

Knowland To Continue His Fight For Right-To-Work

SAN JOSE (UPI)—Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) pledged himself to continue sponsoring right to work legislation in his campaign for governor of California.

Knowland made his pledge Sunday after a two-day meeting of his campaign leaders and GOP party officials trying to assess the results of the June 3 primary election.

In that election, Knowland won the Republican nomination for governor. Attorney General Edmund G. Brown won the Democratic nomination.

However, Brown led Knowland in popular vote totals by more than 600,000. Most other major Republican candidates trailed Democratic opponents.

Knowland, promising a "rugged, hard-hitting" campaign declared he would not "stultify" himself by retreating on the labor reform issues he espoused during the primary campaign.

"I'm not backing away from these issues and I don't intend to stop discussing them," he said.

"There has been a lot of misunderstanding and misinterpretation of them."

However, he said that if a right to work initiative gets on the November ballot and loses, he would not recommend that the Legislature take action.

Knowland also promised that he would raise the question of Brown's qualifications for the governorship and criticize his administration of the attorney general's office.

"I shall discuss whether the people of California have the right to raise the question of the increase in crime, whether the attorney general has carried out his duties and whether it was necessary to bring an importation from New York," Knowland said.

He was referring to Alvin Goldstein, who recently became Brown's special crime assistant.

Knowland also said he plans no major reorganization of his primary campaign organization. He said he has not made up his mind whether to appoint a successor to GOP National Committeeman Edward S. Shattuck, Los Angeles, who resigned last week as statewide co-ordinator of the Knowland campaign.

Cancellation Of TV Show Brings Roar

NEW YORK (UPI)—Charges of censorship were exchanged today between the American Broadcasting Company and The Fund For The Republic over ABC's cancellation of a television interview with Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

The network Sunday night cancelled a filmed television show in which Lodge, interviewed by Mike Wallace, said the U.S. should give up the idea of being popular abroad and concentrate instead on achieving international respect.

John Daly, ABC vice president in charge of news and public affairs, said the program was cancelled because Lodge insisted on deletions which would have constituted "editorial censorship."

Robert M. Hutchins, president of the Fund For The Republic, which co-sponsors the "Survival and Freedom" series in which Lodge was to have appeared, in turn called the cancellation "arbitrary" and an "experiment in censorship."

He also accused the network of violating an agreement which, he said, permitted guests on the show to make deletions in advance of the show's presentation on Sunday nights.

"Upon reading over the transcript," Hutchins said, "Mr. Lodge felt there were certain statements he did not wish to make publicly at this time. In view of our understanding with him and the nature of the program, we did not feel that we—ABC—should attempt to compel him to say things he did not wish to say."

Grand Jury Sworn In

A new grand jury was sworn in this morning in Klamath County Circuit Court with Judge David R. Vandenberg presiding.

The seven new grand jurors are Nora Cashman, foreman, Swan O. Nelson, Alice T. Abbott, Stuart R. Balsiger, Nel W. Kenney, Edward Downing and James W. Humphrey.

They were sworn in by Charles DeLap, county clerk, who drew their names by lot from a metal box. There were 23 names to select from.

The grand jury's purpose is to investigate criminal matters and to indict where the evidence warrants.

Judge Vandenberg outlined the importance of serving on the grand jury to the body.

District Attorney Arthur Beddoe said he intends to present five separate criminal matters to the grand jury immediately. They could or could not result in indictments.

Girls Injured In Accident

MONTAGUE—A Jeep and automobile accident Sunday in Montague caused injuries to two young girls, Shirley Allen, 12, and Virginia Hartwell, 14, were thrown from the back seat of the jeep after it was struck by a car driven by Frank C. Hall, Montague.

Both of the girls are in the Siskiyou General Hospital at Yreka with reported major injuries according to the Klamath State Highway Patrol.

It is reported that Hall was driving out of the Montague Drive in Grocery, at Airport and Little Shasta roads, and hit the jeep, driven by Earl Allen, Yreka, as it was going east, around 6:45 p.m.

Allen's wife and son, Vaughn, were in the front seat of the jeep, but the only injuries reported were to the two girls.

Girl Rider Suffers Hurt

MONTAGUE — The holiday atmosphere of the Montague Junior Rodeo and Barbecue was marred yesterday by a Montague girl being thrown from a Brahma bull, Shirley Hessig, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Hessig of the Double-Heart Ranch at Beswick, about 40 miles north of Yreka, was injured when the bull she was attempting to ride threw her.

Shirley received two cracked ribs, a brain concussion and a possible skull fracture. She is in the Siskiyou County General Hospital in Yreka.

She graduated with the 1952 class of Yreka High School and was a princess in the 1957 Klamath Basin Roundup.

The approximately 3,000 spectators at the Montague Junior Rodeo saw 13-year-old Lee Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Smith of Callahan, emerge as all-around champion Lee received a trophy belt buckle from Gibson Saddlery, Medford. His father, Blair, was radio announcer for the rodeo.

Butch Sawyer, Yreka, was second place winner in the rodeo and Daryl Severns, Montague, third.

There were 150 entries in the junior rodeo, and most of the young contestants gave a professional performance in the arena.

Thieves Grab Medical Dope

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Burglars with a thorough knowledge of narcotics ransacked six doctors' offices in the Medical Arts Building early Sunday.

The burglars took an undetermined amount of drugs, several hypodermic syringes and needles, and some cash.

Then they tied a rubber hose to a radiator in front of a fourth floor window. They lowered themselves down the hose 30 feet to an adjoining rooftop and then climbed down a fire escape to the street.

The burglars apparently hid themselves in the building when it closed for the night Saturday. The day watchman discovered the burglary at 7 a.m. Sunday.

Outlook For Weather Good

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Fair weather should prevail in Northern California at least through Tuesday and probably longer, the weatherman said today.

Forecasts were for continued warm although a flow of cool air from the ocean will bring temperatures down on the central coast, the Weather Bureau said.

San Francisco temperatures dropped today after a warm weekend and the prediction was for fair weather except for high fog with normal summer winds prevailing.

Over the weekend the mercury soared in many parts of the area. Red Bluff recorded 101, Sacramento 100. It was 96 in Marin County, 90 on the San Francisco Peninsula and 85 in the East Bay.

Courtesy Is A Grand Thing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) congratulated his fellow senators Saturday for the care and courtesy they use in debate.

He did so by calling attention to what Australians have been doing. Goldwater said the Aussie House of Representatives recently adopted a new code on debate which will prevent members from calling each other "such names as assassin, cat, blood-drinker, cur, venerable body, snatcher, sewer rat, gas-bag, ignoramus, political Montreal, la dog or slimy reptile."

Police Hold Pair On Theft

Two Los Angeles men are being held by state police on suspicion of truck theft, following the wrecking of a truck on the Greensprings Road early Monday morning.

Police said the truck is the property of the Reter Fruit Company, Medford, and that it was reported stolen by the firm. The vehicle was wrecked on the Greensprings Road near the Penny Springs guard station, and the slightly injured passengers went to the guard station to call an ambulance.

Injured and being held are John Marcos, 26, Hollywood; and James W. Wilson, 25, Los Angeles. Police said they were being treated at the Klamath Valley Hospital, after which they will be booked at the county jail on vagrancy charges.

The men deny having stolen the truck. They contend that they hitchhiked a ride in the vehicle and that the driver disappeared following the accident. The truck went out of control and left the road.

Pedestrian Hit By Car

A 57-year-old Klamath Falls woman was seriously injured Saturday night at East Main and Strickland streets when she was struck down by a car.

The victim, Mrs. J. W. Wright of 2122 Reclamation Street, was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital by ambulance and treated for a broken leg, fractures of both hips and both shoulders as well as internal injuries.

Hospital attendants said this morning Mrs. Wright's condition was satisfactory and she is expected to recover.

Police arrested Eva Peterson, 42, of 3114 Bristol Street, and charged her with driving while intoxicated, failure to yield right of way to a pedestrian and inadequate brakes. She will appear in traffic court Friday.

Investigating officers said Mrs. Wright was in the crosswalk of East Main Street when she was struck by the northbound car at the Eberlein intersection.

Realtors To Hold Classes

A five-day series of educational classes is being sponsored this week by the Klamath Board of Realtors, according to Bruce Owens, president.

Classes will start promptly at 7 p.m. and will be held on June 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20 at the Willard Hotel.

Gordon Burbee, past president of the Eugene Real Estate Board and currently first vice president of the Salem Chapter, Society of Residential Appraisers, will lecture for the first hour each evening. A tentative list of the subjects he will cover include the nature and functions of appraisals, date program, cost approach and depreciation, market and income approach, appraisal report and expert testimony.

Clarence F. Hyde, real estate commissioner for the state, has arranged for other speakers for the series. Each will lecture from 8 to 9 p.m. during the five evenings, following Burbee's talk. All of the speakers have been on educational programs before. Hyde said, Owens will introduce the speakers and act as master of ceremonies for the classes.

Guest lecturers will be Al Horsfield, Portland, president of the Oregon Association of Real Estate Boards, who will speak on "Oregon Looks Ahead"; Margaret Twerdall, national vice president of the Women's Council, whose topic will be "Smile When You Say It"; Earl Briggs, vice president of the Portland Realty Board; "NAREB and You"; George N. Mayer, treasurer of the Oregon Association of Real Estate Boards and John H. Chaney, Medford attorney.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.
