

Duren Fails In Yank Loss; Cardinals Humble Braves

The game isn't over and there are still more marbles left in the pot, but at this turn the University of Oregon and Washington State College are racing neck and neck in the basketball recruiting program. WSC and Oregon have already picked off some of Oregon's top prospects and are bidding high for others.

At Eugene, Oregon coach Steve Belko has lured the "bonus" pick of the Pacific Northwest, Klamath Falls own Glenn Moore and another all-stater from here, Dave Robinson. In addition to the two Klamath boys, Belko also has two all-staters coming from Grant High's runnerup team — Bill Wallin and Jim Sandness.

From Pullman and the Washington State College campus comes recent word that another Grant all-stater selection Bill McKenzie will enroll at the Cougar school next fall. Several Oregon (state not school) sports fans thought McKenzie was a cinch to announce the U of O as his choice, but inside information has it that family reasons entered into Bill's final decision.

Another report that drifted from Pullman this past week must have drawn a few chuckles when the following was released by the Associated Press:

"John Lillibrige, a 6-foot-6-inch basketball player from Burke, S.D., has an aunt here and he and his parents arrived last week for a visit.

"Washington State College reported this social item Wednesday and coach Marv Harshman added that the big youngster has decided to enroll at WSC in the fall and play freshman basketball."

It may or may not be fishy, but one thing is for sure: Harshman is doing what he said he would do when he took over the job vacated by Jack Friel at the close of the recent season. That was: "To see that Washington State's recruiting program got a revising and a little effort put forth to entice top athletes (basketball players) to come to Washington State."

The next big announcement as to school selection is expected to come from Eugene. Not the University, but from the home of two-time all-state Charlie Warren, who is expected to make his decision before long. Warren, probably one of the greatest offensive prep basketball stars to come out of the state, could very possibly wind up at Oregon with Moore, Robinson and the others. That is our own thought and nothing official.

Oregon Tech's coaching staff is doing its share of helping Eastside Electric's Babe Ruth League baseball team along the road to success.

Wally Palmberg, OTI basketball coach, has young son Wally Jr. pitching and playing infield for the Eastside club. Athletic director and football coach Rex Hunsaker has young son, Kent, pitching and playing the outfield.

Both the boys have hung up pitching victories and have added a home run to their credit so far this year.

Palmberg Sr. by the way is the assistant coach.

Although this is baseball season and not much being done about football, Hunsaker has been busy working out preliminary plans for what might be the finest football program in the history of Oregon Tech.

The Owls face a giant nine game schedule, which includes three service teams bolstered by the talent of professional, semi-pro and leading big time college stars. To meet this type of opposition, OTI must field a good ball club itself, and Hunsaker has hopes things will take a turn for the better at the Mile High Campus.

Hunsaker has most of last year's starters back again and has received assurance from between 10 and 15 leading junior college boys they will transfer here this fall. Among these Jaycee transfers will

Sunday's Schedule
Klamath Falls at Scott Valley

Dunsmuir at Mount Shasta

Manager Irv Whit's league-leading Klamath Falls Cubs will near full strength Sunday afternoon as they travel to Scott Valley for a Northern California League baseball game. Game time is 2:30, Pacific Daylight Time.

The Klamath - Scott Valley game is one of three Northern Cal games on tap this afternoon. Other action will find Weed and Yreka fighting to keep a hold of third place. Both teams are 2-2 and need a win to keep them in contention. The third NCL fray pits Dunsmuir at Mount Shasta as the latter seeks to hold on to its second place position and possibly move into first place should the Cubs be upset by Scott Valley.

The Cubs should be stronger Sunday than any part of the season so far. Whit reports that all hands with the exception of third baseman Mike McKenzie will be on deck for action including Donn Taucher who will be reporting for the first time. Taucher has been playing baseball at the University of Oregon — except for the time he took part in the Ducks' spring football practice — and has been named start in center field against Scott Valley. Donn was one of the big guns of the Cubs' hitting attack last year and will probably add more punch to the anemic Klamath hitting lineup.

Whitt said he wasn't sure as to who will throw Sunday's game. It will be either Dave D'Olive (6-1) or Charlie Beagle (3-0). Bob Kelly will be behind the plate with George Hanson at first base. Jerry Burke will start at shortstop with Clyde Mahaffey at second. Scott Hartley will replace McKenzie at third base again this week.

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Bowling leaped a Ryne Duren fast ball into center for a two-run single with jaxo out in the ninth Saturday as Detroit rallied for a 5-4 victory over the New York Yankees.

The Yankees took the lead 4-3 on Yogi Berra's three-run homer in the eighth, then watched Duren — their rookie relief ace — blow one for the first time since the opening week of the season.

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs used two new pitchers, starter Johnny Briggs and Bill Henry, who worked in relief, on Cincinnati Saturday and their combined efforts turned back the Redlegs, 4-3, before a Ladies' Day turnout of 22,552.

Briggs, who exited in the fifth after the Redlegs rose to a 3-3 tie, yielded five hits. The 30-year-old left-handed Henry gave up only two in the final four and two-thirds innings to gain his first National League triumph.

Briggs was recalled from Fort Worth of the Texas League this week. Henry was purchased from Portland of the Pacific Coast League.

Victim of the Cubs' 10 hit offensive was Bob Purkey, an eight-time winner who suffered his second loss. Purkey also had a five game winning streak snapped.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ken Boyer and Gene Green slammed consecutive fourth-inning home runs off Milwaukee's Warren Spahn Saturday for a 2-1 St. Louis victory over the league leaders.

Larry Jackson, now 5-2, outlasted the veteran Spahn in a pitching duel. Spahn came away with his third loss against eight victories.

The Cardinals, who had loaded the bases in the second inning without scoring, went to work on Spahn in a hurry in the fourth.

Kubs Face Challenge From Cellar-Dweller

McKenzie will be gone from the Cubs lineup for two weeks while he attends the National Guard summer camp.

In the Klamath outfield, Floyd Linderman, the team's leading hitter, batting .318, will be in left. Fran Miller, veteran semi-pro outfielder will be flanking Taucher and his big bat is expected to help revive the Cubs in their bid to retain the league lead.

Whitt announced late this week that he had signed two new prospects to play with the Cubs this summer. The two, shortstop Durman "Dorm" Martin and pitcher Wayne Hironaka, will not be eligible to play Sunday since league rules force teams to carry a ball player one full week before his first game.

Both Martin and Hironaka are students at Fresno State where they started on the school's baseball team. Martin, eyed by a major league team especially Cleveland and Pittsburgh, led his team in all batting departments including an average of .397. He is expected to fill the club's much-needed hole at shortstop, plus give the team added hitting power.

Hironaka, a Japanese pitcher, comes here very highly regarded and should bolster the Klamath mound crew.

Klamath, Medford Clash In Opener

The Southern Oregon Junior League Baseball League opens its 1958 season Sunday afternoon at Gem Stadium as Klamath Falls' legion plays host to the tough Crater Lake Motors team from Medford in a doubleheader.

The first game is billed for 1 o'clock.

Manager Hi Hatfield's Klamath Falls club goes into its first league battle with a 1-4 record after bowing 11-7 in 11 innings to the Chiloquin Cubs of the Klamath Basin Independent League Friday night at Gem Stadium.

Medford, always boasting a top-notch legion team, will have Terry Barr and big Lowell Dean to lead their assault against Hatfield's club. Barr will probably start the first game on the mound for Medford, while the visitors will be counting on the big bat of Dean, their first baseman. Both boys starred on Medford's high school team.

Hatfield will have righthander Blake Griggs on the mound for Klamath in the first game, which counts in the league standings. The second game, a five-inning affair, will not count and is an exhibition game for both teams. The second game pitching chores will probably go to either Dean Dunson or Pat Salvadori with Paul Bishop ready for relief work.

Other starters for Klamath will be Rich Moore behind the plate catching, Dunson at first if he doesn't pitch, Smiley Herrera at second, Steve Hines at short and Eslin Kiger at third. In the outfield, Bob Yuncik, Bill Worlein and Glenn Michaels will probably see action. Griggs will probably play in the outfield in the second game.

Friday night the Chiloquin Cubs surprised the local legion club by pushing the game into extra innings then winning it with a four-run rally in the 11th inning. Klamath had the game won until the Cubs stormed the walls for a three-run rally in the top of the seventh, the last of the regulation innings, to tie the count.

Manny Ochoa led Chiloquin's come-from-behind win with a sixth inning, three-run home run then singled home two of the Cubs' seventh inning scores to send the game into overtime. The two teams battled on even terms until the top of the 11th when Klamath starter Keith Farrell, who pitched masterful ball for 10 innings, began to weaken.

In the top half of the 11th, Munson Sandoval led off with a walk, Johnny Ochoa singled and Jackie Gibbons drove out another single to load the bases. Farrell got Manny Ochoa on strikes and forced Jerry Collins to pop out to shortstop Steve Binney as it looked like Klamath might get out of the jam.

With two strikes on him, Jackie Barney lashed out with a single for two runs and Don Wilson followed with a walk. Ron Hoggarth singled to right field scoring Barney and Gibbons. Wilson tried to score from first base on the play, but a fine throw from Bill Worlein to catcher Rich Moore cut him down at the plate.

Klamath tried to come back in the bottom of the 11th when Binney walked with one out. But he was forced on Dean Dunson's fielder's choice grounder to short. Eslin Kiger walked putting runners on first and second, but Moore grounded into a force out as third baseman Sandoval grabbed the ball on the first bounce and tagged Dunson on his way to third.

Question Mark Enters Cup Race

COEUR D'ALENE (AP) — Miss Question Mark, owned by Lyle Parks of Seattle, Saturday became the 10th unlimited hydroplane to officially enter the Jeddah Cup race, to be run here June 28-29.

Duane Hagadone, vice commodore for the race, said he expected at least two or three Detroit boats to enter. The number will probably depend on the condition of hulls after Saturday's Detroit Memorial Regatta.

Better Baseball Deal

ARDMORE, Okla. (AP) — Bob Fraley said he kept wondering why no one brought back any baseballs from the park during sandlot games. He was offering 10 cents to the kids who returned them. Then Fraley learned that the home town pro team was offering 25 cents apiece and the kids were taking them over to its park.

Delaney, Davis Star As NCAA Marks Fall

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Ohio State's versatile speedster Glenn Davis cracked the world record in the 400-yard dash and Irish star Ron Delaney of Villanova scored a smashing double in the 880 and mile Saturday at the 37th annual NCAA track and field meet.

Six of the 14 NCAA meet records fell.

Davis also holds the world record for the 400-meter hurdles, set at 49.5 in Los Angeles, July 29, 1956.

Alex Henderson of Arizona State College at Tempe, a student from Sydney, Australia, bettered his own American two mile record and the NCAA mark with 8 minutes, 46.3 seconds. His old mark was 8:47.9 and the former NCAA record, by Deacon Jones of Iowa, was 8:57.6.

Davis, who won the Olympic 400-meter hurdles, flashed ahead of Eddie Southern of Texas to win the quarter-mile in 45.7 seconds, one-tenth better than the world mark set by Jim Lea of the Air Force in 1956 and tied by Davis in the Big Ten meet this spring.

Ireland's Delaney, who won the Olympic 1500-meter gold medal, scored brilliant come-from-behind mile he set a new NCAA record of 4:03.3, bettering the 4:03.7 by Wes Santee of Kansas in 1953.

An hour later he surged from last in a field of nine half-milers to win in 1:48.5.

The crowd of 15,000 at the University of California's Edwards Field saw NCAA standards lowered in the 220-yard dash around a turn, the 220-yard low hurdles around a turn and the javelin throw. Sunny weather with little wind prevailed.

Ed Collymore, Villanova, took the 220 in 20.7, a tenth faster than the NCAA record established Friday by Ohio University's Les Carney, who didn't place Saturday.

Charlie Tidwell of Kansas toured the low hurdles in 22.7, the fastest time ever registered for the race around a curve. It broke the old NCAA record of 23 flat by Harrison Dillard of Baldwin-Wallace in 1946.

John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran College at Tacoma, Wash., bettered his javelin record of 248 feet, 1 inch, as he won with 257-1.

Southern California, a banned from last year's meet because of illegal aid to athletes penalties, came back to capture its 20th team title.

The Tojans compiled 48 6-7 points to 40 1/2 for runnerup Kansas and 33 1/2 for defending champion Villanova. San Jose State had 20 3-7, Winston-Salem Teachers 20, Illinois 17 1/2 and Ohio State 17.
