ANY SUNDAY can be Fathers Day with a rich chocolate-pecan pie baked especially for him. Top the pie with whipped cream, decorated with semi-sweet chocolate morsels and you have a dessert fit for a king.

PECAN PIE

Most men love chocolate and even the men who claim to never eat desserts will usually fall for a pie baked especially for them.

Don't make the man in your life wait for Fathers Day for special dishes he likes to eat. Pamper him all year around and one good way to say what a swell guy you think he is every day is to cook things he likes to eat. Here we suggest Chocolate Chip Pecan Pie and it is shown decorated in honor of Fathers Day.

CHOCOLATE CHIP PECAN PIE

3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 1/2 cups corn syrup

1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup pecan halves
1 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips
1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell
1/2 cup whipping cream

Combine eggs, corn syrup, salt, vanilla and sugar; mix well. Then stir in pecans and chocolate chips. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 55 to 60 minutes, or until filling is set. Cool. Whip cream and mound in center of pie in heart shape. Form the word "Dad" on cream with semi-sweet chocolate chips, if desired.

GRANDMA'S COOKIES are good. The cellophane bags bearing the Grandma Cookie Company label are selected by youngsters and adults alike because everybody enjoys that home-made flavor. Quality has been emphasized since the first Grandma's cookie went onto the market in 1914. Ralph Wittenberg, manager of the immaculate modern bakery at 1806 North Williams Street in Portland, invites those interested in seeing how cookies are made to phone the Grandma Company to make arrangements for a tour of the bakery.

Grandma's Cookies

Cookies mix or match these days and they go with any meal. Top off Sunday breakfast with a big plate of cookies to go with that last glass of milk. Serve them with that mug of milk (for June Dairy Month) for the TV snack or when the youngsters come in from play. There just isn't anything better than a good cookie with ice cream, too.

We stacked up a whole plate of cookies to show about a dozen of the more than 40 varieties of Grandma's Cookies that are available at your grocers. There are Butter Milk Cookies, Chocolate Eclairs, Date-Filled Oatmeal, Dutch Almond, Date-Filled Sugar, Old-fashioned Oatmeal, Old-fashioned Sugar, Honey Fruit, Iced Scotties, Home Made Raisin and several assortments that are packaged in pound cellophane bags so everyone can have his choice.

Grandma's Cookies have been distributed in this area for the last year by Dick Bowers, Post Office Box 414, Klamath Falls. He delivers them fresh to your grocer and regular deliveries insure your getting fresh cookies when you buy Grandma's.

When you buy Grandma's Cookies, you see what you are getting and you have a wide variety (both in type of cookie and price) from which to choose.

The big cookie plant in Portland, using the most modern methods and equipment and the highest quality ingredients, can mix up to 1,800 pounds of cookie dough at one time. The cookies are baked in a 120-foot modern electric oven and carried on a wide conveyor to the packaging machine where the freshly-made cookies go into cellophane to keep them fresh and good-tasting to the last crumb. Grandma's Cookies have been made since 1914. A lot of little girls and boys today are eating the same kinds of cookies their mothers ate when they were little girls—Grandma's Cookies.

GRADUATES — Degrees will be conferred by the University of Oregon Dental School on 75 men in graduation ceremonies Thursday.

HINTS

KITCHEN THRIFT

If you have a large family, you may find it economical to buy fruit juices in the 46-ounce (six cup) size can. Also, remember to buy plenty of milk for everybody to have seconds.

WESTERN FLAVOR

Add a half dozen juniper berries to the pan when you are roasting lamb, then baste the lamb with the drippings the berries have flavored.

TIME SAVER

If you are planning macaroni and cheese for dinner, cook the macaroni while you do the breakfast dishes and let it blanch in cold water until ready to drain and add it to sauce for the evening meal. You'll have whiter, fluffier macaroni.

FAB

WITH DURATEX

Washes Clothes CLEANER, WHITER, BRIGHTER more lastingly Odor Free

AND WONDERFUL FOR DISHES

FAB — new, improved FAB — is out in a new package and the new formula has Duratex added to eliminate bacteria and make your laundries more lastingly odor free.

FAB

New, improved FAB with Duratex gets clothes an entirely new kind of clean.

FAB is recommended for heavy or light laundry, for woolsens, nylon, Dacron, Orlon, cottons and silks. Use it also on pots and pans and for floors.

The Colgate-Palmolive Company product is the big seller in the line and the giant size shown here outsells the regular size by many times, according to Dick Penne- man of Medford, Southern Oregon sales representative for the company.

Penneman has arranged complete distribution in this area and was in Klamath Falls last week to assist with displays.

Duratex is a "miracle blend" of three wonder-working ingredients. It prevents the dirt washed out of your clothes from redepositing on them in the wash water so there are no unsightly gray spots when you take out your clean laundry. It assures you a brighter wash and at the same time it deodorizes your clothes and keeps them odor-free longer because it has eliminated the bacteria which causes odors to collect and cling.

Don't use too much FAB. Follow the simple directions on the package. Colgate - Palmolive Company pretested the product thoroughly before it ever went on the market and best results are obtained by following the company's instructions concerning its use.

The giant size package contains three pounds, one and one-quarter ounces. When purchasing detergents and washing compounds of any kind, read the words on the package. Then follow the directions when you have it home and use it.
