News Analyst Says Tito Won Victory Over Red Pals

By CHARLES M. McCANN
UPI Foreign News Analyst

It looks as if President Tito of Yugoslavia has won a big victory in his latest feud with the Soviet Russian Communist Party.

It looks also as if the reason is that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has won a victory over the "Stalinists" in the ruling Russian Communist Party Presidium and Central Committee.

Only a few days ago, there were indications that Tito might be drummed out of the world Communist movement because he persisted in his refusal to conform to the party line—that is, to put himself again under Kremlin domination.

But now Khrushchev has sent Tito a surprisingly friendly message of congratulation on his 66th birthday.

"...Accept my cordial congratulations and wishes for happiness and the flourishing of the brotherly Yugoslav people," Khrushchev said.

"I express the hope that existing misunderstandings between the Communist League of Yugoslavia and the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and other fraternal parties, which are not secret, will be overcome."

It was Khrushchev who patched up party relations between Russia and Yugoslavia after Josef Stalin's death.

Khrushchev made a humble pilgrimage to Belgrade and told Tito that Stalin was to blame for ostracizing him because he revolted against Kremlin domination.

But the "Stalinists" in the party leadership—the one who feared Khrushchev's attempt to liberalize conditions in the Soviet Union and its satellites—never really accepted that action.

To them, Tito's revolt was unforgivable. They wanted no independents in the Communist movement. From their viewpoint, they were right. The revolts in Poland and Hungary, and the general loosening of discipline in all Communist countries which followed Khrushchev's liberalization campaign showed how dangerous a relaxation of Red dictatorship can be.

The latest Tito-Kremlin feud broke out in April when the Yugoslav Communists proclaimed a party platform emphasizing Tito's determination to keep his independence.

Savage attacks were made on Tito by the leaders of Communist countries. There was talk that Russia might end all economic aid to Yugoslavia and that Tito might be formally read out of the world Communist movement. Tito remained defiant and met attack with attack.

Police Seek Kiss Bandit

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Police today sought a well-dressed burglar who kissed Mrs. Sylvia Netz, 35, and gave her $10 when she said she only had 50 cents in the house.

The attractive brunette said she awoke Tuesday to find a young, dark-haired intruder standing at the foot of her bed.

"Do you really have four children?" asked the burglar before Mrs. Netz could even scream.

Gaspings, Mrs. Netz said, "How did you get in here?"

"I broke in!" the young man replied calmly.

Mrs. Netz said she only had 50 cents in the house and showed the burglar her purse to prove it.

"Here, you need this worse than I do," he said, handing the startled woman $10.

When she protested, he kissed her on the cheek and left.
