

The Nautical Touch

by Allyn Rice

SEA SCOUT or landlubber, your vacation clothes should be shipshape and comfortable. A practical wardrobe is lightweight, crisp, and easily cared for—qualities which give you the most wearing enjoyment. Simply styled, these holiday fashions pass inspection on every count and are fun to wear.

Simply classic is Evan Picone's ensemble of Dacron-cotton slacks ($13), and shirt with matching trim ($10).

On land or sea, Phil Rose's skin-tight cotton knit short shorts ($5), and Ilene Ricky's chemise top of boldly printed sailcloth ($8) make vacation sense.

To and fro or for casual dress-up, Tailored Junior's Dacron-cotton "sailor suit" is a basic. The bloused-back chemise top goes over a taper-thin skirt ($20).
