Jim Farley, 70 Today, Sees Demo Wins In 1958, 1960

NEW YORK (AP)—James A. Farley, forecaster of many election results, made a 70th birthday prediction today.

Democratic victories this year and in 1960.

"Coming events cast their shadows before," said Farley who masterminded the first two election campaigns of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Still husky and vigorous, the former postmaster general and Democratic national chairman will mark his birthday with a family dinner party.

At this milestone, Farley looks back happily on his thousands of personal friendships. And he looks forward with confidence to the nation's future.

"We are living in troublesome days," Farley commented in a pre-birthday interview. "But we always have had troubles since the foundation of the Republic."

Farley, whose friendships transcend political lines, urged that Congress and the people give every cooperation to President Eisenhower.

"I hope very much that there will be continued cooperation by Congress with President Eisenhower in the passage of legislation essential to enable the United States to maintain its position of leadership," he said.

"His position is a difficult one and it is the duty of all Americans to the extent of their ability, to help him carry out the duties of his office."

Farley now is board chairman of the Coca Cola Export Corp. He appeared fit and alert enough to step back into an active political role—and it is just possible that he may.

Friends have been urging him for the Democratic nomination for United States senator. He declined to say whether he would be interested but added that sooner or later he would make his position known.

Parade Tops Picnic Meet

YREKA — Approximately 1,500 persons attended the 58th annual Pentecostal picnic at Hawkinsville on Sunday, May 25, in observance of one of Siskiyou County's oldest celebrations.

High point of the celebration of Pentecost Sunday was the opening parade, followed with High Mass at the Hawkinsville Church with the Rev. Thomas Boland officiating.

The celebration is a custom originating in Portugal, and the event marks a vision of six centuries ago in which Queen Isabella reported seeing a vision of the Holy Ghost, and she then dedicated her life to the poor. The natives of Portugal, inaugurated the custom in Siskiyou County 87 years ago, and it has been observed ever since. In Hawkinsville, the event has widened to a community affair, and visitors travel from all over the county to participate.

The parade was headed by Anthony Crovella of Yreka, president of the Portuguese organization that sponsors the annual affair; and the chosen queen, Shirley Silva; her assistant Nancy Jones; and the plate girl, Deanna Louie.

Others participating in the parade were "Pole" girls, Paula Clement, Sharon Crovella, Sharon Dias and Patsy Rose; flag bearers, George and David Lemons; flower girls, Charlotte Burgess, Donna Clayton, Donna Dias, Christine Michaels, Carol Morgan; Betty Rose, Shirley Rose, Donna Silva and Debby Silva.

Flag boys were David Clayton, Danny Clayton, Jody Johnson, Johnny Lawrence and Joey Lawrence.

Following the mass at the church the barbecue was served, and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in adults and children participating in a variety of races and games.

CHEAPER
ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A St. Joseph dealer in used appliances said a man purchased four old refrigerators, total price $90, explaining: "I'm going to take the doors off of them and use them to cool my recreation room. They're cheaper than an air conditioner."

Chile Woman In Church Speech

Mrs. Neomi Reyes, president of the Presbyterian women of Chile and of the Evangelical Women's Association of Chile, will speak at Peace Memorial Church, June 2, at 7:30. Born in Argentina, educated as a nurse, and now married to a Presbyterian pastor, Mrs. Reyes is active in many phases of church life. She is visiting churches in America before she attends the Presbyterian Women's Quinquennial meeting in Purdue, Indiana.

Her interpreter will be Miss Marjorie Morrison, Presbyterian missionary on furlough from Guatemala. A former high school teacher in California, Miss Morrison has worked the past five years as an adviser on women's work in Guatemala. Interested friends in the Basin are invited by the Women's Association of Peace Memorial Church to attend this talk, and also the potluck dinner before the event at 6:30. P. I. e. s. e. take table service.

U.S. Will Make Effort To Work With De Gaulle

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States will make every effort to work with Gen. Charles de Gaulle in a close and friendly manner if he comes to power as premier of France.

Officials said today this is the only policy open to this country in dealing with the head of an allied nation. But they wondered how cooperative De Gaulle himself would be in handling French relations with the Atlantic Allies.

President Eisenhower told his news conference he had a long experience of friendly contact with De Gaulle and "I happen to be one of those people that like him."

He made this statement despite his insistence at the news conference that he would not discuss the French crisis. Secretary of State Dulles had cautioned that the situation was too delicate for discussion by top Washington officials.

Eisenhower's comment on De Gaulle seemed to Washington diplomats to be subject to two possible interpretations in Paris. One was that De Gaulle's backers could now argue that the United States was prepared to work with him despite a long record of friction during and after World War II. The other was that De Gaulle's enemies might seize upon Eisenhower's words as meddling in French affairs.

In the current opinion of officials in the State Department and White House, if De Gaulle becomes premier he probably can be expected to stick to the major lines of French foreign policy where the North Atlantic Alliance is concerned.

But if he succeeds in solving his home front political problems and gaining the centralized power he wants, he very likely will do everything possible to try to make France the dominant ally in Europe.

Greater bargaining power emphasized as a major need of farmers, was pointed out by Joe Guttridge of Madras, state deputy, who visited the Lake Pomona session.

The group opposed a proposal to establish the annual State Grange session at Salem.

Prizes were awarded for winners in the sewing contest. Patrons also voted to contribute to the Spence Memorial Fund.

FORT ROCK—East Side Grange won the $75 first prize and Valley Falls a second place award of $25 in the Lake County Pomona attendance contest, according to Edwin Eskelin, master, of Fort Rock, following the quarterly session Saturday.

Tall Beautiful Blonde To Enhance Summer Screens

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—The home screen will be enhanced once a week this summer by a tall, beautiful blonde named Gretchen Wyler when the Bob Crosby Show takes over for Perry Como while he's in seasonal hibernation.

Well known to New York theater audiences as a dancer, comedienne and singer, Miss Wyler, a native of Bartlesville, Okla., is overdue a fuller acquaintance on the part of TV audiences.

She will join Crosby beginning June 14 on NBC-TV to kick away care, belt songs and generally kid around Crosby, by the way, gave up a CBS contract to do the Saturday evening show. And Como, by the way, won't say where he's slumbering this summer.

Miss Wyler has guested around some on television, but the Bob Crosby Show is her first big break with the nationwide audience of a 13-week program.

You're going to like this girl. Ignoring (if you can) her comeliness and talent, she's a happy, forthright young lady who never worries or grows depressed.

"I suppose I shouldn't admit it," she said, "because it makes me sound idiotic or something, but it's true that I never worry. Maybe it's because I've been steadily employed since I left Oklahoma nine years ago. More important, I think, is the fact that I'm happily married and have no personal problems."

Her husband is Shepard Coleman, a musical arranger and conductor.

She's been dancing since she was 3. Beginning her career in the ballet corps of the St. Louis Municipal Opera in 1950, she came to New York under contract to dance on the Kate Smith TV show.

Her first audition for the legitimate theater "gained her the understudy role to the leading lady in the Broadway production of 'Where's Charley?' There, at the suggestion of star Ray Bolger, she discarded her family name of Wienecke in favor of Wyler.

In Cole Porter's "Silk Stockings," she was established as an outstanding song and dance comedienne. That show was followed by the role of Lela in "Damn Yankees."

Among the Future Farmers Foundation awards were Bernard Busic, star chapter farmer; Richard Cook, public speaking; Don Shulmanberger, dairy farming; Bob Richardson, farm mechanics; Dan Heavilin, senior award; Stan Newman received the bull grading award; and David Griffin the FFA scholarship award. FFA awards given by the Rotary Club went to Bob Richardson for best mechanic; Bernard Busic, best farming program; and Dan Heavilin, vocation agriculture senior.

Awards in other fields went to Sylvia Johnson, chorus; Ted and Art Brown, band; Mike Clark, editor; Phyllis Ashcraft, journalism. "Best Thespians" were Gail Jones and Bud Deming, with Pat Sullivan as four star Thespians. The outstanding Viking was Molly Fletcher and special Viking awards also went to Phyllis Ashcraft and Mike Clark. Other presentations were in both boys and girls athletic departments.

Several members of the board had charged that Mrs. Hill's conduct was unbecoming a county department head following her May 11 arrest on charges of operating a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol.

The resignation was accepted and will be effective June 30. A possible successor for the office has not been named.

NO RESPONSE
FORT DE FRANCE, Martinique (AP) — The drive by French military men and colonists in Algeria to put Gen. Charles de Gaulle in power has produced no companion response on the French West Indian island of Martinique. The population is worried about the situation in France but there have been no demonstrations.
