

Diplomas Awarded Largest Merrill Graduating Class

MERRILL—The largest graduating class in the history of Merrill High School held commencement exercises at the school on Tuesday evening, May 27. Twenty-six students were awarded their diplomas by Troy Qualls, chairman of the local school board.

Guest speaker was Floyd Wynne, city editor of the Herald and News. His topic "Our Challenge" expressed the need of explaining America to the world. With the rising world situations and problems, Wynne emphasized that it is largely our young people of today who must handle the pathway to the future by showing the entire world the advantages of freedom and individuality over state control and godlessness.

Addresses were also presented by Ron Chance, class valedictorian, and Stephen Hobson, salutatorian. Special mention was made of the fact that Leroy Titus, transferee this year from Madras, tied with Ron Chance in grade point average. However, because he did not attend Merrill High School for two years, he was ineligible to be named as class valedictorian or salutatorian. A $100 scholarship presented annually by the Merrill Business and Professional Women's Club was awarded to Lucy Root, Miss Root plans to attend Portland State College to become an elementary teacher. The presentation was made by Mrs. Frances Koertje.

Ron Chance was recipient of the $100 scholarship awarded by the Merrill VFW Auxiliary. Mrs. Margaret Moore was the auxiliary spokesman. Chance also was awarded a full tuition and fee scholarship to Southern Oregon College. He intends to major in elementary education.

It was also announced that Stephen Hobson was notified that he is an alternate for a full tuition and fee scholarship to Oregon State College.

Other awards presented during the evening were: boys athletic award, Perry Laney; girls athletic award, Arlene Johnson; senior citizen, Tom Beasley; Daughters of American Revolution award, Arlene Johnson.

Members of the 1958 graduating class are: Roy Thomas Beasley, Doris Kathleen Bredeen, James Ronald Chance, Joe Wallace Collins, William Robert Danosky, Peggy Lou Dillon.

Alice Anne Eherston, Douglas Melvin Everson, Naomi Ruth Griffith, Claudia Janice Heaton, Lloyd Earl Hitchcock, Stephen John Hobson, Neil Hodges, Arlene Judith Johnson, Duane Warren Johnson, Perry Ray Laney, James Edward Matthews, James David McMurtrey, Sue Ellen Muno, Patricia Ann Pierce, Aldene W. Prossie, Harold Dwane Raines, Eldon Cordell Rodgers, Lucy Ann Root, LeRoy Eugene Titus and Dorothy E. White.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening, May 25, at St. Augustine's Church. The Rev. John F. Phelan delivered the baccalaureate address.

VFW Women Pick Leaders

An election of officers was held Wednesday, May 28, by Salon 355 Eight and Forty. The meeting was opened in ritual order with May Rudd, president, presiding.

The date was set for the annual picnic to be held Sunday, July 20, in the Veterans Memorial Park with Lina Moteschenbacher, Edna Russell and Irene Patel on the committee. There will be no meetings until September when new officers will be installed. An executive meeting will be held sometime during the summer. The department convention will be held at Gearhart, Oregon, June 25.

Newly elected officers are Katherine Keep, president; Kay Phillips, first vice president; Alice Abbott, second vice president; Francis Yost, historian; Anna Bean, chaplain; Lina Moteschenbacher, sergeant at arms. Delegates elected to attend the convention are: May Rudd, Naomi Kurtz, Julia Williams and Fannie Thompson. Delegate at large will be Elizabeth Petersteiner.

Meeting adjourned with hostesses Lena Fowler, Fannie Thompson, Mildred Cooper and Bea Van serving refreshments.
