Tebbets Sees Full Flag Race

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The National League pennant race is such a wide open affair that all eight teams are in contention for the flag, a jubilant Birdie Tebbets of the Cincinnati Redlegs proclaimed Monday. "We're up in third place, now," said Birdie after watching his team take three out of four from the league leading San Francisco Giants. "We've won seven of our last nine games. Our boys are playing well. "We have the best second base combination in the league in Roy McMillan at short and Johnny Temple at second. We are getting good pitching, fine fielding and timely hitting. "Our hitting didn't click at first, but now we seem to be getting the safe blows when they count. We have a fine first base combination. We can use Steve Bilko against left-handers. George Crowe against right-handers. And they both hit well this way." It was Bilko who smashed a two-run homer to provide the cushion in yesterday's 3-0 victory. He clouted the ball into the left field pavilion off lefty Johnny Antonelli on a 3-0 pitch. "I'd have had my man swinging on the same pitch," said manager Bill Rigney of the Giants in backing up Tebbets' strategy. "Bob Purkey pitched the shutout against the Giants." "He's a fine hurler," said Tebbets. "He has good control and knows what he is doing. He won three from the Giants last year and went 23 innings without allowing them a run. And he starts off with nine more scoreless innings this year. "But we'll need all that kind of pitching we can get and we'll need a lot of good hitting. Every team in this league has a chance to win the pennant—and that includes Los Angeles. The Dodgers are coming back fast. And by the last of the season, you watch and see they'll be right there. "These Giants that we beat this series are a real solid ball club—and so are the rest of the clubs in the league."

Dodgers Can Leave Last Place Tonight

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—Pat McMurtry of Tacoma scored his 28th professional victory Monday night with a seventh round technical knockout over Henry Hall of Milwaukee. Hall, 190, failed to answer the bell for the seventh round after a blistering body attack sent him to his corner in the sixth. His manager, Eddie Metrie, said later the altitude had affected Hall. The 196-pounder from Tacoma died plenty of damage with his fast, close-in hitting, particularly in the fifth and sixth rounds. Preliminary results: Jimmy Zale, 130, Portland, stopped Harold Nelson, 135, 4. Bob McKinney, 173, Tacoma, decked Phil Farren, 190, Crow Reservation, Mont. 1. Joe Tompey, 161, Seattle, knocked out Allen Burton, 162, Billings, 2.

Middlecoff Hopes For US Open Rains

By OSCAR FRALEY TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—Dr. Cary Middlecoff was praying for rain today. When they start the coveted U.S. Open golf championship at Southern Hills country club on Thursday the slender, nervous-mannered dentist will be one of the top favorites. But even though he is rested and refreshed, the two-time winner isn't looking forward to four rounds in promised near-100-degree heat. "I'd like to see some rain or at least hope it stays windy," he said as he arrived to tune up for the big one. "I'm not good in the heat and without offering any alibi, that's what beat me last year."

The 6-2 Middlecoff gave it a game effort when they went at it at Toledo last year. He stroked home a curling 10-foot birdie putt on the 72nd and final hole which tied Dick Mayer, then virtually an unknown, for the championship. But in the playoff the next day, Middlecoff was murdered as he posted a 79 against Mayer's 72.

OUT OF GAS "I was 15 pounds underweight at the time," he grins now. "I was like a horse which runs a mile and a quarter and then drops dead. I didn't, have the gas for that playoff 18 holes." But the 37-year-old Middlecoff, as in fine physical condition as he ever has been, has high hopes—if the heat doesn't wear him out again in those two final rounds on suspenseful Saturday.

"I played in only four tournaments all winter—from the time the Open until the Masters," he says. "I devoted most of my time to my new job at the Diplomat Club in Hollywood, Fla. and I have worked hard on my game in the last couple of months to get ready for this one. I'm driving better than ever and everything seems to be fitting together nicely."

LIKES IMPROVEMENT Buck White, the veteran Mississippi pro who is one of Cary's aides in Florida, professes awe at the improvement in Middlecoff's game. "He's hitting the ball a ton, a long ton," Buck says vehemently in the lingo of the pros, which translated means that Middlecoff is hitting the ball far, straight and handsome. "He'll outdrive Snead most of the time."
