WHEELER-DALZELL NUPTIALS IN METHODIST CHURCH RITES

MONTAGUE — Marriage vows were exchanged in the Montague Methodist Church, when Kermit Wheeler claimed Anita Dalzell as his bride in a double-ring nuptial service read by the Rev. Edward Hargreaves.

Bouquets of white stock and snapdragons decorated the altar for the 2 p.m. ceremony on Saturday, May 18.

Anita, known as "Babe" to her many friends is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Cannon of Grenada, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wheeler of Montague.

Escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father, the young bride wore a gown of white embroidered satin. The fitted bodice was designed with long sleeves pointed at the wrist, and a V neckline both back and front. The full skirt was ballerina length. Her fingertip veil of illusion was gathered to a dainty tiara embroidered with tiny seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid centered in white carnations and tied with wide satin streamers. Her earrings and necklace were of pearls.

Nola Wheeler, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a turquoise blue ballerina length gown, designed with a snug-fitting bodice, cap sleeves and V neckline. Her bouquet was of blue carnations tied with white satin streamers.

Robert Schantz of Yreka was best man, and ushers were Marino Rizzardo and Larry Westbrook, both of Montague.

Mrs. Edith Elliott of Yreka was organist for the occasion.

Approximately 150 guests were received in the club room of the Montague Auditorium, which had been decorated with white streamers across the room and centered with two large silver wedding bells. Small white wedding bells were placed intermittently about the room and were also suspended from the ceiling on streamers. Completing decorations were the bouquets of flowers from the church.

The reception table was covered with an exquisite white lace tablecloth and the focal point was the beautifully decorated four-tier wedding cake, which was topped with about an eight inch bride and groom, placed in the center of a heart. The top was specially decorated by Mrs. Frank Russey of Yreka.

After the initial first slice cut by the newlyweds, the remainder of the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Robert Schantz of Yreka. Punch was served by Carol Petersen and Donna Mays. Guests were registered by Mrs. Larry Westbrook (nee Ella Mae Smith) of Montague.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cannon chose a blue print silk suit with white accessories. Mrs. Wheeler, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black and white lace afternoon frock, white shoes and hat, and black velvet gloves. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler left for a honeymoon in Southern California with a stop at Reno included in the itinerary.

The bride was born in Yreka, and is a graduate of Yreka High School and Fay's Beauty College at Visalia, California. She owns and operates the Yreka Beauty Shop.

The bridegroom was born at Rifle, Colorado, and was graduated from Yreka High School, after which he served two years in the U.S. Navy. He is at present employed by C. L. Churchill and Son Lumber Company at Montague.

The newlyweds will live in Montague.

DAR Luncheon June 7

Flag Day will be celebrated by members of Eulalona Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, with a luncheon and program at the home of Mrs. Julian Ager on the Ashland Highway Saturday, June 7, at 12:30. Proceeds from the luncheon will go toward the Oregon Society's project to help with the restoration of the home of Dr. Robert Newell, pioneer Oregon legislator.

With contributions from individual DAR members throughout the state and with money from special fund-raising projects, it is hoped that Newell House will be debt free for Oregon's Centennial Celebration next year.

Mrs. Abert O. Roenicke, regent of Eulalona Chapter, states that a special invitation to the luncheon is extended to all women now living in the Klamath Basin who are DAR members elsewhere or who are eligible to DAR. Members are invited to bring guests. For reservations please return postal cards or telephone Mrs. Ager, TU 4-9663 in the evening.

In wearing the trapeze silhouette, remember that everything depends on maintaining that line if you're to look well. So when you buy a trapeze dress, buy the right girdles, bras and slips to wear under it.

Members of the Sconchin Society of the CAR will be guests of the chapter. Those who have coupons which may be used by the CAR are requested to bring them.

Friends Bring Cooked Turkey To Birthday Party

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin of Langell Valley were given a pleasant surprise May 25, when friends from Klamath Falls, who came out to celebrate the Martin's birthday anniversaries, brought a cooked turkey with all the trimmings.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Martin and her mother Mrs. Lydia Grate, visiting here from Huntington Park, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Konopasek, Diane, Darlene, Linda and Darrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Konopasek, Joan, Anne and Dean and Bob Bergman of Santa Rosa.

MRS. JESSE C. LITWILLER, center, former Klamath Falls resident, was here for a brief stopover on a recent return trip from Southern California to Portland. She and Mrs. George H. Clark, at the left, and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland, at the right, have shared many cups of coffee — when the Litwillers lived here and later on visits after they moved to Portland. The picture was taken in the backyard patio at the Juckeland residence on Lavey Street, where Mrs. Litwiller was a houseguest during her stay. — Photo by Otto Ellis
