

LINDA SUE . . . with eyes of blue . . . the bluest, clearest, sparkling blue eyes ever looked into. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hannon, 2430 Orchard Way, and has been their daughter since May 29, 1956, the day she was born.

That date this year, called for a family get-together at the Hannon's to celebrate her second birthday anniversary.

Present were, maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey T. Hayden; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fawar, all of Klamath Falls; great-grandmothers, Mrs. Gretta Hayden, Long Beach; Mrs. Anne Burns, this city; her uncle Terry Hannon, (who was home from University of Oregon — where he was elected senator at large in the recent student association election); her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Rose; and two cousins, Judith and Bruce Rose, also of this city.

FARON SNELL, handsome young man from Shasta, California, is the 19-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Snell, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Hellekson, Langell Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Crume, Sprague River. The future looks bright for Faron's vacations — with a choice of valley or river setting.

HAPPY dark-eyed Vaughn Wilson Ramsey is the 6-month-old second son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Ramsey, 1001 Prescott Street. Vaughn has a 2-year old brother, Virgil, to play with. Grandparents of the boys are Mrs. Doris Pahl of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ramsey of Keno. John S. Martinson, Klamath Falls, is the proud great grandfather.

RFG Public Installation Of Assembly 57 Officers

Donna Lee Carter was installed as worthy adviser of Assembly No. 57, Rainbow for Girls, during a public installation ceremony in Scottish Rite Temple on Sunday, May 18, at 2:30 p.m. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Carter.

For her term theme, Donna chose "Keys to Happiness," and the cover design for programs was a gold key centered on an aqua background.

Each line officer carried a white Bible topped with an aqua corsage; other officers carried white keys—each with the color of the bearer's station.

The welcoming address, given by Ernest Wallin, preceded the entrance of mother adviser, Mrs. Helen Rightmiser; and installing officers, Sue Lund, installing worthy adviser; Mary Kay Krueger, installing recorder; Emilee Ann Carter, installing chaplain; and Sandy Stone, installing marshal. The installing chaplain, Donna's sister, is a post worthy adviser of Klamath Falls assembly, and she came from San Francisco to assist Sue Lund with Donna's installation.

Mrs. Lois Murphy, pianist, played "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" as officers formed the symbolic cross at the altar; and "I Believe," during the crowning ceremony. Kay Detroit, pianist for the closing, played "The Lord's Prayer."

Other officers installed for the new term were Kay Detroit, worthy associate adviser; Lynn Fristoe, charity; Gayle Osborn, hope; Mary Ott, faith; Susan Boyd, recorder; Judy Rogers, treasurer; Shirley Leppert, chaplain; Janet Phillips, drill leader; Carol Tucker, love; Opal Morgan, religion; Dede Brown, nature; Marilyn Hubbard, immortality; Karen Goen, fidelity; Linda McCarty, patriotism; Kayleen Johnson, service; Myrtle Harrison, confidential observer; Linda Dean, outer observer; Judy Tucker, musician; and Lee Ann Weber, choir director.

Members of Klamath Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Hugh Swaney, Bob Harris, Shocky Hungate, Bob Ellingson, Richard Peppers, and Greg Elliott officiated at the crowning ceremony which followed the installation of officers.

Donna introduced her parents and sister, Emilee and presented her mother and father with her Bible and flowers.

Refreshments followed the ceremony.

NAIL POLISH

The peeling manicure is one that's far worse than no manicure at all. Yet, it happens to all of us at some time. For lack of attention, a coat of polish can start looking tacky in the middle of the week.

The truth is that it's impossible to have a manicure and then forget it. If you like to wear nail polish (and who doesn't?), you must be prepared to give it attention every evening. It's a process that doesn't take long but it makes all the difference to a glossy manicure.

It involves giving your nails a coat of clear, colorless sealer every single evening. Actually, this is something you can do while you're reading or watching TV. It doesn't take long to dry and it does provide the necessary protection.

LAKEVIEW

COTTONWOOD CAMP

On Sunday, May 25, members of the Cottonwood Camp Committee met at the home of Mrs. Erna Clause for a regular business meeting, and also to bid farewell to Mrs. Ruth DeWitz, Girl Scout representative on the committee, who is moving soon to Pomeroy, Washington, where her husband has been transferred by the U.S. Forest Service.

The group was served an outdoor barbecue lunch and viewed pictures of the Hawaiian trip taken earlier this year by Mrs. Clause and Mrs. Maude Bennett.

Prominent in the pictures were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hansen, former Lakeview residents, now stationed at Oahu, but who will return to the mainland this month for the wedding of their son, Lee Jr. The Hansens will be houseguests of Mrs. Clause for about three days and during that time she has arranged an open house for them. Further details on definite plans will be announced later.

Mrs. DeWitz was presented with a gift by the members as a token of appreciation for her active service on the committee board.

Coffee And Shower

LANGELL VALLEY — A few friends and relatives called at the Lloyd Gift home in Upper Langell Valley on May 29 for a morning coffee hour and surprise baby shower honoring Mrs. Mickey O'Keefe visiting here from her home at Summer Lake.

Present were Mrs. Lula Penner, Mrs. Jack Lynch, Mrs. George Fernlund, Mrs. Orval DeVaul, Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mrs. Luther Noble, Miss Margaret Colwell and Mrs. Gift.
