

Idaho Spuds Cause Uproar Down East
 WHITEFIELD, N.H. (AP)—The serving of Idaho potatoes to members of the New England Council—a regional promotional organization Friday—caused an uproar. At least that was what a council spokesman called it.
 Members attending the 131st quarterly meeting, didn't mind the tropical fresh fruit, the French onion soup or Western steer beef—but Idaho potatoes...
 Harry Umphrey, prominent Maine potato grower and secretary of the council, "called down" the 350 at the dinner. He explained that the demand is so great for Aroostook County (Maine) potatoes and the distribution is so widespread that New Englanders occasionally have to accept the Idaho variety.

State GOP Men To Meet Ike
 WASHINGTON (AP)—The 48 Republican state chairmen will have breakfast with President Eisenhower in the Statler Hotel Thursday at 7:45 a.m.
 The GOP National Committee announced Saturday that the state chairmen are coming here for a three-day "campaign school," Wednesday through Friday, similar to one held in 1955. As in 1955, the school will be conducted by Robert Humphreys, GOP national campaign director. It will include sessions on radio-TV, direct mail, design of literature, use of polls, organization methods, and fund-raising.
 Vice President and Mrs. Nixon will receive the visiting chairmen in their home Friday night.
