

Tea Sparks Social Calendar

MRS. RALPH W. STEARNS AND MRS. VICTOR E. O'NEILL, left, were hostesses at a large and delightful late afternoon tea on May 28 in the Pelican Party Room. In the receiving line with Mrs. O'Neill and Mrs. Stearns, but not pictured, was Mrs. Stearns' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns Jr.

Background decor and the tea and punch tables featured huge peonies in distinctive arrangements. The deep rose tones were effective splashes of color against glossy leaves shining in the glow of candlelight.

At the punch bowl were Mrs. Rodney L. Bell, Mrs. Rodney Murray, Mrs. John F. Moehl, Mrs. Buford Hargus, Mrs. Frederick B. Ehlers and Mrs. Russell Smith.

Assisting during the 3 to 6 p.m. tea hours were Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. George A. Myers, Mrs. L. B. Bartholomew, Mrs. Howard R. Perrin and Mrs. Stephen Sabo.

Karen Totton Weds Reno Man In KF Sacred Heart Church

MR. AND MRS. EDWIN MARVIN RANDALL are pictured top left as they stood in front of the huge stone fireplace during the reception at the home of Mrs. Elmer Balsiger on Watson Drive. Father of the bride, John David (Dave) Totton, top center, gives last-minute refresher course on proper timing to junior bridesmaids, Michael Ann Totton, center; and Marilyn Randall. He's saying—"Remember—Keep in step!" Michael is sister of the bride; and Marilyn is the bridegroom's sister. At the right, Marty Conlin escorts the bride's mother into the church. — All Randall-Totton Photos by Guderian
