TV NOTES

NEW YORK (UPI) — CBS will offer four new live night - time programs during the summer. The first, "Sing Along," started June 4, and will be on each Wednesday from 7:30 to 8 p.m. "Keep Talking," a new panel show with Monty Hall as master of ceremonies, starts June 27; 10:30 to 11 p.m. Fridays. A one-hour version of the network's five-a-week day series, "The Verdict Is Yours," will bow July 3; 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursdays. A new quiz series called "Number, Please" is slated for the 8:30-9 p.m. slot Tuesdays, beginning July 22.

ABC is preparing a new series of special, hour-long public affairs reports for next season. They will be in the pattern of "Prologue 1958" and "Report Card 1958" shown this season. The first of the new series will be "Youth Anonymous," dealing with teenagers and discipline problems.

A new ABC program set to begin July 11 is "ESP," the initials standing for extra sensory perception. It will be seen Fridays from 9 to 9:30 p.m. Participants, screened by psychologists, will compete with each other for cash awards in a series of unusual experiments to determine which has the highest degree of this so-called sixth sense. Home viewers also get a chance to play for prizes.

"The Great Gatsby," the F. Scott Fitzgerald novel, will be presented June 16 on "Playhouse 90." It will be recalled that a previous live dramatization of the work was offered about three seasons back by Robert Montgomery on his NBC series. Montgomery also played the title role.
