The Klamath Falls Kubs managed to split even in baseball action over the weekend, winning a Northern California League game Sunday to maintain their league lead after dropping a non-league game Saturday night to Camp White's semi-pro club.

Sunday at Fort Jones, manager Irv Whitt's club edged Scott Valley 5-4 to keep a half-game lead in the Northern California League standings ahead of Mount Shasta. Saturday night at Gem Stadium, the Kubs bowed to Camp White 8-6.

Both Klamath and Mount Shasta won Sunday to keep the race tight. Mount Shasta stopped Dunsmuir 7-3. In the other league game yesterday, Yreka handed Weed its third defeat of the season, 10-8.

Dave D'Olivo, the big Southern Oregon College basketball and baseball star, just missed picking up a shutout triumph over Scott Valley Stars yesterday, but also came close to losing the game. D'Olivo blanked the Stars on four hits over the first eight innings until a grand-slam home run in the bottom of the ninth ruined his bid for a shutout.

Scott Valley loaded the bases with none out on two singles and a walk. Pitcher-first baseman Bob Martin lashed one of D'Olivo's offerings out of the park scoring all of the Stars runs in a bunch. Scott Valley pushed another runner as far as third base before D'Olivo got the final two outs on an infield grounder and pop up.

Klamath's scoring was scattered out—one in the first, two in the third and one more in each of the fourth and seventh innings as three Scott Valley hurlers took turns on the mound.

The eventual winning run came in the top of the seventh when Whitt led off with a triple. He scored on Jerry Burke's single to left center. Whitt had a perfect day at the plate, picking up five hits in as many trips, plus driving in two of Klamath's runs.

Saturday night at Gem Stadium, the Kubs faced the fastballing Don Sanford, former University of Oregon hurler who set them down with 10 scattered hits while striking out 13. The game was a battle of speedballers in first five innings as Klamath had lefty Rod McPhail on the hill. McPhail set eight Camp White hitters down on strikes in the time he worked. Wayne Hironaka, the little Japanese southpaw who just joined the team late last week, worked the final four innings in relief and gave up only one run.

Klamath opened the game in their half of the first by scoring three runs on a single by Scott Hartley, Fran Miller's triple, Dorm Martin's double and an error. But that was all for the Kubs until they reached Sanford for two more tallies in the fifth inning, but by this time they were trailing 7-5.

Camp White put together two big innings to clinch the game. A four-run second inning and a three-run fifth gave the visitors the nod. Their final score came in the ninth.

The Kubs countered once in the ninth on Harley's double and an error, but fell short by two runs.

Harley and firstbaseman George Hanson led Klamath's hitting in a losing cause. Harley blasted out four hits in five times at bat while Hanson collected three-for-four, two going for doubles.

In other Northern Cal action Sunday, Yreka and Mount Shasta had fairly easy times in posting their victories.

Mount Shasta spotted Dunsmuir a 3-2 lead in the first inning but came back to move ahead 5-3 after two innings. Another two-run output in the fifth "iced" the game for the hosts. Dunsmuir's Gary Hisey homered with one runner on in the ninth inning, but failed to touch second base and the two runds didn't count. Rick Palfini had two hits for Mount Shasta, one a double.

Blake Griggs Tosses Klamath To Loop Win

Klamath Falls' American Legion Junior Baseball team opened their league season on a victorious note Sunday afternoon at Gem Stadium by sweeping the first game — the counting one — of a double-header from Medford's Crater Lake Motors ball club.

Righhander Blake Griggs tossed the local legion club to a 7-2 triumph in the seven-inning opener. In the nightcap, a kings-x battle, Medford came back behind the two-hit pitching of southpaw Herb Wheeler to win 4-2.

The win gave Klamath a 1-0 reading in Southern Oregon Junior Legion League competition and was the second of the season against five setbacks — including the second Sunday game.

Manager Hi Hatfield's locals had to come from behind in the first game after Medford moved ahead 2-0 in the top of the third. And behind its ace righthander Dennis Barr, the Crater Lake Motors club looked real tough with those two runs.

But in the Klamath half of the fourth, three runs crossed home plate and Medford trailed the rest of the way. Bill Worlein led off with a triple. Dean Dunson drew a walk and Worlein scored on an infield out. A single by Rich Moore and an error allowing Bob Yunck life at first allowed both Dunson and Moore to come home as Klamath was leading 3-2.

Another three-run surge came to life for Klamath in the fifth inning. Smiley Herrera scored the first run after being safe on a fielder's choice. Worlein singled over second and Dunson added his part with a one-base rap to right field. Estin Kiger cleared the bases with a triple, but was left stranded when the Klamath rally died.

Griggs was in trouble only once—the third inning when Medford scored both its runs. Four hits including back-to-back doubles by Rod Thompson and Dick Konopakok sparked the Medford scoring. Blake struckout 11 Medford batters and scattered eight hits over the seven innings.

In the nightcap, Wheeler, who finished out the first game in relief of starter Barr, gave Klamath only two hits, singles by Paul Bishop and Herrera. Klamath pitcher Dean Dunson issued only four hits, but walks and an untimely error gave the Crater Lake Motors team enough to win with.

Three runs in the third and the fourth in the fifth by Medford offset Klamath's two-run third inning. Herrera's single and an error allowed the local legion club its two runs.
