Alva Oldham Residence Is Scene Of Nuptial Rites

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva P. Oldham, 1720 Eldorado Boulevard, was the setting for the recent wedding of their daughter Margaret to James R. Morley, Dr. S. Dallas McNeil of Klamath Falls Methodist Church officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

For the wedding ceremony in front of the living room fireplace, the bride chose a pink color theme and pink prevailed in the dining room where the reception was held immediately after the ceremony. Bouquets of chrysanthemums, stock and pink carnations decorated the room and lighted pink candles banked with pink carnations and white stock were used in the mantle arrangement.

The couple exchanged their marriage vows in the presence of immediate family and close relatives. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. R. Morley, formerly of Albany, now living in Klamath Falls.

After graduating from Albany High School, Jim attended Oregon State College for three years. Margaret was graduated from Fresno High School.

For her wedding she wore a sheath type dress of pink lace with a matching taffeta cummerbund and bouffant back drape. Her small pink taffeta hat was made with a wattleau brim of veiling and her shoulder corsage was a pink and lavender orchid.

The bride's only attendant, Mrs. Joel V. Morley, wore a powder blue silk suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Joel V. Morley was best man for his brother.

For her daughter's home wedding, Mrs. Oldham wore an aqua frock with white accessories and a white corsage. Mrs. Morley wore a rose beige silk suit with white accessories. Her flowers were pink.

From out of town were the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson, Carson City, Nevada; the bridegroom's brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Crawford and daughter Christine, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Geybeck, Red Bluff and JoAnne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Morley.

The couple left immediately after the reception for their honeymoon in Las Vegas and central California. They will live in Klamath Falls where Margaret is employed at the Pacific Tel and Tel office and Jim is an employee of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Nada Lou Derry Is Bride Of Robert J. Scofield

MALIN — Malin Presbyterian Church was the setting for the May 24 wedding of Nada Lou Derry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Derry of Malin, and Robert J. Scofield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Scofield, of Fontana, California.

The Rev. Arthur Johnson of Tulelake Presbyterian Church officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony before a background of white gladioli, white snapdragons, red roses and lighted tapers in floor candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white ballerina length gown of silk chiffon lined with taffeta. The bodice was designed with an empire waistline, Sabrina neckline, bordered by a band of re-embroidered lace, and three-quarter length sleeves.

Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place by crown-type headpiece with seed pearl trim, and her wedding bouquet was of red roses accented with white satin ribbon.

All the bride's attendants were her sisters. Mrs. Ralph (Betty) Womack was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard (Patty) Schmidt and Donna Derry. They wore sheath dresses of white, cotton-satin embroidered in blue, designed with a Sabrina neckline, small white hats and white gloves. The matron of honor carried a nosegay of pink carnations and red roses, and the bridesmaids nosegays were of red carnations and pink roses.

Debra Schmidt, the bride's niece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schmidt of Bonanza, wore a white nylon dress, trimmed in blue, and a white carnation headband.

Best man was Orville Looper of Redding, California, and ushers were Philip Wickham of Galice, Oregon and Jerry Derry, brother of the bride. The ushers were also

Housewarming

WEED—Mrs. Ralph Santini was honored last week with a housewarming party at her new apartment-home on the South Highway. A group of friends called and surprised her with a large leaf plant as a house gift.

Prizes were awarded for games played during the evening and refreshments were served.

THE BRIDE AND BRIDESMAIDS ARE ALL SISTERS — and the flower girl, Debra Schmidt is the daughter of Patty (Mrs. Howard) Schmidt, bridesmaid, far left.

The bride was Nada Lou Derry before her marriage to Robert J. Scofield on May 24. Next to her is Betty (Mrs. Ralph) Womack, matron of honor; and at the right, Donna Derry, bridesmaid.

All are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Derry, Malin. The afternoon wedding was in Malin Presbyterian Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Scofield, Fontana, California.

the candlelighters. Mrs. J. A. Bunnell, organist, played the traditional wedding marches.

For the important occasion the bride's mother chose a pastel blue faille sheath dress with matching jacket. She wore white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Scofield wore a navy blue silk shantung dress with navy blue and white accessories and her corsage was of white roses.

For the honeymoon trip to southern points the attractive bride wore a beige silk sheath dress and jacket. Her picture hat was orange ice, and her shoes and purse of benedictine brown. Nada is a 1954 graduate of Malin High School and was graduated from Providence School of Nursing in Portland in 1957. Robert is a graduate of Oregon State College and is at present employed at the Galice, Oregon, Ranger Station, where they will live.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church social room. Mrs. Howery Roberts of Bonanza and Mrs. Ray Marchant of Galice served the beautifully decorated cake which had been made by the bride's sister, Mrs. Howard Schmidt.

At the punch bowl was Mrs. Garry Freitag, and Mrs. Cal Gross served coffee. Beverly Scott carried the guest book, and at the gift table were Marjorie Dwyer and Mrs. William Zavrnsnick of Portland. Assisting with the flowers was Mary Ann Eveys.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Orville Looper of Redding; Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss Swanson of Brookings, Oregon; Mrs. Margaret Manson of Wichita, Kansas; Mrs. Terry Baker, the bridegroom's aunt of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. William Marchant and family of the Galice Ranger Station; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wussaw of Kennewick, Washington.

From Roseburg were Mrs. Edward Geary, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherlock, Mr. and Mrs. Spah Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brosi, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker and Mrs. Edward Arata, Mr. and Mrs. William Zavrnsnick, Marjorie Dwyer and Beverly Scott; from Cave Junction: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Allen and family and Patrick McGillicuddy; from Grants Pass: Jim Lefler, Mike Lehman; and from Butte Falls, Montana: Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Arents.
