

NEW FLAVOR from Green Goddess
 for CUCUMBER CRISP GREEN VEGETABLE SALADS

GREEN GODDESS DRESSING is new for this year's good eating pleasure. Nalley's, Inc., makers of the new dressing, suggest its being kept under refrigeration. It increases the life of the produce and improves any salad to have it reach the table chilled. During hot summer days, serve salads on plates or bowls which have been refrigerated, too.

NEW DRESSING FROM NALLEY'S

Two new products from Nalley's, Inc., are in the refrigerated cases at your grocer's. Shown here is the Green Goddess Dressing. The other is Nalley's new Horseradish Sauce. Nalley's suggests the following gelatin salad, using the new Green Goddess dressing.

GREEN GODDESS SALAD

- 1 package lime flavored gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- 2 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup Nalley's Green Goddess Dressing
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- Dash of salt

1 pound raw spinach
 1 small head lettuce
 1 small head romaine
 1 small cucumber, sliced
 3 green onions, chopped

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add cold water, Nalley's Green Goddess Dressing, vinegar and salt. Stir until well blended. Chill until slightly thick. Whip until fluffy. Chill until firm. Break spinach, lettuce, and romaine into bowl. Add cucumber and onions. Toss lightly with enough Green Goddess Dressing to moisten salad and place in serving bowl. Cut gelatin in 1-inch cubes and heap in center of salad. Makes six to eight servings.

SHRIMP & CABBAGE SALAD

- 1/2 cup Nalley's Green Goddess Dressing
- 1 7-ounce can shrimp or 1/2 pound fresh shrimp

1/2 head cabbage, shredded
 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento

with Nalley's Bleu Cheese Dressing. Serve it on asparagus and egg salad, with pickles beet-egg-and-greens salads, green beans, lettuce and tomato.

BORDER CLASH

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said Wednesday six Indians were shot dead and others kidnaped Tuesday in a clash with Pakistan forces on the Punjab border. Nehru accused Pakistan of "utterly uncivilized and barbarous behavior" and claimed the attack on India's western border was unprovoked. His voice trembling with anger, the prime minister told a news conference India will demand compensation for deaths and damage.

EAT PRUNES LIKE CANDY

Goody Good brand of Santa Clara Prunes are on the market in pound cellophane bags and are the yummiest confection you ever tasted. The Home Style Prunes are rich in fruit sugars and delicious flavor and they are packed by a new method which makes them plump and moist and just right for eating as they come from the bag. The packaging method retains the moisture of the prunes without breaking down the delicate fruit tissues. For picnic sandwiches (or for lunch at home) combine chopped prunes, pitted right out of the bag, with peanut butter or chopped nuts, or cheese.

For salads, stuff the pitted prunes with cream cheese or cottage cheese and serve with pineapple chunks and strawberries. Top with a dollop of sour cream if you like. The Santa Clara Prunes packed under the Goody Good label are grown and packed in California and distributed by the California Packing Corporation whose head office is in San Francisco. At snack time when the children come in from play, give them a big glass of milk and the sweet Goody Good Prunes to eat with their fingers.

LAUGHS FOR BEA

NEW YORK (UPI)—Her furs were regal and her entrance was stately when Beatrice Lillie swept onto the stage in an early scene of her debut as "Auntie Mame" on Broadway. Then she removed her hat, and off bounced her wig. She got such a laugh that the producers want her to keep it in the show.
