NY Ends Losing Streak In Extra Innings
San Francisco Tumbles From League Top

Burly Sets Marks; Beaverton Winner

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—Two brilliant runs by Dyrol Burleson topped individual performances while Beaverton took the team title at the Oregon A-1 prep track meet here Saturday.

Burleson, a lanky senior from Cottage Grove, set records in both the mile and 880 events.

Beaverton won its first state title by shading Grants Pass, 53 points to 51.

A number of records were set as both the A-1 and A-2 finals were held on a field soaked by a night of steady rain.

Beaverton's triumph ended Medford's domination of the state meet.

Medford, which had won five straight titles and nine in the past 10 years, ended far down the line in 12th place.

Burleson, despite a pulled muscle and the damp track, won by 40 yards in the mile with a time of 4:21.4.

It was far slower than the 4:13.2 he turned in earlier this season, but easily clipped the former record of 4:24 set by George Fullerton of Ashland in 1946.

Burleson broke the tape in the 880 in 1:56.9. The former mark of 1:58 was set by Jim Grelle of Lincoln of Portland in 1955.

Another top performance was the 215 feet, 11-inch javelin heave by Glen Winningham of Grants Pass. It erased the 215-1¼ record set Friday by Gary Stenlund of Douglas of Portland.

Two Salem teams figured in the other new A-1 records.

Dan Moore of South Salem went 23 feet, 10¼ inches in the broad jump to break the record he set in Friday's preliminaries.

Then North Salem's 880-yard relay team set a record of 1:30.7 in the 880-yard relay, nicking a half second off the former mark set by Medford 10 years ago.

Jefferson of Portland finished slightly ahead of North Salem in the event, but was disqualified for passing a baton in the wrong lane.

The disqualification apparently helped cost Jefferson the team title. For if it had won the event, Jefferson would have finished with 53 1-5 points and Beaverton would have gotten third place in the relay, instead of second, and subsequent 51 points.

Beaverton, though, turned in a tremendous effort to take the title. And Beaverton was led by Steve Pauly, who won both hurdle events, a fourth in the shot and then ran in the 880-relay team.

Grant of Portland finished in fourth place with 49 points, followed by Jefferson with 43 1-5 and Marshfield with 34.

The A-2 team title was shared by Aurora and Independence, which both ended with 39 points.

Three records also fell in the A-2 competition.

Cliff Thomson of Dillard hurtled over the 880-yard course in 2:01, erasing the 2:01.1 record he set last year.

Another A-2 record toppled when Myrtle Creek eclipsed Redmond's earlier 880-yard relay effort of 1:33.6 with a time of 1:33.4.

Giants Dump Beavers, 8-4

PORTLAND (AP) — Phoenix tied the Pacific Coast League doubleplay record in swamping Portland 8-4 in a baseball game here Saturday night.

Phoenix turned in six double plays—tying the record previously held by Seattle and the now-defunct Los Angeles Angels.

Second baseman Joe Amalfitano participated in all six twin-killings last night, giving him the PCL record formerly held by Jim Reese and Leo Righetti, who both took part in five in one game.

The Phoenix infield had plenty of opportunities for double plays, for pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bill Shipley each walked seven Portland batters. In addition, Shipley hit one.

Phoenix touched two Portland pitchers for 12 hits, and got what proved to be its winning runs when Andre Rodgers lofted a three-run homer in the sixth inning.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Vancouver defeated Sacramento for the third time in a row and the second time by an identical 2-0 score here Saturday night in a Pacific Coast League baseball game.

Gordon Sundin, 20-year-old Vancouver recruit, pitched the shutout duplicating veteran George Bamberger's victory Friday night.

Sundin allowed only three hits, struck out four, and walked but two men. Only one Solon reached third base.

Joe Stanka pitched eight innings for the Solons before he was lifted for a pinch hitter. He yielded one run in the second inning.

The Mounties took the lead when Joe Durham walked, advanced on an infield out, stole third, and scored on Dick Di Tusa's single to center.

The other Vancouver run came in the ninth inning off relief pitcher Mike Hume, when Durham drove his sixth home run over the left field fence.

SEATTLE (AP) — Gene Lary gave the Seattle Rainiers two runs in the first inning Saturday night and then turned down the screws for a shutout the rest of the way as his San Diego Padres tacked a 4-2 Pacific Coast League defeat on the Suds.

The game marked the first time in the last five contests that San Diego's bombing catcher, Earl Averill, was chocked off without a homer.

The Rainiers got scoring under way in the first inning when they struck for two runs on a walk and three singles.

Joe Tanner drew a walk to start the rally. Then came singles by Vada Pinson, Gale Wade and Dutch Dotterer, with Tanner and Pinson scoring.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) —The Salt Lake Bees got only three hits but took advantage of some priceless walks Saturday night to shade Spokane 6-5 in a Pacific Coast League baseball game. The victory cut the Indians' lead to 3-2 in the current series.

The Bees virtually swiped the victory as Carlos Bernier stole home in the fourth inning with what proved to be the winning counter. He had tripled with none on.

Salt Lake got the other five counters in the second inning and succeeded—for once—in staving off the come-from-behind Indians to stay ahead.

Beavers Sign Denver, Buffs

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—Oregon State Saturday signed contracts for four football games—two each with the University of Denver and the University of Colorado.

Oregon State, a member of the shrinking Pacific Coast Conference, said it now has completed arrangements for 10 games each season for the next seven years.

Six of the 70 games, though, have not yet been announced, OSC Athletic Director Roy Keene said.

Oregon State first will meet Denver at Denver Nov. 18, 1961, with the second game here Nov. 17 the following year.

Colorado and OSC will play in Portland Sept. 28, 1963. The following season OSC and Colorado will meet in Boulder, Colo., Sept. 26.

Indianapolis Driver Benched After Crash

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Ed Elisian, 31-year-old Oakland, Calif., racing veteran, was suspended indefinitely by the U.S. Auto Club Saturday for a 15-car pileup at the start of the 500-mile race Friday.

Pat O'Connor of North Vernon, Ind., was killed in the wild first-lap crash.

Duane Carter, a former race driver who is now racing director for USAC, announced:

"I'm suspending Elisian from all racing for the safety and well-being of himself and his fellow competitors.

"I'm suspending him because of a series of errors in judgment. He'll not race again until he can appeal to the USAC's board of directors."

Harlan Fengler, chief steward of the big race, said, "Everything points to the fact that Elisian was driving too fast and caused the accident by spinning into Dick Rathmann."

Rathmann, who had topped Elisian's speed in the first day of the trials May 17 to claim the pole position, issued his own statement about the diastrous mixup:

"Elisian went around me on the inside. He was going 50 miles an hour faster than he ever could go through that corner. He made no effort to back off. I tried to go outside to miss him, but Elisian's car knocked me into the wall. Then I blacked out."

"The newspaper guys are killing me," Elisian said.

"I haven't been notified that I have been suspended, and as far as I'm concerned, I'm not. I don't know why I lost it (the car).

"I had driven through that corner faster. I have had these hot dogs (race drivers) spin in front of me and run me through the wall on other tracks. It sure wasn't intentional. I liked O'Connor and well as anybody."

Elisian was suspended by Carter last winter because he was charged with passing bad checks. Carter said the USAC reinstated him before the race "over my objections."

The ragged race start was protested officially by Pat Clancy, Memphis race car owner, but Fengler overruled the protest.

BOSTON (AP) — Enos (Country) Slaughter ended New York's losing streak at four, 5-4, Saturday by lofting a two-run, 10th inning homer into the right field stands against Boston.

The irrepressible, 42-year-old country boy connected off relief pitcher Leo Kiely after starting a last-ditch New York rally in the ninth as a pinch-hitter.

Dick Gernert tagged a solo homer for the Red Sox off winner Rinold Duren in the last of the tenth but it wasn't enough. Duren

But neither Cerv's 400-foot smash nor a similar shot by Cleveland's Larry Doby decided the issue against the Indian's Hoyt Wilhelm, who replaced starter Mudcat Grant in the third inning.

The tying and winning runs came across in the seventh inning on only one hit with the help of a passed ball and two throwing errors.

Elliott Fails In Mile Bid

MODESTO, Calif. (AP) — A bunch of speedy Texans from Abilene Christian College, anchored by Olympic sprint champion Bobby Morrow, cracked two world relay records Saturday night, but Australian miler Herb Elliott failed in his bid to again better four minutes.

The young Aussie won easily however in 4:02.7.

Morrow first won the 100-yard dash in 9.4 seconds and then came back to run on the 440 and 880-yard record breaking relay teams.

Sprinters Waymond Griggs, Bill Woodhouse, Jim Segrest and Morrow went the 440 relay in 39.7 seconds, bettering the 39.9 shared by Abilene Christian and Texas in 1957.

George Peterson joined Woodhouse, Segrest and Morrow for a 1:22.6 in the 880, bettering the world mark of 1:22.7 by Texas, also in 1957.

In the field events, Parry O'Brien threw the shot 63 feet 1 inch, just an inch shorter than his world record. North Phoenix High School's Dallas Long was second at 59-11¼.

Elias Gilbert of Winston-Salem, N. C., Teachers College won the 120-yard high hurdles in 13.8 seconds and the 220-yard lows in 22.6.

WENATCHEE (AP) — Ray Looney smashed out two homers for Tri-City Saturday night but it wasn't enough as Wenatchee's Claude Osteen, an 18-year-old southpaw, stopped the Braves on five hits for a 6-4 Northwest League victory.

LIKES DORMITORY

COLUMBIA, S. C., (UPI)—Walter (Skip) Mongon Jr, a 230-pound Rye, N.Y. teen-ager has turned down an offer from the U. S. Military Academy for a University of South Carolina football scholarship. Mongon said he made his choice because of the school's ultra-modern seven story dormitory.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ken Boyer pounced on Stu Miller's first pitch in the 12th inning Saturday and slammed it for a home run that fashioned a 10-9 victory for the St. Louis Cardinals over the stumbling San Francisco Giants.

The defeat slipped the Westerners into second place, 11 percentage points behind Milwaukee, an 8-3 victor over Pittsburgh. It was the Giants third consecutive loss to St. Louis—their biggest losing streak of the year.

Phils 5, Legs 4

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies Saturday bunched 11 hits including two by Richie Ashburn that took him past the 1,900 mark for a 5-4 victory over Cincinnati. The Redlegs outhit the Phils by one.

The 1900th hit of Ashburn's major league career came in the second inning when the Phillies scored two runs on the safety, Rip Repulski's double and Stan Lopata's single.

Harry Anderson brought in Lopata in the second inning with a single and scored himself in the fifth on Ashburn's triple. Chuck Essegian tripled in the seventh and scored on Repulski's sacrifice fly.

Braves 8, Bucs 3

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hank Aaron, Ed Mathews and Wes Covington slammed successive home runs in the first inning and the Milwaukee Braves behind Warren Spahn rolled to a 8-3 victory Saturday over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Spahn gained his eighth triumph, the first major league pitcher to win that many games.

Bosworth, Mallory Split Lead

SPOKANE (AP)— Steady Connie Bosworth of Seattle fired a two-over par 72 Saturday to pull into a tie for the second round lead of the Esmeralda amateur golf championship with tall Jim Mallory of Spokane.

Mallory, a 6-foot-6 swinger who shot a sensational 65 Friday, was 10 strokes over that in the second round. That gave him a two-round total of 140, the same as Bosworth who had a 68 Friday.

A brief rain and the wet grass took its toll Saturday.

Mallory sprayed many of his tee shots into the damp rough and his putter wouldn't behave. Bosworth was bothered with wobbly putting occasionally, but played a steadier game.

Four golfers were tied for third. Kaye Walker had a 74-69, Dick Durgan a 70-73, Al Gustafson 70-73 and Billy Warner 72-71. All are from Spokane.

Two more strokes back were J. J. Hagan of Portland, the winner for the last two years, and Ray Benka and Brick Durgan, both Spokane.

Bums 9, Cubs 4

CHICAGO (AP)—Duke Snider's three hits and lefty Fred Kipp's three-hit relief pitching paced the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 9-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs Saturday.

The victory followed a torrid pregame clubhouse meeting where it was announced pitcher Don Newcombe had been fined $300 for breaking training rules Friday night after Friday's double loss to the Cubs.
