It was just an old family jinx catching up when Tim Tam hobbled in second with a chipped one in the Belmont Stakes to lose out to the Triple Crown...

Weill Asks For Heavy Fight Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Al Weill, the former New York promoter who managed Rocky Marciano to the heavyweight title, makes his pitch today, against heated local opposition, for permission to stage a title bout between champion Floyd Patterson and Roy Harris, the Texas challenger.

Will get before the California state Athletic Commission to present a formal application for a promoter's license, braving the hard stares of those he calls the "jealous" local promoters.

Will said he will post the required bond for the projected Aug. 4 fight between Patterson and the lad from the Texas town of Culebra and Shred.

Signed contracts of both fighters, he said, will also be deposited with the commission.

Pee-wee Leagues Start Season

The Pee-wee League opened its 1958 softball season at Kiwanis Park Monday night in two games played simultaneously beginning at 6:30.

Fights

NEW YORK — Frankie Ryan, 135½, New York, outpointed Tommy Tibbs, 134½, Boston, 10.

Football's Darkest Hour

Editor's Note: Orin E. (Babe) Hollingberry, football coach at Washington State College from 1926 through 1942 wrote the following story on the impending breakup of the PCC. He typed it out, gave it a title, put on his own "by line" and offered it for publication. Hollingberry, now a Yakima Valley hop grower, had a 93-53-14 football record in 7 years at WSC.

By "BABE" HOLLINGBERRY
YAKIMA (AP) — Yes, football's darkest hour on the Pacific Coast.

Three big California schools couldn't take the pressure of their own rules and regulations so decided to withdraw from one of the oldest and finest conferences in the nation.

It was the case of the boy who couldn't pitch taking the ball home and breaking up the game. They couldn't take it. Making rules and breaking them — then collaring "murder" and refusing to take the consequences is of the American collegiate way? Of course not.

I've always contended the regulations — the ones that are under the table deals, etc. — to fire the ones that are responsible.

Juniors Kick Off Tourney

PORTLAND (AP) — A second day of blistering heat was at hand as medal play began Tuesday in the Oregon Junior Golf Tournament here.

Temperatures that soared to 95 degrees helped choke off par performances for all but one of the meet's 270 young golfers in Monday's qualifying round.

Jim O'Toole, a 16-year-old who helped lead Central Catholic of Portland to the state prep title this spring, shot the only sub-par round—a two-under-par 70.

O'Toole thus became the favorite for the junior crown as defending champion Cliff Lovett of Portland opened with a 74.

The defending girls' titlist, June Robinson of Tillamook, also had trouble with the sun-baked course and shot up to an 87.

Treasure Sullivan, a calm 13-year-old from Ashland, led the qualifiers in the girls' field with a steady 84.

Fred Taylor of Portland won medalist honors in Monday's qualifying round in the boys' division (ages 12-15) when he shot a one-over-par 73.

Ten-year-old Dennis Olson of Ashland led the Pee-wee division with a record 39 for the youngsters 12 years old and under.

The tournament will wind up with championship matches Friday.

Results of yesterday's opening medal play:

JM, Bob's Win LL Contests

Behind a four-hit, 11 strike out pitching job by Larry Binney, Johns-Manville won an 8-4 victory over Car-Ad-Co at Wright Field Monday night as the Little League opened its second week of play.

On Wright Field No. 1, Bob's Union Service blasted Weyerhaeuser-Don's 7-1, as winning hurler Mac Cunningham yielded only two hits and walked none over the six inning rout.

Darkness forced the Johns-Manville-Car-Ad-Co contest halt before the halfway mark of the sixth frame had been reached. In the first half of the sixth with one out, the J-M nine had collected an additional eight runs which were stricken from the board when officials decided against continuing the game for fear of injuring one of the players because of the failing light.

Binney, who walked seven men without severe damage was the winning pitcher while, Car-Ad-Co's loss was charged to Rose, although two more twirlers were called upon to try to stifle the foe.

The three pitchers allowed only eight hits but a total of 6 errors and 11 walks gave the Johns-Manville team all the edge they needed.

Longest hit of the contest was registered by John Jendrzewski, J-M catcher who poled a bases-loaded two-bagger, in the non-counting sixth inning. Binney also had four hits for the winners.

Derby King Under Knife

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Kentucky Derby champion Tim Tam was scheduled to go under the knife today in an operation on his painful leg injury that was seen having about a 50-50 chance of restoring him to racing.

Dr. Jacques Jenny, associate professor at the University of Pennsylvania's school of veterinary medicine who was to head the team conducting the operation, warned that it was difficult to predict the outcome.

However, Dr. Jenny said he had performed similar operations on about 30 horses and that about half of them returned to the track to race again. He said even if the operation is a success, it would be some time before Tim Tam was able to race again.

Tim Tam's injury was diagnosed as a bone chip of the sesamoid bone in an ankle. The injury occurred as he was turning into the home stretch of the Belmont Stakes and cost him his chance at winning the turf's triple crown.

The Calumet Farm colt arrived here Sunday and has been kept quiet to avoid aggravating the injury. He was to be given tranquilizing drugs today as preparation before the administration of anesthesia.

Cardinals Edge Cincinnati Reds

By United Press International
The St. Louis Cardinals may yet catch the Milwaukee Braves but Manager Fred Hutchinson wishes they'd stop trying to do it the hard way.

A 469 pace since May 7 has brought the Cardinals back from their 3-14 start into a tie for the fourth place in the National League. That's the best pace of any NL team over the five-week period but it's been like pulling teeth all the way.

For one thing, the Cardinals' starting pitchers aren't winning. Only one starter has won in the last 10 days and the "big four" of Larry Jackson, Lindy McDaniel, Vinegar Bend Mizell, and Sam Jones show a combined 13-2 record. Only the erratic but surprisingly successful relief work of Morris Martin, Billy Muffet and Phil Paine, 8-2 combined, has saved the staff from buckling altogether.

And, for another, the Cardinals are next-to-last in scoring runs and in hitting homers. Yet the team stands 27-27 for the season with no less than 12 of the victories by one-run margins.

Both games were called in the sixth frame because of a league regulation which provides that the game is over when one team has a 10-run lead after the fifth inning.

In the Eastside-Balsiger clash starting pitchers David Saks, for Eastside and Pat Carney, of Balsigers waged a tight 4-3 duel for the first five innings.

Carney, the loser, fanned nine men and allowed only three hits before losing his control in the fateful sixth inning when a combination of seven walks, four errors and four hits gave Eastside a 10-run parade. Carney worked two-thirds of the inning before being replaced by Mike Stilwell, who was in turn relieved by Gary Bishop.

The Balsiger tallies came as a combination of one-hit, two walks and a pair of errors, one committed by Saks, who threw the ball away trying to catch Pat Carney off third. Kent Hunsaker, Saks' replacement, walked the first four men to face him, scoring another Balsiger run before pitching himself out of the hole. Hunsaker fanned four of the last six men to face him.

Wally Palmberg was the power at the plate for Eastside as he boomed a two-run triple in the third, then returned in the sixth to again clean the basepaths with a sharp rap to roughly the same spot in right field. The hit was scored as a single although Palmberg made a complete round trip scoring two men ahead of him.

An error was charged to right-fielder Larry Wolters who let Palmberg's blow slip through his fingers.

The Fluhrer-Henley Sporting Goods contest followed approximately the same pattern. Henley jumped off to a two run lead in the top of the first as three Fluhrer errors—a walk and a single by Henley's Campbell pushed two men across the plate.

Fluhrer's counted their first tally in the second inning as Taylor, who collected two home runs for his night's work, garnered his first one with none aboard. His second roundtripper came in the fourth stanza when he scored hurler Rhoads ahead of him.

Henley retaliated with two more counters in their half of the fourth. Fluhrer's performed their massacre in the top of the sixth as they counted 15 runs on 12 walks, four hits and one Henley error.

BR League Twin Slate Ends In Routs

A twilight Babe Ruth League doubleheader at Conger Field Monday night saw relatively close ball games turn into routs in the last innings as Eastside Electric blasted Balsigers 14-4, and Fluhrer's bombed Henley Sporting Goods 28-4, in the same fashion.

Both games were called in the sixth frame because of a league regulation which provides that the game is over when one team has a 10-run lead after the fifth inning.

In the Eastside-Balsiger clash starting pitchers David Saks, for Eastside and Pat Carney, of Balsigers waged a tight 4-3 duel for the first five innings.

Carney, the loser, fanned nine men and allowed only three hits before losing his control in the fateful sixth inning when a combination of seven walks, four errors and four hits gave Eastside a 10-run parade. Carney worked two-thirds of the inning before being replaced by Mike Stilwell, who was in turn relieved by Gary Bishop.

Wally Palmberg was the power at the plate for Eastside as he boomed a two-run triple in the third, then returned in the sixth to again clean the basepaths with a sharp rap to roughly the same spot in right field. The hit was scored as a single although Palmberg made a complete round trip scoring two men ahead of him.

"Well! That makes up for all the bad shots I've had on this hole!"

Cards 6, Reds 5

There was more of the "heart-stopping" for Hutchinson Monday night when the Cardinals outscrumbled the Cincinnati Reds, 6-5, in 11 innings.

Cincinnati's Joe Nuxhall carried a 3-1 lead into the ninth but the Cardinals tied it on pinch-hitter Joe Cunningham's two-run homer. The Redbirds pushed over three runs in the top of the 11th for an apparently easy victory.

East goes West in the American League in tonight's all-night game schedule while the West invades East in the National League. In the AL it's Boston at Chicago, Washington at Detroit, New York at Cleveland and Baltimore at Kansas City. In the NL it's San Francisco at Pittsburgh, Los Angeles at Philadelphia, Chicago at Milwaukee and St. Louis at Cincinnati.
