented George Bamberger with his third win in five decisions.

Vancouver had scored six runs in the eighth on Owen Friend's triple, three walks, a sacrifice and three singles. The Solons scored two runs in the fifth, one in the sixth and three in the eighth.

Power-hitter Dick Stuart hit two homers for Salt Lake City and drove in six runs all by his lonesome but his efforts were nullified by an eight-run spurge by the Indians in the fourth inning.

The Indians put 10 runners on the bases before an out was made. Six hits, two walks and two errors accounted for the eight runs. Nerve Sherry tripled and then scored Spokane's winning run in the sixth.

Earl Averill solo homered for the Padres in the fourth and Jim Dyck did it for the Rainiers in the eighth as Seattle choked down its fifth successive loss.

San Diego's winning run came in the top of the 11th inning. With Eddie Kazak on third, Rod Graber poked one of Bill Kennedy's pitches out into short right field and it dropped in for a single. Graber scored the winning run easily.

Hal Jeffcoat won it in relief of Brooks Lawrence, who failed to finish for the seventh time in 10 starts. Home runs by Jerry Lynch and Frank Robinson gave the Redlegs a tie after the Cubs counted three in the fourth, two on Walt Moryn's homer.

the Huskies started all over again as Salvadori scored after reaching first on a fielder's choice and stealing two bases. Both Salvadori and Hobson, who had been walked, came in on a single by Dean Haskins. A combination of free passes and a fielder's choice brought in Haskins for the last Merrill tally of the game.

The Condon club was never a threat during the next two and one half innings as Salvadori disposed of all but three Blue Devils. A Merrill double play and a pickoff by catcher Dean Haskins took these three.
