Chicago Stopped By Ford

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Jack Harshman, Baltimore's big left-hander, is the only pitcher in the American League with six consecutive complete games at the moment—yet he's lost four in a row, half of 'em because of unearned runs.

You'd think he'd break curfew, or push an ump or something.

The corseted soxwapper has a bad back who won his first five decisions, was knocked off again last night at Washington when the Senators scored an unearned run in the 10th for a 2-1 decision. That dropped Harshman's record to 5-4 and plunked the Orioles back into the cellar while the Senators tied idle Detroit for sixth.

A southpaw with a streak also figured in the only other American League game scheduled last night, with Whitey Ford tying an AL record with six consecutive strikeouts while winning his fifth straight and his first shutout in two years as the New York Yankees defeated the Chicago White Sox 3-0.

It was the third straight success for the Yanks, upping their lead to seven games over Kansas City, while dumping the Sox to fourth and extending their scoreless-inning string to 22.

Cincinnati whipped Pittsburgh 8-2 in the only National League game scheduled.

Nats 2, Orioles 1
 Roy Sievers, cracking Goose Goslin's all-time Washington home run record of 127, tagged Harshman for his eighth homer of the season in the fourth.

Harshman gave up seven hits and walked three while striking out 11 for a total of 50, just three shy of league leader Bob Turley of New York.

 Three home runs, two by Hank Bauer and the other by Mickey Mantle, gave Ford all the edge he needed while winning his fourth in a row from the White Sox since last July. Whitey gave up seven hits, walked four and struck out 10 for a 6-2 record with his first shutout since May 23, 1956.

Ford's six consecutive strikeouts matched the AL record set in 1913 by Buck O'Brien of Boston. The record had been matched six times since, with Ford the last to do it previously—against Kansas City, July 20, 1956.

The modern major league record is eight, by Max Surkont of the Milwaukee Braves against Cincinnati, May 25, 1953.

Jessup Leads Chemult Shoot
 CHEMULT — Richard Jessup was high over-all marksman at the meeting of the Chemult Rod and Gun Club, held Sunday, June 1, at the grounds at Beaver Marsh.

Also earning prizes in the merchandise shoot were Verne Brader, George Epperson, Lyle Anderson, Danny Sorenson, Cecil Palmer, Jessup and John Herman. The club's next outing is scheduled for 1 p.m. June 15.

To Be, Or Not To Be Voters To Answer Bums
 LOS ANGELES (AP)—It's up to Los Angeles voters today to call the Dodgers safe or out at Chavez Ravine.

The situation has Dodge boss Walter O'Malley more concerned, for once, about ballot boxes than the pitcher's box.

The fate of Proposition B in today's election will determine whether O'Malley goes ahead with his plans for a dream stadium in the weed-grown, somewhat hilly site only a mile from Civic Center.

A yes vote on the proposition means approval of O'Malley's contract with the city. A no vote means, at best, that O'Malley will have to renegotiate if he wants Chavez Ravine.

The referendum concerns the contract whereby the city agreed to trade 300 acres in the ravine for Wrigley Field, Dodger-owned former Coast League ball park.

Under the contract, O'Malley would build his own 12-million-dollar stadium and also finance construction of a half-million-dollar recreation center in the ravine.

The deal was attractive enough to lure the Brooklynite to Angel-town at no little relocation expense. It appealed also to a majority of the City Council. They approved it 10-4.

But a backwash of opposition developed, some of it on the council, and it gained momentum. So much so that petitions for the referendum got enough signatures to qualify for the ballot.

A chief opponent of the contract has been Councilman John C. Holland, who represents one of the

Good Golfing With Good

By Clark Good, Reames Golf Pro

The Reames golfers kept in stride with golfers throughout the state as the tournament program from club level to state level started rolling in earnest.

Reames men and women are now completing their Spring Handicap Tournament. In the men's President Cup play you can take your pick of the following matches to select the eventual winner, as the winners of the flights play off to determine the cup winner.

Any one of these players is capable of going on through undefeatable.

In the Ladies Spring Handicap Dean Marks plays Mary Drew with the winner meeting Donna Sprout; Marge Robin plays Carol Egge with the winner meeting Leah Maskell.

Friday afternoon Dick Marks and Carol Egge edged out a good field of contestants to take the low gross honors in our first mixed two-ball foursome. Paul Angstead and Claire Ellis tied with Bill Grove and May Good for the low net. The next mixed two-ball is scheduled for Sunday, June 8th at 3 p.m. Clyde Ritter is shaping up plans for some evening two-ball matches for this month.

Track Stars Will Tangle In Big Meet

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A galaxy of track stars featuring Glenn Davis, the world record equaler in the 440-yard dash, and the Bob Morrow-powered sprint combinations of Abilene Christian College will line up Saturday in the annual Meet of Champions.

Athletes from six major conferences and 28 states are entered in the meet, sponsored by the University of Houston.

The Abilene Christian 440-yard relay team that bettered the world's record with 39.7 at the California Relays Saturday faces strong opposition from the University of Houston, which will bring three brilliant freshmen up to the varsity and run as the Houston Track and Field Club.

Morrow did 9.4 at Modesto in returning to the form that made him 1956 sprint champion of the Olympic Games. He is entered in both the 100 and 220.

Stan Levenson, Houston freshman who has done 20.5, will contest Morrow in the 220, while in the 100 the Abilene Christian star will get competition from Dee Givens of Oklahoma, Illinois' Bob Mitchell, the Big Ten sprint king, and M o r r o ' s teammate Bill Woodhouse, who has beaten him twice this season.

Each of the 17 events is crowded with champions, including Oklahoma's brilliant miler Gail Hodgson of South Africa, Southern Methodist's high jumper Don Stewart, who has leaped 6-10 1/2, and distance ace Jerry Smart of Houston.

Davis, who recently tied the world's record in the 440 at 45.8, gets competition from George Keer of Illinois, who pushed him to the greatest time, DeLoss Dodds of Kansas State, Oklahoma's Gary Parr and Southern Methodist's John Emmett.

BIG DAILY DOUBLE
 DETROIT (UPI)—A $2,788.40 daily double—the third largest of the year, was returned at Detroit Monday with Teacher's Tu winning the first race at $20.40 and Dan Pat the second at $182.60. The big double was topped by a $3,613 payoff at Oakland Park on March 18 and a $3,613 return at March 18 on May 2.

Reames Juniors are reminded of swing sessions to be held Thursday, June 5, at 1:30 regularly scheduled times. There will also be an important business meeting following the swing sessions.

Yours for Good golfing.

Dodgers Eye Vote, Redleg '9'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The folks in Los Angeles went to the polls today to decide whether the City Council made a fair deal with Dodger owner Walter O'Malley. If yes, things look good for O'Malley in his pursuit of a legitimate ball yard in the Chavez Ravine. If no, then the Dodgers don't have land for a park and National League President Warren Giles has to decide whether to go through with his threat to hasten the Dodgers out of Los Angeles.

Meanwhile, back at the pennant race, the Dodgers were far back. Ten games, to be exact, but they got a big boost in morale—and ball box hopes—when some 7,500 fans showed up to welcome them back from an 8-9 swing through the East.

Tonight in Los Angeles, the Cincinnati Redlegs make their first appearance in the Coliseum. At San Francisco, the first place Giants put their one-game lead on the line in the first West Coast appearance of the season by the world champion Milwaukee Braves.

Only one game was scheduled in the NL yesterday, and the Redlegs took it 8-2 from Pittsburgh.

Holland Set For British Amateur Play
 ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI)—Tim Holland of Rockville Centre, N.Y., the pre-tournament sensation, started "playing for keeps" today in the British Amateur golf championship.

The lanky, 27-year-old sales manager, who drew a first round by, led nine other American survivors into second round action on the "old course," which already has claimed one-third of the U.S. contingent.

Gene Andrews, of Pacific Palisades, Calif., the first American to tee off Monday, retained that honor again today. He and Reg Taylor of South Africa started their second round battle.

Brig. Gen. Keith Compton of St. Louis, who also drew a bye in the opening round, made his tournament bow against Tom Worthington.

Andrews scored the most impressive triumph among the U.S. invaders in the opening round by whipping Dr. James Hastings of Scotland, 8 and 7. Harold B. Ridgley, of Haverford, Pa., who developed a large following in his surprise march to the final last year, dropped a 4-3 decision to 17-year-old Bob Vervey of South Africa, who gave the Air Force master sergeant a lesson in daredevil putting.

Striking in 20 and 30 foot putts with such force they smacked the back of the cup and rattled about like dice, Vervey used only 22 putts for the 15 holes he needed to eliminate the popular Yank serviceman.

In addition to Ridgley, Ed Meister of Cleveland, Ohio, former pro basketball star, Dr. Ernie Vandeweyer of New York, Jim Law of Harper Wood, Mich., and Dr. Monroe Jones of Dothan, Ala., failed to survive the opening round.

Reds 8, Bucs 2
 Joe Nuxhall was practically the whole show for the Redlegs as they slipped past the Chicago Cubs into fourth place. The 29-year-old lefty blanked the Pirates on four hits until the ninth, struck out eight, walked none and drove in two runs, scored two with three hits and a fly ball.

Don Hoak homered, Johnny Temple tripled and Steve Bilko and Nuxhall doubled in the Redlegs' 10-hit attack against starter-loser R. G. Smith and a pair of relievers. Nuxhall, now 2-2, lost his shutout bid with two out in the ninth when Frank Thomas swatted his second double, scoring Bob Skinner and Ted Kluszewski, who had singled. Smith is 0-2.

Indians Sign OS Baseballer
 PORTLAND (AP)—First baseman Gene Bates of Oregon State College has been signed to a bonus contract with the Cleveland Indians, the organization's North-west scout, Carl Mays, announced Monday.

Mays refused to disclose the exact amount involved but said it was "more money than any other player ever received from this area."

Jerry Zimmerman, a Milwaukee high school catcher, received $77,000 from the Boston Red Sox in 1952.

Bates, who hit .330 and batted in 25 runs for the Northern Division PCC champion this season, will be assigned to a minor league team after working out with the Indians in Cleveland.

Merrill Huskies Bow To Adrian

The Merrill Huskies saw their hopes for a State B school baseball championship tumble as Adrian beat them, 3-1, in the semifinals on the Merrill diamond Monday.

Although the Huskies hit their eastern Oregon opponents 8 - 4, Adrian's pitcher Hatch, backed by nearly perfect fielding on the part of his teammates, spaced the Merrill blows so as to allow them only one run in the third frame, while collecting four strikeouts over the seven-inning route.

Losing hurler, Dennis Salvadori, gave up only three hits but walked four men to allow all three of the Adrian runs in the first two innings, before being replaced in the fourth by John Haskins. Haskins held the Adrian nine to one run and issued only one free pass for the three remaining stanzas, but the damage was already done.

The Huskies counted their only run after two were out in the home half of the third as Butch Johnson rapped out a single, then advanced on a followup one-baser by Duane Raines which was coupled with an error on the part of Adrian shortstop Sillonia. Johnson scored when first-sacker Doug Everton lashed forth with a single. The rally died when John Haskins was forced at third.

Hatch was instrumental in winning his own ball game when he garnered the longest hit of the day, a triple in the first inning. His big blow allowed centerfielder Hartley, who had gotten aboard via a walk to score after stealing second. In the second inning Adrian counted its other two tallies off a combination of two walks, a single by Hartley and a double by catcher Sayres.

The win over the Huskies moves Adrian into a final berth for the state title against their last year's nemesis, Gaston. Gaston whipped Camas Valley by a count of 3-1 for their right to the playoff.

In 1957 Gaston turned back the Adrian club for the state title. Grant of Portland and David Douglas are slated for semifinal action Tuesday in the State A1 bracket as are Lincoln and South Eugene.

Class A2 action Tuesday will see Central of Monmouth - Independence clashing with Wy'East for the right to meet Myrtle Creek for the state A2 crown.

Youths Watched In Open

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The U. S. Open Golf Championship is no kiddie car tournament, but four youngsters who bear watching will tee off with some of the deadliest sharpshooters in the game when the event opens at Tulsa, June 12.

None of the four has much of a chance of winning this year. All lack tournament experience. But in years to come they could become the new Sam Sneads and Ben Hogans.

Here they are:
 Jack Nicklaus, an 18-year-old freshman at Ohio State, led the qualifiers at Cincinnati by firing a 66-70-136 over two courses yesterday.

Deane Beman, a 20-year-old swinger from Bethesda, Md., fired a 75-71-146 to tie John O'Donnell for the top spot among the Baltimore qualifiers. A sophomore at the University of Maryland, he already has played in two Opens and last year's National Amateur.

Gene Francis, also 20, had a 73-69-142 to deadlock professional Bernie Riviere for the No. 1 position at Glen Cove, N. Y. Francis is the star of the Purdue University team.

Jim Tom Blair III, who led the qualifiers at Kansas City with a 72-69-141, carries an illustrious name into the tournament. He is the son of Gov. James Blair of Missouri.

In addition to the four amateurs, a young professional, Bobby Goetz, nested the lowest score of the nation's qualifiers with a 67-67-134 at Tulsa. Goetz, captain of the Oklahoma State U. golf team last year, turned pro only a few months ago.

They were the best of the new prospects among the 144 golfers who qualified at 28 sites around the country. Seventeen players were exempt from qualifying and one, Ted Makalena, qualified at Honolulu last week.

A flock of the big names will be among those missing at tee-off time, having failed to make the grade. Among them were two former Open champions—Sam Parks Jr., the 1935 winner, and Tony Manero, the 1936 victor.

The other three ex-champions who had to go through the preliminaries did make it. They included Gene Sarazen, 1922 and 1932 winner; Lee Worsham, who came out on top in 1947; and Lloyd Mangrum, who triumphed in 1946.

Struck down in qualifying efforts were Walker Cupper Bill Campbell, ex-U. S. amateur champion Willie Turnesa, former Masters and PGA king Jackie Burke, ex-British amateur titleholder Joe Conrad, Dow Finsterwald, George Bayer and Ted Kroll.

Shidler Lab Wins At Reno
 RENO, Nev. (AP)—Butch's Bitterroot Smokey, owned by Joe Albertson of Boise, Idaho, won the open all-age stake Sunday as the Sierra Nevada Retriever Club wound up its three day field dog trials.

Winner of the open amateur all-age stake was Hal's Spivize Zoke, owned by Hal Shidler of Klamath Falls, Ore. The dog also won the reserve award in the open all-age event.

On the second day of trials, Ace of Balboa, owned by Jack Gardner of Burlingame, Calif., captured the qualifying stake, while Medlin's Texas Right, belonging to C. A. Fisher of Hillsborough, Calif., won the derby stake.

The A.K.C. licensed trials, held at nearby Fort Churchill game ranch, attracted 125 entries from Western states.
