McCloud — Al Morgan, publicity chairman for the McCloud Recreation Council, announced applications are being accepted for those wishing to participate in the aquacade which will be held during the Lumberjack Fiesta, August 23 and 24.

Awarded — A contract for clearing 65 acres of brushland on Edison Creek Road near McCloud was awarded Spade and Hayes contractors of Redding. The firm submitted the low bid of $38 per acre, according to USFS officials. The bid is to be approved by the regional office and clearing to be completed by June 15. The cleared land is to be planted with ponderosa seedling trees.

Scholarship — Paula Friday, McCloud High School senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Friday, was awarded a $200 college scholarship by McCloud Local 664, International Woodworkers of America, AFL-CIO scholarship committee.

Candidate Dinner — The Siskiyou County Democratic Club will hold a dinner at the Greenhorn Grange Hall in Yreka Saturday, May 31, at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited. Candidates of both parties will speak, according to Flora - Lee Reeves, finance chairman.

Returned — from the Pringle Falls Training Center where they attended a range and wildlife training session last week are Supervisor Clayton Weaver, Cliff Winkle and Clyde Peacock of the Fremont Forest staff. Attending the meeting were three forest supervisors, 17 staff officers and 21 district rangers from the Forest Service personnel of Region Six. Officials of the Oregon State Game Commission also participated.

To Sacramento — Mr. and Mrs. Euell Elliott and daughter, Sara Ann, expect to leave early next week for Sacramento to make their home. They have sold their residence in Lakeview to Mrs. Gail Reynolds. Elliott plans to continue with schooling toward administrative work in the field of education.

Houseguest — Mrs. Paula Small arrived from Berkeley Monday evening to spend two weeks in Lakeview as a houseguest of Mrs. Erna Clausen.

Takes Position — Marion Boxwell, Fairbanks, Alaska, who has been visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Ed Zorinski, Lakeview, has accepted a position with the Lakeview Mining Company and will make her home in Lakeview.

Convention — Mrs. William Rush, Mrs. Ralph Laird, Mrs. G. Guy Young and Mrs. Cecil Baker were representatives of the Alturas Garden Club at the National Council of State Garden Clubs at Seattle from May 18 to May 22.

New Pine Creek — Irvin Faris, New Pine Creek, and Mark Getty, Lakeview, attended the IOOF Grand Lodge Sessions in Corvallis last week. Both of them visited relatives in Portland before the session began.

Visits — Postmaster Buna Faris, New Pine Creek, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peat, Lakeview, paid a visit Sunday to Postmaster Neva M. Warner, Silver Lake, and Postmaster Muriel Hergert, Fort Rock.

From Sacramento — Mrs. Louisa Shedd, Sacramento, is the houseguest of Mrs. Rosa Briles, Alturas. Mrs. Shedd was recently honored with the presentation of a 45-year Veteran's Jewel by Mrs. Fred Ash, noble grand of Northern Rebekah Lodge No. 208, while Mrs. Ash was in Sacramento.

To Arkansas — Mr. and Mrs. Bill Banks, and family, Alturas, left May 27 for a month's vacation to Colorado Springs, Colorado, and Arkansas. Banks is minister to the Alturas Church of Christ. Forest Meyer will assume ministerial duties in the absence of Banks.

To Europe — Floyd Whiting, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Whiting, Stayton, former Alturas High School student, will sail from New York City June 23 for Luxembourg under the International Foreign Student Program. He will also spend some time in France and Germany before returning home in September.

From Sacramento — to attend Alturas High School graduation exercises were Mrs. Gene Egle and daughter, Delinda, and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sloss. Dennis Egle, older son of the Egles, was a member of the graduating class as was George Sloss, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Sloss.

Merrill — Library Club will hold its annual buffet luncheon Wednesday, June 4, at 1 p.m. in the Merrill Recreation Hall. Women's Club Wins Award

DUNSMUIR — A certificate of merit for outstanding service in the field of education was given the Dunsmuir Women's Club at the state convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Stewart Chandler, convention delegate, reported to the women's club at their May luncheon meeting at the Hotel Dunsmuir.

The small membership of the Dunsmuir club was taken into consideration in evaluating its project of sponsoring a foreign exchange student, improving Dunsmuir library facilities and nominating Robert Wright who was named district "Teacher of the Year." Mrs. C. H. Chandler said.

Mrs. C. H. Dodwell, also a convention delegate, reported highlights of the meetings to the Dunsmuir members.

Mrs. Bill Petty, serving as installing officer, installed Mrs. Harry Harper Jr., president; Mrs. John Mather, vice president; Mrs. David McClintock, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Shelton; recording secretary; and Mrs. Harry Marsh Jr., financial secretary. Mrs. Don Warner assisted with the installation.

BPW Breakfast Meeting Held

DUNSMUIR — "Keys to happiness" was the theme of the annual senior girls breakfast given by the Dunsmuir Business and Professional Women's Club recently at the Travelers Hotel.

Loretta Burgess was given the BPWC scholarship award at this event attended by the prospective girl graduates of Dunsmuir High School. Signe Gilson, past president, made the presentation.

The Rev. Martin Schabacker of the First Lutheran Church gave a talk on the breakfast theme listing "knowing one's self, getting along with others and meeting problems of life" as major keys to happiness. Souvenir programs and table decorations also reflected the "key" theme.

It was announced that Grace Pickthorn, Signe Gilson and Virginia Martin will attend the state BPWC conference in San Francisco. Mrs. Pickthorn is a candidate for state recording secretary.

New officers installed at a meeting earlier in the month are Maudine Adams, president; Ruth Walter, vice president; Doris Morgan, secretary; Mildred Gates, treasurer. Nelda Shanahan, district president, served as installing officer.

VFW Auxiliary Honors Teacher

MERRILL — The Merrill VFW Auxiliary honored the kindergarten teacher and board at a buffet dinner held at the VFW hall on Wednesday evening, May 21. The occasion also marked the first time the new VFW kitchen had been put to use.

President Marian Knox presented a gift to Carrie Mattson, the kindergarten teacher. This year ends the third year of teaching for Mrs. Mattson. Gifts were also presented to Norma Wilson, chairman of the kindergarten board of directors, and Carol Suty, treasurer of the kindergarten board.

It was announced that 17 children had already been registered for kindergarten in September. Planners of the buffet dinner were Grace Walker, Marian Knox, Margaret Moore, Bertha McKoon and Myrtle Rippey. Twenty VFW auxiliary members attended the event.
