Mary Kay Krueger Installed As Malin RFG Worthy Adviser

MALIN — At the 28th public installation Order of Rainbow For Girls on May 16 at the Malin Masonic Hall, Mary Kay Krueger was installed as worthy adviser. The welcome address was given by Bob Victorin and installing officers for the impressive ceremony

AMARANTH

Friendship Court No. 11, Order of Amaranth held a stated meeting May 21 at the Scottish Rite Temple with Royal Matron Luella Chicote and Royal Patron Dale Howell presiding.

The court was entertained with piano and violin selections by Linda and Sally Hanville, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville. Grand officers of the Grand Court of Oregon introduced and welcomed were SK Jack Schulze, past grand royal patron; and HL Blanche Schulze, grand assistant lecturer; HL Betty Day, Royal Matron, and HL Melvina Little, associate matron, and Rosy Ann Court of Medford were also honored guests of the evening.

The court honored its past royal matrons and patrons, HL Mary Ellen Gaster, HL Lucille Wirtz, HL Emogene Jones, SK James Hunter and SK Norman Jones. Also honored were HL Bertha Jones and SK Harold Jones, past royal matron and patron of Wenatchee Court, Wenatchee, Washington.

Memorial services were held for the late HL Rosella Richardson who died during the last year. SK Jack Schulze opened a special session of grand court at which time HL Lucille Wirtz was installed as grand representative to Iowa. Grand installing officers were HL Emogene Jones, marshal; SK Norman Jones, aide to the marshal; HL Blanche Schulze, prelate; and HL Isabel Sanders, musician.

HL Fannie Mae Thompson, associate matron and SK Elmer Vincent, associate patron, presented a birthday gift from the court to Royal Matron Luella Chicote. Following the meeting refreshments were served during a social hour.

The next regular session of the court on June 18 will be Obligation Night and each member is urged to bring another member who has not attended court for some time.

GIRLS LEAGUE MOTHERS TEA

YREKA — A "Pink Champagne" theme marked the setting for the annual Girls League Mothers Tea, recently in the gymnasium of the Yreka High School with approximately 250 guests in attendance. The theme was carried out with pink and white streamers, suspended from the ceiling to create a canopy, and other pink and white decorations were used in the table appointments.

Linda Schuck and Dixie Rosenkrance poured tea and coffee for the afternoon. Mrs. Helen Sherman, Girls League adviser and dean of women, greeted guests with the assistance of Judy Moore, Girls League president; Kathy Haines, vice president; Lena Foggato, secretary; Lorraine Gamma, treasurer; Betty Bridwell, senior class representative; Sandra Arneberg, junior class representative; Sherrie Flock, sophomore class representative; and Judy Young, freshman class representative.

Marja-Leena Ratikainen and Nancy Whitman pinned carnations on mothers as they entered. The afternoon's program was opened with a brief welcome address by Judy Moore. Other events the program were:

A pantomime, by Janet Elsea; modern dance routine by Marjorie James and Susan Harris; songs by the girls' quartet Mimi Behnke, Adrienne Favero, Dede Davis, and Julie Townley, accompanied by Ardel Schuck at the piano.

A comedy skit by Diana Michelson, Lena Foggato and Candy Smith; and a talk by Kathy Haines, student speaker at the Richardson Springs conference. Gifts were presented from the Girls League and the student body to Mrs. Helen Sherman, who is completing her last year at Yreka High School, by Judy Moore and Kathy Hurley and Mrs. Sherman made a brief acceptance speech.

Judy Moore was also the recipient of a gift as retiring Girls League president. Floy Johnston of the employment office, was introduced as one of several of the special guests. She was the first president of the Girls League at Yreka High School.

Donna Morrison was program announcer; and Janet Elsea was commentator for the fashion show which concluded the program. Ardel Schuck was pianist for the fashion parade.

WEED

WABENO COUNCIL

Nominations of chiefs for new term offices were made at the May 16 meeting of Wabeno Council, degree of Pocahontas with Mrs. Geneva Hildreth, Pocahontas, presiding.

Mrs. Hildreth reported on attendance of a school of instruction attended in McCloud by her and Mrs. Ruth Patterson and Mrs. Ella Holder.

Mrs. Hazel Coggins, keeper of the records, read the invitation for the council to attend a district meeting slated for May 24 at Fortuna in conjunction with receptions for Great Prophetess Sarah Sherman and Great second trustee Katherine Svlich. Also a greeting from Roy Holder, a member visiting in Oklahoma, was read to the attending members.

Coin award was given to Mrs. Sally Plugear and the mystery package for the evening went to Mrs. Holder. Nominations were Prophetess, Mrs. Hildreth; Wenonah, Mrs. Alma Killingsworth; Pocahontas, Mrs. Dorothy Soltana; Powhatan, O. A. McRae; keeper of records, Mrs. Hazel Coggins; keeper of wampum, Mrs. Nellie Del Nero; collector of wampum, Mrs. Silvia Cardoza; trustees, Mrs. Holder and Mrs. Rachel Doughty.

Following the meeting a bountiful potluck supper was served in the hall dining room. Card games followed the opening of Mothers Day gifts exchanged by secret pals.

GAIL NERSEETH and Ronnalie Olson, both 1956 graduates of KUHS, received their associate in arts degree from Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri, Tuesday morning, May 27. This is the 125th graduating class at Stephens and approximately 600 received their degrees this year. Gail is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerseeth, 2027 Del Moro Street, and Ronnalie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Olson, 2035 Portland Street. Both sets of parents were in Columbia for the commencement exercises.

WEED LODGE GLORIA

A ravioli sale was set as a pre-Fathers Day project by members of Lodge Gloria at the May meeting, and is slated for June 15. Forty members attended the meeting held at the Son's Memorial Hall and gave special recognition to Mothers Day by honoring Gold Star Mothers of the order.

Mrs. Juaneice Belcastro was initiated as a new member in the Lodge Gloria with Mrs. Mary Leporini, venerable, presiding at the degree work which was performed by John Soletti, venerable of Cuori-Uniti Lodge and Umberto Scaraballo, special deputy.

The presentation of a gift to Lodge Gloria and Cuori-Uniti lodges was a highlighted feature of the evening. The gift was a plaque of the statue of Saint Francis for the Sons Memorial Hall and was presented to the two lodges by Mr. and Mrs. John Mantle. Mr. Mantle was a recent recipient of a certificate of merit in special recognition by the lodges.

Regular awards for the evening meeting were given to Mrs. Tallia Zandanna and Mrs. Rita Boffo. Gold Star Mothers honored were Mrs. Carmela Barbieri and Mrs. Annie Tosi. Other Mothers Day honors were the oldest mother present, Mrs. Aurelia Sbarbaro; the youngest mother, Mrs. Rosie Guerra; and the mother with the most children, Mrs. Juaneice Belcastro.

Birthdays remembered with gifts were for Mrs. Maria Scaraballo, Mrs. Rita Boffo, Mrs. Mary Ciaido and Mrs. Elsie Sartor.

Dinner was served after the meeting for the large group attending.

If your child's teeth protrude, she should be given proper dental care. Buck teeth are ugly, and a child who senses she is unattractive will develop a lack of confidence that will cause her much unhappiness.
