Giants, LA Victors; NY Wins With Turley

By United Press International
San Francisco threw open its heart and its gates to the homecoming, first place Giants today while the last-place Dodgers found a referendum and that faithful foe again awaiting them in Los Angeles.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli ended the Giants' first eastern trip on a triumphant note Sunday when he pitched them back into the National League lead with a 7-2 victory over the Cardinals. That gave the Giants a record of 11 wins in 19 games since they left California.

The Dodgers didn't do so well on their trip, winning only eight out of 17, although they beat the Cubs, 1-0, Sunday on rookie Stan Williams' two-hit pitching in his first major league start.

Dodgers 1, Cubs 0

The Dodgers looked like champs behind the nifty pitching of the 21-year-old Williams. Los Angeles scored the only run of the game off loser Dick Drott in the fourth inning when Carl Furuseth doubled and scored on Don Zimmer's single.
Los Angeles 000 100 000—1-4
Chicago 000 000 000—0-2
Williams (1-0) and Roseboro. Drott, Freeman (9) and S. Taylor, Loser-Drott (2-2). (7 innings, rain)

Giants 7, Cards 2

Antonelli was supported by an 11-hit attack in his victory over the Cards. Ray Jablonski drove in three runs with a double and a single and Hank Sauer batted in two more with a pair of singles. Sam Jones, who yielded San Francisco's first five runs, was the loser.
San Fran. 101 012 020—7-11
St. Louis 010 000 010—2-9
Antonelli (5-3) and Schmidt. Jones, Wright (7), Muffett (9) and Smith. Loser—Jones (3-6). HR—Green.

Bucs 5, Braves 1

Bob Friend limited the Milwaukee Braves to five hits while leading the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5-1 decision in a game called during the eighth inning because of rain.
The Pirates helped Friend to his eighth victory when they rocked Gene Conley for three runs in the first inning on a walk, singles by Dick Groat and Ted Kluszewski and Frank Thomas' triple. The loss dropped the Braves into second place, a full game behind the Giants.
Milwaukee 010 000 0—1-5
Pittsburgh 500 100 1—5-11
Conley, Towbridge (2), Johnson (5) and Grandall, Friend (8-3) and Hall, Loser-Conley (0-3). (1st game)

Reds 2, Phillies 1

Cincinnati beat Philadelphia, 2-1, in the first of two games and then struggled to an 11-1 tie in the nightcap which was suspended in the ninth inning because of Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew law.
Bob Purkey out-pitched Jack Sanford for his sixth win in the opener. The only run he allowed was Solly Hemus' homer in the third inning. The Redlegs scored a run off Sanford in the second inning and what proved the winning run in the third on a double by George Crowe and Don Hook's single.
Cincinnati 011 000 000—2-9
Philadelphia 001 000 001—1-8
Purkey (6-1) and Burgess, Sanford (4-5) and Lopata, HR-Hemus. (2nd game, tie, suspended after 8 innings by curfew)
Cincinnati 500 005 01—11-12

Yanks 10, Sox 4

The New York Yankees maintained their 6½ game lead in the American League by bouncing the Boston Red Sox, 10-4, Bob Turley struck out 10 batters and allowed only five hits in registering his eighth victory. Andy Carey led the Yanks' 15-hit attack with five hits, including a pair of homers and a double.
New York 012 110 022—10-15
Boston 003 010 000—4-5
Turley (8-1) and Berra, Baumann, Wall (4), Fornieles (8) and Berberet, Loser-Wall (3-4). HR-Carey.

A's 6, Indians 2

The Kansas City Athletics hammered Cal McLish for five runs in the first inning and went on to defeat the Cleveland Indians, 6-2, on Ray Herbert's six-hit pitching.
Cleveland 000 000 200—2-6
Kansas City 501 000 000—6-8
McLish (2), Kelly (5), Lemon (6), Mossi (7) and Nixon, Herbert (1-0) and Chit, Loser-McLish (2-2).
Chicago at Detroit, p.p.d., rain

Nats 5, Orioles 2

Washington shoved Baltimore back into the cellar with a 5-2 decision over the Orioles.
Washington 010 031 000—5-7

Vets Facing Maple Leafs

By United Press International
Old-timers are leading the way as the Toronto Maple Leafs battle back into first-place contention in the International League.
Archie Wilson and Rocky Nelson were the hitting stars Sunday as the Leafs pounded the Buffalo Bisons twice, 6-5 and 11-6, to climb within 4½ games of first-place Montreal. Wilson, a 32-year-old outfielder, hit his fifth homer of the season in the ninth inning of the opener for the decisive tally while 33-year-old Nelson slugged two three-run homers in the nightcap to increase his league-leading total to 20.
In other action, Miami whipped Havana twice, 6-1 and 4-2, the second contest being won by the oldest of all ball players, Satchel Paige; Richmond took Columbus in the opener, 5-2, with the Jets winning the second, 4-1, behind the one-hit seven-inning pitching of Joe Gibbon; and Montreal won a single contest at Rochester, 7-4.

Floyd Gets 'Word' From Boxing Brass

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cus D'Amato, manager of heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, today challenged the World Boxing Committee's fight-or-forfeit order.
D'Amato threatened court action if the committee attempted to vacate Patterson's crown.
At its final meeting in Paris Sunday, the committee ordered Patterson to defend against a recognized challenger before Sept. 30 or forfeit the title.
The committee's four challengers are: Eddie Machon of San Francisco; Zora Foley of Chandler, Ariz.; Willie Pasirano of Miami Beach; and Roy Harris of Cut and Shoot, Tex.

When a world title becomes vacant, an elimination tournament usually is ordered, to produce a new champion.

Patterson, 23, hasn't defended in more than nine months; not since last Aug. 22 when he knocked out amateur Pete Rade-macher in the sixth round. World committee rules forbid more than six-month lapse between defenses by a champion.
But angry D'Amato declared, "The world committee rules about six-month defense and about defending against committee challengers seem to apply only to Patterson—not to other champions."
"If there's a law for Patterson, there should be a law for all," D'Amato charged.
The four men named as challengers were "some of the fighters who blacklisted Patterson last summer when we needed a challenger."
He promised that Patterson will defend this summer, possibly three times, "but not against fighters whose managers have tried to cut out throats—tried to connive with the International Boxing Club—against us."

Suggs Sweeps Golf Open

GATLINBURG, Tenn. (UPI)—Veteran Louise Suggs won the second annual Gatlinburg Open with a brilliant display of steadiness down the stretch Sunday despite alternate heat, high winds and light rain.
Miss Suggs led the lead for the first time in the three-day 54-hole tournament on the 10th hole, a narrow strip of fairway surrounded by trees and dubbed the "howling alley," when she took a double bogey seven.
But fellow Georgian Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, who took the lead, could not hold it. She faltered badly on the last eight holes with double bogeys on the 12th and 14th.
Miss Suggs, meanwhile stuck to her usual steady game and stayed with regulation figures to finish with 71-75-76—222. Miss Faulk, who collected $641.25 of the prize money, was second with 75-73-76—224.

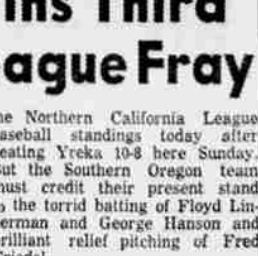

Americans In British Play

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI)—Eleven Americans, led by a leathery Air Force master sergeant from Pennsylvania, launched their bids for the British Amateur golf championship today over the tortuous "old course" at St. Andrews.
Harold B. Ridgley of Haver-town, Pa., who developed a large following in last year's tournament when he went all the way to the final before bowing to Reid Jack of Scotland, headed the U.S. delegation—the smallest since World War II.

2,118 Mix For Berths In National

By United Press International
A total of 2,118 golfers—amateurs and professionals—were bucking long odds today as they scrambled for the remaining 144 berths in the National Open golf championship.

Those who survive the 36-hole qualifying tests at 28 scattered sites will join the starting field for the 1958 championship that begins at the Southern Hills Country Club, Tulsa, Okla., June 12-15.

The largest sectional field turned out at Detroit, with 175 vying for 29 places. Most of the touring professionals who competed in the Western Open during the week end were in the Detroit lineup, including Doug Sanders, Western winner; Gary Player; Arnold Palmer; Doug Ford; Tommy Bolt; Paul Harney and Mike Souchak.

Defending champion Dick May-er topped a group of 17 players who were exempt from qualifying for this year's open. Others included former titleholders Cary Middlecoff, Jack Fleck, Ed Fur-gol and Ben Hogan, amateur champion Hillman Robbins Jr. and P.G.A. champion Lionel Hebert.

Townies, Merrill Win Basin Games

The Chiloquin Townies and Merrill picked up first day wins in the Klamath Basin Baseball League opener Sunday afternoon.
The Townies whipped their cross-town rivals the Chiloquin Kubs 13-4, while Beatty fell to Merrill 7-2. No report was received from the Malin-Alturas game at Al-turas, Lakeview, the league's seventh team, was idle.
Chuck Ruff and Dick Souers shared the pitching duty for Chiloquin and limited the Kubs to four scattered hits. Benny Moore paced the hitters in the Beatty-Merrill game as the Beatty infielder had a two-for-three afternoon at the plate, one a double.

SHIPS' LAUNDRY

HOBOKEN, N. J. (AP)—Oil tankers can now be cleaned in 24 hours without a 100-mile trek to open sea, thanks to a new "laundry" service instituted at the Bethlehem Steel Company shipyards here. Previously, the ships had to steam to a safe dumping ground in open waters. Now, the ship's ballast is pumped to a special receptacle ashore while workmen peel scale off the vessel's inside walls.

orioles Fine, Bench Billy Loes For 'Beef'

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Erratic Billy Loes probably has pitched his last game for the Baltimore Orioles.
Still steaming over a $100 fine and an indefinite suspension meted out by Oriole Manager Paul Richards, Loes said today he is "going to see the commissioner."
Loes' troubles all came about during the fifth inning of Sunday's game he was pitching against Washington.
With Ken Aspromonte on third and Lulo Becquer on first, Camilo Pascual hit back to Loes, who tried to tag Aspromonte in a rundown. Aspromonte slid headlong into the plate and when Umpire Larry Napp called him safe, Loes went wild.
He shoved Napp twice in uncontrolled anger, then threw the ball against the plate and also hurled his cap and glove away. Becquer came all the way around as the ball rolled to the backstop and Washington went on to win, 5-2.
The 28-year-old ex-Dodger pitcher immediately was ejected from the game and Richards announced the fine and suspension afterward.
Asked point-blank whether Loes was through with the Orioles, Richards said:
"I've put up with quite a lot from him. He is fined $100 and suspended indefinitely. Beyond that I have nothing to say."

Oregon St. Inks Colorado Teams

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Four future-season football games with Colorado schools have been scheduled by Oregon State College, whose athletic director says it is lining up gridiron opponents seven years ahead.
OSC will meet the University of Denver at Denver Nov. 18, 1961, and at Corvallis Nov. 17, 1962. The University of Colorado and OSC will play in Portland Sept. 28, 1963, and in Boulder Sept. 26, 1964, win, 5-2.
Roy Keene, OSC athletic director, said Saturday the school now has contracted for 10 games each season for the next seven years.
