LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers came up with a major deal only 62 minutes before the deadline on the West Coast when they sent pitcher Don Newcombe to the Cincinnati Redlegs for first baseman Steve Bilko, pitcher Johnny Klippstein and cash.

Newcombe, a 27-game winner in 1956 hadn't won a single game this year for the Dodgers.

Reports that Newcombe was trade bait had recurred frequently since the Dodgers picked up and moved to the West Coast.

As part of the deal, Cincinnati optioned pitcher Charlie Rabe to the Dodgers' Montreal club of the International League.

Pitcher Don Bessen was placed on Los Angeles' disabled list at the same time. He has a sore arm.

In other trades which included reshuffling of 19 players before the trading deadline, the Yankees acquired Duke Maas and veteran right-hander Virgil Trucks from the Athletics for reliever Bob Grim and first baseman-outfielder Harry (Suicase) Simpson.

American League observers generally agreed that the Yankees strengthened their bullpen appreciably with the addition of Maas, a 10-game winner with Detroit

Look out, they warned rookie Wilson were singles and he issued no walks. Since both runners were cut down on the bases, the much-travelled Wilson faced only the minimum 27 batters. A solo homer by Jim Landis and a two-run blast by Jim Rivera gave him all the runs he needed. Sherman Lollar supplied Donovan's chief support in the nightcap by driving in three runs with a bases-loaded double.

Tigers 2-3, NY 0-0

That's merely the first time that the Yankees were shut out twice in one day in 11 years — since the A's did it on Memorial Day, 1947. They were blanked only twice all last season.

The Yankees still lead the league by a comfortable seven games, but it's plain that they would be out of sight altogether if it weren't for the Tigers.

Pitcher Frank Lary, who finds the mighty Yankees usually just a bunch of pastripped pushovers, tied up the league leaders on just four hits in the opening game. Jim Bunning followed right up in the nightcap with a five-hitter, fanning eight batters.

Chief victims of the double humiliation were the ace Yankee righthanders, Don Larsen and Bob Turley.
